MINNEAPOLIS MAN IS FIGHTING MAD

SENDS FOR BLOODHOUND AND OFFERS REWARD.

H. H. Kryger Is Having Trouble in Establishing a Town at Otter Tail Lake—Says People from Neighboring Settlements Shoot Up His Office and Steal and Burn Hay.

H. H. Kryger, 608 Old Colony building, returned to Minneapolis today filled with choler. He has sent south for a bloodhound and is offering a reward of $1,000 for information leading to the arrest of those who have shot at his house and burned and stole his hay at Otter Tail Lake.

Kryger followed the Soo extension and opened up a townsite called New Otter Tail on the banks of the lake. The Soo townsite is known as Otter Tail and has a population of sixty. The New Otter Tail, half mile distant, has but one house, the office of Kryger, the rivalry between the towns is intense.

Kryger avers that some of the people of Otter Tail have decided to discourage his townsite enterprise. He has built an office and owns the property on which a clubhouse stands. Recently the house and office have been shot into repeatedly in the night.

C. S. DARROW ON CHICAGO'S PLANS

FORMER CORPORATION COUNSEL IS IN MINNEAPOLIS.

He Discusses the Result of the Recent Municipal Election—Windy City Will "Make Good" Its Boast, "I Will"—How It Will Acquire the Street Railways.

CLARENCE S. DARROW, Former Corporation Counsel of Chicago.

"Chicago has said 'I will' in the matter of municipal ownership of public utilities, especially the street railway," said Clarence S. Darrow, former corporation counsel of Chicago, at the West hotel today.

"It will be possible to proceed at once to acquire the street railway property, but certain obstacles must be overcome. There is a disposition to give the traction companies liberal value for their property. At the last session of the legislature provisional bills were passed under which Chicago may acquire and operate the lines. The method of providing the money will probably be the same as used in building the water system. Certificates will be issued for the property itself."

WOMEN CAN DRESS REAL SCHOOL FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS

ON $65 PER, BUT IT'S BAD TO LET HUSBY KNOW IT, THEY SAY.

Discussion of Edward Atkinson's Estimate Elicits Ideas As to How the Same Economy in Clothes Could Be Better Practiced—How Minneapolis Women Feel About It.

"Don't encourage husbands to think Edward Atkinson's estimate that $65 a year is all that is necessary for a woman's clothing is fair or desirable. It is a good deal to make a woman whose financial perplexities are already grievous enough," said an elegantly gowned woman whose broad sympathies and experience with the world gave her a knowledge of conditions greatly differing from her own.
