BASEBALL MILLERS WIN IN SUNDAY GAME

VANQUISH TEAMS AT SPRINGFIELD AND BLOOMINGTON.

Games Against Three-I League Teams Show that Watkins' Men Are Getting Their Eyes on the Ball—Final Round-up at Champaign Before Work of the Year Begins.

Watkins' wanderers took a winning streak yesterday, winning their games with the Three-I league aggregations of Bloomington and Springfield, Ill., at Springfield. The locals tried out four pitchers, but, outside of Bridges, secured from Pittsberg, none made a showing. Greminger and Craig led in the batting onslaught. Craig and Gehring were used in the box for Minneapolis, and were touched up for ten hits, they being equally divided. Craig started the game, but retired in the fifth in runs in the third, when Pyle got his base on balls and was sent around the bases on a sacrifice and an error, making home on a passed ball. LeClair of the Prairie leaguers pitched a good game. He gave six bases on balls, but not one counted, and allowed only two singles. Spiser of the Gothamites also put up a good game, allowing but six hits and striking out eight men.
