The annual military ball of the cadet officers at the university will be the event of this evening and the university army will be elaborately decorated with flags and military paraphernalia. The flag will be raised to open the ball and lowered at the close, as is the pretty custom at all large military dances. The crack squad from Shattuck school, Fairbault, will give a fancy drill. The gallery will be opened for those who wish to see the dancers and yet do not desire to take part in the dancing.

Miss Rosamond Beckman and M. L. Gett will be married Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in Mikko Kodesh synagogue.

Dr. Charles W. Hack was the guest of honor Saturday evening at a dinner which was given at the Commercial club by a small group of friends in honor of his approaching marriage. Pink roses and ferns formed the centerpiece, roses were scattered over the cloth and a rose was at each cover. The place cards were decorated with wreath-like sketches of pretty girls. After dinner Dr. Hack was called to the telephone, where he was surprised to hear the voice of his fiancée, Miss Gretchen Kelley, who lives in Columbus, Ohio. Miss Kelley was introduced, over the telephone, to all of the guests. E. J. Westlake presided over the informal program of toasts that followed. The guests were Dr. Hack, Mr. Westlake, Isaac Kaufmann, Edward Alger, John Sessions, H. G. Thompson, Danforth Cowles and Benjamin Sandy.

Mrs. Charles McC. Reeve entertained a group of women informally at cards Friday afternoon at her home at Lake Harriet. There were sixteen guests and bridge was played.

The Dillon chapter of Phi Delta Phi gave its annual banquet Saturday evening in the Minneapolis club. The guests of honor were Dean W. S. Patton, James Paige, Judge A. C. Hickman and Howard S. Abbott. Red tulips and ferns and red shaded candles decorated the table, where covers were placed for fifty. Albert H. Hall was toastmaster, and the responses were as follows: "Things, Immaterial, Incomplete and Irrelevant," Charles S. Albert; "In Statu Quo," Dean W. S. Patton; "Hearsay Evidence," Norton M. Cross; "Dillon Chapter," J. von Williams; "Mixed," Jay Kennicott.

Miss Aletta Telefonton, a June bride, was the honor guest at a chrysanthemum Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. G. Sjoblom, 1822 Eleventh avenue S. The decorations were in pink and white. There were forty guests.

The closing party of H. W. Malcolm's children's class took the form of the cotillion and was given Saturday afternoon in Masonic Temple. Fancy dances were given by Bernice Kolbas, Lucille Ungerer, Eunice Mitchell, Ruth Milken, Schott, Josephine Porter, Pearl Bomhower, Edith Christ, Genevieve Rawitzer, Harold Beckrow and Hazel Reed. During the cotillion Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm were presented with a handsome water-color picture, and Miss Ethel Malcolm was given a gold locket from the members of her class in fancy dancing.

Mr. Malcolm gave his last informal Friday evening, and a reception for his high school class Saturday evening marked the close of the season.

Local Lodges Have Street Parade and Church Service.
The eighty-sixth anniversary of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was celebrated in Excelsior this morning yesterday, with a street parade, followed by exercises at the Church of the Redeemer, where Rev. Marion D. Thayer spoke on the principles of Odd Fellowship.

Several St. Paul lodges were represented, the grand master, Winn Powers, and Secretary, J. L. Bakken, and Grand Patriarch Aug. Hohenstein and Grand Scribe Colonel C. R. Wilkinson, all of St. Paul, being present. About 90 members of the order were in line in the parade, while the church where the exercises were held was crowded to its capacity.

The parade formed on Nicollet avenue and marched to the local lodge, and the A. O. U. W. bands furnishing the music. The services at the church started at 3 o'clock. Dr. Shutter's sermon was a stirring comparison of friendship, love and truth.

The commemoration was in charge of Patrick Madden, W. F. Eggers, G. E. Stegers, Charles Crew and J. A. Burton.

CHURCH DEDICATED.
Appropriate Exercises for New Congregational Edifice.
People from most of the Congregational churches of the city were present yesterday afternoon at the dedication of the new Thirty-eighth Street Congregational church.

The evening program was particularly interesting. Judge E. F. Waite of the municipal court and J. R. Kingman both speaking on "The Church and the City." Judge Waite devoted most of his time to the necessity of having a new city charter. He told of the many efforts in that direction and showed how the people had failed to interest themselves in what was for their own good.

ome. What is it? She is developing the lower of mind and heart, understanding and conscience; the flower of service. She is educated, learning to be economically independent, entering colleges, entering the professions, and entering business, on her own account. A new world opens before her over and above former mere social accomplishments and elegancies. She carries her mind not only to private householding, but also to city and state housekeeping, and national housekeeping. She sees that the little homes and the larger homes stand or fall together. She sustains new relations of all kinds to home, to man, to state, to society, to business, to religion.
Woman desires to do her part in civilizing the world, to be a helpmate of man and not merely an ornament, a graceful vine, a subject, only sweet silly poetry and silly even if chivalrous romance. The gulf between the two estates is immeasurable. But unharmed, yea, vastly enhanced remains the bloom of the eternal feminine.
Modern civilization sorely needs the help of every earnest, able, honest soul of every woman as well as of every man.

JAPS FOR GT. NORTHERN
ADMISSION OF OVER 600 WILL BE FOUGHT BY SEATTLE LABOR UNION.
Seattle, Wash., May 1.—The steamship Olympia is anchored in the stream here with 610 Japanese laborers aboard who are to be landed and distributed along the sections of the Great Northern railroad. The Orientals were brought from plantations in the Hawaiian islands by the Oriental Trading company, of this city.
The Western Central Labor union believes that the importation of the Japanese is in violation of the alien contract labor law and an attempt is being made to secure a restraining order and prevent their being landed.

KAISER MENACES PEACE OF EUROPE
Would Split Up Morocco and Give Aid to Russia—Nations Alarmed.
London, May 1.—Europe had a fit of the blues last week. The fear that Germany had adopted an adventurous policy which might fail to endanger European peace spread from diplomatic to other circles and general uneasiness followed. The Kaiser's Moroccan adventure was serious enough, but nobody knows what lies beyond his general program. The Kaiser's ultimate idea regarding Morocco obviously is to partition the country among Germany, France and Spain, the Atlantic seaboard to be Germany's share. It is assumed that Russia cannot oppose the scheme and that Great Britain would shrink from the task.
The latter assumption, it may be said, without hesitation, is baseless. The British temper at the present moment is hotter against Germany than is the French, and the latter is most apprehensive of the danger point. The vigorous action of Great Britain and Spain in sending envoys to Fez to offset the German expedition is sufficient indication of the close co-operation with which three signatories to the Morocco agreement will resist German pretensions.

KAISER'S ATTITUDE A MENACE.
But it is the Kaiser's general attitude of menace which disquiets Europe. His pretensions for peace no longer carry conviction. It is the German emperor and not the Russo-Japanese war that is upsetting markets, alarming chancelleries and disturbing public confidence throughout Europe.

RICH ARE LASHED BY MARIE CORELLI
"Over-Rich Fools" Attacked for Squandering Fortunes on "Mere Feeding."
New York Sun Special Service.
London, May 1.—Marie Corelli has expressed her views on "the simple life."
She attacks chiefly "over-rich fools," who spend small fortunes on one evening's entertainment.
After referring in scathing terms to the wanton waste of money perpetrated in mere feeding at expensive luncheons and dinners given daily and nightly at fashionable restaurants of the West End, Miss Corelli answers one critic, who asks where the smart set, which she and others have described, can be found, by declaring that it can be found "at the public eating houses of luxury, where can be seen persons who
