A committee of club women has been A committee of club women has been organized to purchase a picture from the collection for the permanent gallery of the Laird public library building. Mrs. O. F. Burlingame is chairman. A voting contest is being held to choose the jury to select the picture. Three will be selected from the following list: Bishop Cotter, Mrs. F. S. Bell, Rev. Edward Borncamp, Rev. Philip Van Rohr, the Misses Katherine Rising, Bertha Speckman and Flinn. Rising, Bertha Speckman and Flinn.

The exhibition was opened with a reception, at which addresses were made by Congressman James A. Tawney, President Robert Koehler of the State

Art society, Judge O. B. Gould and Ernest Kennedy. Ernest Kennedy.

Today the jury of the society will award the prizes. It was chosen by the exhibitors and includes: Charles Francis Browne, painter, Chicago; Irving K. Pond, architect, Chicago; Richard Lorenz, painter, Milwaukee; Miss Florence Wales, painter, Minneapolis; Miss Mary Coulter, art craftsman, St. Paul. The prizes aggregate about $400 and go to Minnesota artists.

The sales began at the opening recepand go to Minnesota artists.

The sales began at the opening reception, when an enameled silver plate, made at the Handicroft shop, Wellesley, Mass, from a design of Miss Mary C. Knight; a pair of George Parker's bronze candlesticks and a beautiful china bowl by May McCrystle of Chicago, were sold.

The Exhibition was shown in St. Paul at the rooms of the society at the capitol, before being sent to Winona, and was viewed by many thousands. It will be sent to Minneapolis for exhibition under the auspices of the Minneapolis Society of Fine Arts, which will pay the expense, at Beard's art gallery, opening about April 12.

By special request, lunch will be served Monday evening, and the rest room will be open for any ladies who may be attending "Parsifal."

Need of Clothing.

There is an urgent need of clothing of every kind at the Woman's Work exchange at the City Mission, and the shelves are almost empty. Thru the exchange many a poor woman has been a supposed to the needs and the reighborhood.

Miss Hale asks aid only in the matter of wages for a woman to do the heavy work of the household, and for the necessary groceries and incidental expenses. The railroads give all transportation. These women know work, and they select the needy children, and have already the confidence of their parents. Never was there a safer or more economical channel for the investment of money in children's summer outings. The directors of the Bethel Settlement regret that their funds may not be directed to this purpose, which lies outside their work, but they heartily indorse Miss Hale in her project and will make themselves responsible for money entrusted to them for this purpose.

An appeal for country outings for poor children always meets with a ready response. This plan is not an experiment, but is the outgrowth of a for this purpose. year's successful experience.

Contributions will be received by any one of the undersigned committee from the Bethel Settlement association: Mrs. Edwin S. Slater. 1900 Kenwood Parkway; Mrs. David P. Jones, 2005 Third avenue S; George W. Beach, 1500 Harmon Place.
