BROTHERLY LOVE IN PHILADELPHIA

Peaceful Quakers Hurl a Few Added Eggs at the Giants.

New York Sun Special Service. Philadelphia, April 25.—Despite the good behavior of the New York players in today's game at Philadelphia park, the visitors won by 5 to 4, and great precautions taken by the police and baseball officials, another small-sized riot followed the contest.

Early in the day President Pulliam had wired the managers of the Philadelphia and New York clubs that McGinn and Abbott, who figured in the fight at Philadelphia park Saturday had been punished.

There was not a sign of trouble during the game, but when it was over the New York players hastened to their barouches which were protected by policemen on bicycles.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS. Played. Won. Lost. Pct. New York..... 6 5 1 .833. Philadelphia..... 7 3 4 .429.

IOWA CONFERENCE ADOPTS REFORMS

Will Purge College Athletics of the Suspicion of Professionalism.

Special to the Journal. Grinnell, Iowa, April 25.—Rules for the regulation of Iowa intercollegiate athletics were adopted at a faculty athletic conference Saturday night. As a result of the strict rules formulated, college athletics will be much more pure than in the future, the two teams will probably suffer loss of prowess. The colleges represented in the conference are Iowa, Cornell, Drake, Parsons, Coe, Penn, Western, Des Moines, U. I. U., W. U., State Normal, Morningside and Iowa State college.

Summed up briefly, the length rules provide: That a student going from one institution to another shall not take part in athletics until he has concluded a year's residence in the second school.

That there shall be no special remuneration for athletic service.

That no student can take part in intercollegiate athletics for a period of more than four years.

That a student shall not play under an assumed name, and all intercollegiate contests shall take place on grounds controlled by one of the institutions represented in the conference.

That any student who has been in school six months and leaves cannot participate in athletics upon his return until after six months.

That anyone who has received compensation for athletic service, as in professional athletics, shall not be allowed to participate in college contests.

That a college athlete shall not be allowed to enter any other athletic team than that of the college of which he is a member, except upon written permission of the faculty, it being provided that permission cannot be given to play on professional teams.

These rules will be submitted to the various colleges and voted upon before they will become binding.

The visitors will remain in the twin cities for a week and a program full of races and social events is now being arranged. Monday has been set apart as Minneapolis day, and a cruise on the St. Paul club at Laver Grove and the members of the St. Paul club detailed to meet the visitors at the various points will be headed by bands and automobiles gaily decorated.
