CAUSE NEEDS HELP

St. Barnabas Will Benefit by "Chimes of Normandy" Production. The Women's Auxiliary for St. Barnabas hospital has begun to realize, since it first prepared to give the "Chimes of Normandy" as a benefit for the charities of the hospital, that a warm and vigorous sympathy with its work is extant. Assistance for the hospital is needed now more than ever before, and preparations for the elaborate entertainment at the Auditorium has been the result. The irresistible comic opera, "The

PAID FULL FARE.

Chimes of Normandy," noted for its quaint, fresh charm, will be put on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings in the Auditorium with the most elaborate stage settings ever given in this city. Costumes especially made and chosen particularly with an eye to giving pleasing stage pictures have been ordered. With John Ravenscroft, Harry George, St. Paul; Addison Madeira and Mrs. G. A. Hughes in the principal roles, the production cannot be anything but a strong one. Tickets are on sale at the Metropolitan Music store, and the briskness of the demand for seats has been a source of satisfaction to the women's auxiliary.

Baptist Missionary Delegates Not Numerous Enough.

Delegates to the Baptist Women's Missionary Society of the West returned home this morning, feeling somewhat indignant over the fact that they were unable to secure special rate from the railroads. Only thirty-four certificates were filed by delegates, a number not large enough to secure the one-third rate home. The visitors thought that the women of the state might have attended the convention in larger numbers and aided in securing a reduction in the railroad fare.
