

The Young-Quinlan Co.

518-517 Nicollet Av.

Announce Beginning Wednesday

A most important clearance sale of

High Class Tailored Gowns

Unmistakably the greatest offering ever made in women's suits at this season of the year.

Five hundred suits—all newest styles—mostly one and two of a kind,—arranged for convenient selection and offered at astonishing prices to effect a speedy clearance, presenting opportunities in money-saving of a most unusual character—

Added to this we will offer a special purchase of about 150 suits just received by express—secured by Miss Quinlan, now in New York, at one-third to one-half recent regular prices. They will be included in this sale on basis of purchase.

Women's and Misses' Suits

Sicilians, plain and fancy Panama, checks, broken plaids, tweeds, serges and chevrons, in Etons, Blouses, Box and Norfolk coats, new Circular, flounce and pleated skirts. Regularly sold until now $45, $40, $37.50 and $35. $25.00

Women's and Misses' Suits

Imported Serges, Fancy Panama, Novelty Mixtures, Fancy Checks, Drap d'ete, Sicilian and Broadcloth, navy, reseda, wood browns, tan and black, in Empire, Eton, Blouse and Long Coat effects. Regularly sold until now, $60, $57.50, $55 and $50. $35.00

Tailor Gowns

Imported Veilings, Chiffon Taffetas, Sicilians, Drap d'ete, Prunella Cloths, Eolienne, Checks and Novelty Materials, with applications of fancy trimmings. The Novelty long coat—Blouse and Empire Models—Included are our handsomest opening pieces in pastel, white, reseda, rose, blue, the darker shades and black. Recently sold at $65, $60 and $55. $45.00

This opportunity should be taken advantage of by any one interested in purchasing or making a gown, as the above reductions are usually made in July—

A typographical error in the advertisement of the Young-Quinlan company last night made it appear that the Laced-Front Corsets sold at $1.50. The prices of these corsets range from $5 to $25.

Cards have been received by Minneapolis friends announcing the marriage of Miss Margaret North and Rev. David DeForest Burnett, which took place in New York, Saturday. Mr. Burnett will be remembered as the son of Rev. David J. Burnett, who was pastor of Westminster church from 1887 to 1891.

Mrs. J. B. Weir has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Sue Allen, to Charles Everett Buckbee of St. Paul, which will take place Wednesday evening, May 17, at her home, 2435 Stevens avenue. The service will be followed by a small reception.

Miss Berta Cecilia Busch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Busch of Red Wing, Minn., and Edward E. Luger of Minneapolis, were married at 10:30 o'clock today in St. Joseph's church, Red Wing. The ceremony was read by Rev. Joseph Busch, a cousin of the bride, Miss Wilhelmina Busch was maid of honor and Albert Luger of St. Paul acted as best man. The bride and groom went east on their wedding trip, and they will be at home at 323 Lyndale avenue N, after July 10.

A wedding that will bring a bride to Minneapolis took place last week in San Antonio, Tex., when Miss Margaret Slattery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Slattery of St. Paul and Bernard D. Castle of this city were married.

Mrs. W. A. McMaster and Miss May Kemper will entertain next Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Etta McCabe, a bride of the month.

About three hundred young people attended the military ball which was given last evening by the university cadets in the armory. Flags and bunting hung from the rafters and draped the stage and balcony, while guns and sabers were used about the hall to add to the military effect. The university were all in the cadet uniform, gray coats and white duck trousers, and the visiting officers from Fort Snelling and the national guard wore the following uniforms also. A pretty feature of the evening was the raising of the flag with full ceremony to open the program and when taps were sounded an exhibition drill was given by the crack squad from Shattuck Military academy, Faribault, Minn., which is considered the best drilled squad in the northwest. The patronesses for the evening were: Mrs. J. A. Johnson, Ray Jones, David P. Jones, Cyrus Northrop, G. H. Morgan, W. W. Fowell, J. P. Downey, J. E. Williams, E. E. Nicholson, J. B. Pike, F. F. Westbrook, Carl Schlenker.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Robertson entertained at dinner last evening to celebrate the ninety-first birthday anniversary of Mr. Robertson's father, Smith Robertson.

Mrs. W. P. Herter of 3216 Elliott avenue, entertained a group of friends Saturday afternoon in honor of her father's birthday anniversary. Friends and relatives decorated the parlors and carriages were in the dining room. Progressive cinch was played. The guests were Mrs. M. E. Gilbert, W. Tabour, Davis, Baxter, E. Roberts, Evans, Arnold, Rathbone, Churchill, Franzendorf and Dan Tyler.

John A. Whitten entertained the guests of the Williston hotel at a delightful May party last evening. The rooms were decorated with flowers and ferns and dancing was the amusement. Refreshments were served from a green-wreathed table. Among the guests were Messrs. and Mrs. Ellis Aretander, T. E. Lewis, C. P. March, J. W. Griffin, Paul E. Faust, Robert P. May, J. E. Egan, J. E. Rasmussen, Edward McDonald, Mmes. Emmons, DeWitt Clinton, Aiken, Agnew; Misses Helen Agnew, Mable, Louis Lewis, Thelander, Katherine Coyne, Elsie, Sturgis, P. W. L. Collier, Walter Winslow, Earl C. May, Farley Jones, Carl Schrader, Messrs. Wood, Coch, Helm and Robert Ladue.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Brownell of Bloomington avenue leave next week for Seattle, Wash., to make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Brownell were surprised by a party of forty of their friends and neighbors, who brought them a silver table. Music was furnished by Messrs. Bunkles and Johnston and Messrs. Northrop and Fraxer.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
Miss Loretta Dellone is home from a visit in Northfield.

C. J. Rytchia of Minneapolis has arrived at Atlanta, Ga., and is registered at the Calhoun hotel.

The Nansoson will give a dance in the Phoenix

The Song of the Grad.
Bye, bye! Hope rises high:
There's a sweet little die hung up in the sky;
A dear little life that is come to die.

One of the grandest agencies which enlightens Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with a healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of a baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis of Hudson, New Hampshire. "Had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband proposed some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, sore eruptions or belching of gas are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two each day, of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the Original Little Liver Pills, made by his son, Dr. J. C. Riegel, 40 years ago. One or two laxative three or four cathartic.

club Thursday evening. C. B. Ejele will be master of ceremonies.
The Lakota Club was entertained yesterday by Mrs. S. A. Young of 1877 Elliot avenue. The prizes were won by Mmes. Nelson and Little.
Mrs. Mary Eaton and her daughter, Mrs. Shad-bolt, returned today from La Crosse, Wis., to spend the summer at their home in La Crosse, Wis. Mrs. Eaton is assistant librarian in the C. C. Washburn library at La Crosse.

Officers Elected.
The Saturday Magazine club was entertained at eucbe Saturday by Mrs. J. M. Moir. After lunch the annual business meeting and election of officers was held. The following were elected officers for the coming year: Mrs. C. A. Donaldson, president; Mrs. H. W. Benton, vice president; Mrs. George B. Norris, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. M. L. Parker, critic.

Mr. Bradstreet's Lecture.
One of the most delightful occasions of the closing club year was the lecture given last evening by J. S. Bradstreet at the Columbia Study club. First Unitarian church was filled with an appreciative audience as the club had invited the members of all the federated clubs in the city to share the treat. Mr. Bradstreet was introduced by Mrs. Weed Munro, president of the club.

CLUB NOTES.
Zehrahs Ladies will hold their regular meeting Friday at 2:30 p.m. in Masonic Temple.

Under the direction of Albin E. Ogren, the club shows vast improvement over its work last year. Its singing is more spontaneous, its expression is more better, its voices are sweeter and freer, and its work is more intelligent and more artistic.

Mme. Ida Nilhen-Kindwall, the principal soloist, has a clear and true soprano voice with an exceptionally good lower register. Alho not particularly sympathetic, her rendition of "He Shall Feed His Flock," from "The Messiah," was very grateful.

Frank J. Rosenthal, a young and promising basso from St. Paul, proved a great favorite. His voice is deep and sonorous, and especially suited to the heroic in music. His aria from "Don Giovanni" was especially well done. While not so well suited to ballad music in general, his voice proved admirably well adapted to Sans Souci's "When Song Is Sweet."

D. A. Davies, the well-known tenor, contributed four numbers to the program. He was in good voice, and did his best work in Chadwick's lovely, delicate melody, "Thou Art So Like a Flower."

Franz Zedeler, violinist, completed the quartet of soloists. In the Vioux-temps "Reverie" Mr. Zedeler played with feeling, and his technique was far from perfect. His own Swedish fantasy bristled with fireworks, and was played with great freedom. Encores were accorded after each number. He was especially favored in the accompaniment, which played admirably. Victor Bodien accompanied the club and Mr. Rosenthal very effectively.

Nobbiest Shirt Waists.
If you want something a little nicer in a shirt waist than you ever saw, try the Jones Shirt Factory, Dispatch building, St. Paul.

NORTHWEST NECROLOGIC
BOONE, IOWA.—Fifty Methodist ministers from the Des Moines conference were present at the funeral of Dr. J. B. Harris here this afternoon. Dr. Harris died Sunday after an illness of one year. An operation performed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harris, was not successful. Dr. Harris as a boy was a telegraph operator at Weston, Iowa. He studied for the ministry at Simpson college, Indiana, Iowa, and after a successful career as a minister was elected president of the college.

ABERDEEN, S. D.—In the death of Sunday of Mrs. Sophia McCarty, Aberdeen, S. D., is recorded in the West. Mrs. McCarty was born in Martinsburg, N. Y., in 1808, and resided in West Martinsburg most of her life. She was married there in 1826, and celebrated her golden wedding there in 1882. She died at Aberdeen, S. D., after a long illness. Her husband, Mr. McCarty, was a member of the Methodist church for over seventy-five years.
