ANTI-GAMBLING WARFARE IN SIAM

United States and England to be Asked to Aid in the Fight.

New York, March 21.—That the United States and England, with other Christian nations, will soon be asked to help the king of Siam put an end to legalized gambling in his country, is the assertion made today by Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, secretary of the Presbyterian foreign board, on the strength of advice just received by him from Siam.

Crabbing in Siam has been licensed and encouraged by the government, the monopoly of conducting the gambling establishments of the cities and towns being auctioned off to the highest bidders. Effort has long been making to get the king to put an end to the government patronage of the evil, and he has just issued a decree to that effect. In a large part of the country gambling is to be stopped on April 1st next, in other country districts a year from April, and in Bangkok, the principal city, in April of 1907. But for the fulfillment of the plan the Christian nations of the world must help.

Rev. Dr. Brown, explaining the part which this country and England will be called upon to play in the matter, said:

"Gambling is the national vice of Siam, where, licensed by the government, it is conducted without attempt at concealment. Every village has its gambling hall, and the cities are full of them. The vice has been vigorously combated by the missionaries of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, the only Protestant organization having work in the country, and their efforts have been strengthened by the influence of Hamilton King, American minister to Siam. It has been represented to the king that the gambling business was a detriment to his country, and the monarch, who, for an Asiatic ruler, is enlightened and progressive, has come to see that it is true.

"But the king has a difficulty to face because a large part of the revenue of Siam is now derived from the gambling concessions. To meet the loss occasioned by their abolition, the king's districts it has been decided to increase the land tax, and this will lay on the people a burden as heavy as that which is expected to bear. Large revenue is gained from the import duties on opium, and the king of Siam proposes that its loss be met by raising the import duties a little. To do this will require the consent of the other nations, and so I say that the question, especially on the United States and England, depends the question whether the gambling in Bangkok shall or shall not be stopped. Siam is an extra-territorial country, and by treaties the import duties are fixed at 3 per cent, and they cannot be raised without the permission of the nations.

"There are 103 gambling places in the interior of Siam. By the king's decree eighty of them will be abolished next April. The remainder of these interior places will be abolished in April, 1907, and those in the city of Bangkok will be closed by the government if the matter of revenues can be adjusted. In this way the change will be a gradual one, and in a little over a year the whole of the evil will be centered in Bangkok, where it is to be found the largest occidental population of the country. This population will, it is hoped, help in getting the import duties legislation from their government.

"This movement on the part of the Siamese government is a tremendous step in advance and one which merits the approval of the whole world. It will be the fault of Europe and America if legalized gambling is not abolished in Siam in the very near future."

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

CRAWFORD-DICKY COMPANY.

Know all men by these presents, that I, the undersigned, do hereby associate myself to the purpose of forming a manufacturing corporation under the provisions of title two (2) of chapter thirty-four (34) of the laws of the State of Minnesota, and all laws amendatory thereto, and to adopt the following articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE ONE.

The name of this corporation shall be the Crawford-Dickey Company.

The general nature of the business of this corporation shall be printing, book-binding and mechanical book-making, and shall be limited to manufacturing along the above lines and to business proper incidental thereto.

The principal place for the transaction of the business of this corporation shall be in the City of Minneapolis, County of Hennepin, State of Minnesota.

ARTICLE TWO.

The time of the commencement of this corporation shall be March 20th, 1905, and it shall continue for a period of 50 years thereafter.

ARTICLE THREE.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) divided into two hundred (200) shares of one hundred dollars ($100.00) each, and the same shall be paid in and subscribed to as the board of directors shall determine.

The highest amount of liability to which this corporation shall be subject at any one time is the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00).

ARTICLE FOUR.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming the corporation are Hamilton Crawford, Courtland N. Dickey, Amelia M. Crawford and John P. Sims, all of Minneapolis, Minnesota.

ARTICLE FIVE.

The government of this corporation and the management of its affairs shall be vested in a board of four (4) directors, to be elected by and from the stockholders at their annual meeting, commencing with the annual meeting of 1905, all of which annual meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation in the said City of Minneapolis at ten (10) o'clock a. m. on the second Wednesday of January of each year, commencing with the said year 1905, each stockholder being entitled at all stockholders' meetings to vote one share of stock owned by him. The directors elected at such meetings shall hold their offices for one (1) year and until their successors are elected and accept office.

The annual meeting of the board of directors shall be held at the said principal office of said corporation immediately at the close of the annual meeting of the stockholders and said board shall elect from their number at the principal office of the corporation, with the annual meeting of the year 1905, a president, a vice president, a secretary and a treasurer, who shall perform such duties as may devolve upon them under the bylaws of this corporation, and who shall hold their respective offices for one (1) year and until their successors are elected and accept office, but said board may elect any one or more of them for any term (two (2) of said offices, except those of the president and vice president, may be held by the same person).

If, for any reason, the stockholders should fail to elect directors, or if the directors should fail to elect the officers, or if any of them should die, or if they should be elected at an adjourned meeting or at a special meeting called for that purpose, or if any of them should be absent from the meeting, the power to elect directors and officers shall have power to elect such persons in their stead, and to add to, amend or repeal the bylaws of the company as and at any time the stockholders may desire, as hereby reserved to said stockholders.

Until the annual meeting of the year 1906 and until their successors are elected and accept office, the said Hamilton Crawford, Courtland N. Dickey, Amelia M. Crawford and John P. Sims shall constitute the board of directors, and the said Courtland N. Dickey shall be the vice president, and the said Amelia M. Crawford shall be the secretary, and the said John P. Sims shall be the treasurer, and they shall hold their respective offices for one (1) year and until their successors are elected and accept office.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.
