JAPANESE BONDS ARE IN DEMAND

MINNEAPOLIS INVESTORS EAGER FOR THE ALLOTMENT.

Portions of War Loan Bonds Offered in Minneapolis Have Been Oversubscribed About Three Times—Are at a Lower Rate of Interest than the First Issue.

Japanese war bonds are popular in Minneapolis. Faith of local bond buyers in the ability of the Japanese government to pay its bills and in the security offered for the loan, is demonstrated by the fact that Minneapolis' probable allotment has been oversubscribed about three times.

W. A. Durst, secretary of the Minnesota Loan & Trust company, which is handling the Japanese bond sale for Minneapolis, says his company does not expect to get more than one-third of the amount its customers would like.

Japan has just offered an issue of $150,000,000 4 1/2 per cent. Half of this will be allotted to the United States and the other half will go to London. So popular are the bonds that the entire American issue will be oversubscribed several times. For this reason all sections of the country are to be disappointed, if bond buyers elsewhere are clamoring so eagerly for the bonds.

Because of this oversubscription Minneapolis cannot get more than its prescribed allotment. The eagerness with which Japan's paper is taken there is shown by the fact that the difficulty which Russia has in raising money. Russian bonds are declining, and even now the country is negotiating with France, at hard terms, for a 6 per cent $150,000,000 loan at practically the same terms of the present issue of $150,000,000, which is to bear only 4 1/2 per cent.

CHAMPION OF CONGRESS

SENATOR MOSES E. CLAPP TELLS WHY SO LITTLE WAS ACCOMPLISHED.

Senator Moses E. Clapp is home from Washington, and comes to the rescue of the last congress by trying to explain why no more business was done. He says that the trouble was not the appropriation bills took so much time that there was no time for other business, but that the trouble was the president and the senate. He says that it was merely a misunderstanding.

In speaking of the railway rate question Senator Clapp says he has no doubt that the next congress will pass a measure which will widen the powers of the railway commission and at the same time relieve them of much of the present routine work. The senate committee on interstate and foreign commerce will resume its sittings on April 17, and will go into the matter of the railway rate question.

LIBRARY NOT AFFECTED

Tabard Inn Failure Won't Interfere With Circulation. Philadelphia, March 28.—Five concerns allied with the Booklovers and Tabard Inn libraries, of which Seymour Eaton is president, were placed in the hands of a receiver yesterday by the United States circuit court.

The establishments affected are the Philadelphia Book Store company, Tabard Inn Press, Tabard Inn Shops and Stationery, Tabard Inn Druggist company, and the Tabard Inn Food company. The liabilities, according to President Eaton's statements, are less than $150,000, and the assets exceed $1,000,000.

George H. Swasey, Jr., manager of the Minneapolis office of the Booklovers' library, received a telegram this morning conveying the assurance to the library patrons that their interests were unaffected. Considerable feeling against the teacher was aroused at the time of the whipping, and it was expected that a trial would be held.

WOMAN BEGGAR ASSESTS HE WAS ILEGALLY JAILED

SHE HAD RECENTLY BOUGHT A HOUSE AND LOT.

Mrs. Sarah Westberg Persisted in Soliciting Alms After Being Repeatedly Warned to Desist—Associated Charities Has Her Arrested—Court Hangs a Workhouse Sentence Over Her Head.

The Associated Charities crusade against professional beggars took a new turn today when Mrs. Sarah Westberg, who lives at 62 Mill street, under the Washington avenue bridge, was arrested in police court on a charge of vagrancy. She was found guilty and sentenced to the workhouse for thirty days, but a stay was given until May 2 with the understanding that she is to be no more.

Mrs. Westberg is one of the worst cases the charitable organizations of the city have had to deal with for many years. She is heavy on accounts of the Quaker from Dassel, Minn., where her husband owns a forty-acre farm, improved and free from incumbrances. Her husband became ill shortly after the death of Mrs. Westberg's mother and she was left with a large family to support. The Associated Charities investigated and forbade her to continue soliciting alms.

But the woman was obstinate. There was too much money in begging. Today it developed that alms claiming to be a pauper, she has since coming to Minneapolis purchased a house and lot, meeting a cash payment of $75, and she had $50 in cash this morning.

W. V. KAUFMAN GETS A WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.

He Was Held in Durance After the Grand Jury, to Which He Was Held, Had Failed to Find an Indictment Against Him—Was Arrested for Embezzlement.

Judge H. D. Dickinson this morning issued a writ of habeas corpus, citing the sheriff to bring W. V. Kaufman, held in the county jail on a charge of embezzlement, into court. It is claimed that Kaufman is illegally imprisoned, and E. S. Cary, his attorney, is seeking, on this writ, to secure his release.

It is alleged that Kaufman was committed to the county jail by the municipal court officials without first having had a preliminary hearing or waiving the same, as required by the statute. The prisoner is accused of appropriating and selling for his own profit a car of apples belonging to the D. E. Ryan company. He was arrested in Michigan and brought to Minneapolis Feb. 20.

On that date he was taken into the municipal court, and his case was continued to March 20. Up to and including that date he was held in jail without a commitment. The court records show that on March 20 he was taken into court, waived a preliminary hearing and was ordered bound over to the grand jury.

It is stated, in the petition for a writ, that the prisoner was not taken into court in March; that, in fact, he has never been before the grand jury. Jailer Clauson and his assistants are willing to swear to this fact. Kaufman has not been indicted.

It can be proven, negligence will be shown to someone's harm and it is probable that the prisoner will have to be released, temporarily at least. Thoro satisfaction. All losses made good. Palace Clothing House Laundry. CREATURE FOLLOWS THE CONRID FORCES
