THE WEDDING PRESENT STORE

Somehow there is an elegance about the gifts at S. Jacobs & Co.'s. The air of quality dominates. And it is well to select gifts that are genteel. None of us can afford to throw all idea of economy to the winds, and that is another reason for selecting the gift at Jacobs. The gifts are rightly priced.

WHAT'S DOING IN SOCIETY AND IN LOCAL CLUB LIFE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Townsend issued the invitations today for the marriage of their daughter, Eleanor Nesbitt, to Dr. Frederick C. Fochler of Herreid, S. D., which will take place in Gethsemane church Thursday evening, June 1. The service will be followed by a small reception at the Townsend residence on Fourth avenue S.

Mrs. Erle D. Luce gave a charming rose luncheon this afternoon at the Hampshire Arms for Miss Sue Weir, a bride of next week. In the center of the polished table was a great Japanese basket filled with pink roses and a large cluster of the flowers was fastened to the bride's chair, with pink tulle. The lights were pink shades, the place-cards simulated roses and the chosen color was attractively used in the menu. The guests included a group of Kappa Kappa Gamma girls—the Misses Weir, Hull of Evanston, Ill., Katherine Harris, Helen Burbridge, Elsie Stone, Avery Trask, Helen Clarke and Mary Morgan. Last evening the Kappa Kappa Gamma girls gave a spread at the home of Miss Mary Rankin, on Laurel avenue, for Miss Weir. Wednesday Miss Elsie Stone entertained at luncheon and earlier in the week Miss Helen Kimberly of St. Paul was hostess at a luncheon.

Tomorrow afternoon Will Hale will give a sailing party at Minnetonka for Miss Weir and her fiancé, Charles E. Everett Buckbee of St. Paul. Monday afternoon Miss Katherine Harris will be hostess at a kitchen shower at her home on Vine place, and on Tuesday evening Mrs. H. E. Fairchild of 143 E. Twenty-fifth street will give the bride dinner.

The wedding of Miss Weir and Mr. Buckbee will be quietly solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. B. Weir, 2438 Stevens avenue. Only the relatives and near friends will be present at the reading of the service, which will be followed by a small reception.

Mrs. William Anthol McMaisters and Miss May Kemper entertained forty young women at cards this afternoon at the home of Mrs. McMaisters, on Park avenue, in honor of Miss Etta McCabe, a bride of the month. Wedding bells of red and white furnished an appropriate decoration, with festoons of red hearts and carnations. Cinch was played and after the games a light luncheon was served. The hostesses were assisted by Miss McCabe, Mrs. W. H. Kemper and Mrs. J. M. Hazen.

Mrs. William Kling, of Los Angeles, Cal., was the guest of honor at a prettily appointed luncheon that was given this afternoon by Mrs. W. Eastman, at her home on the island. Pink roses decked the table and covers were placed for fourteen. Cards were played after luncheon.

Mrs. Charles W. Benton gave an informal luncheon this afternoon at her home on Fifth street SE. Marguerite furnished a pretty table decoration. The guests were Miss Cyrus Northrop, S. E. Van Sant, Frederick Klaber, Frank M. Anderson, Calvin Brown, J. F. Clarke and Joseph E. Ware.

Tomorrow evening Professor and Mrs. Benton will entertain a small group of guests at dinner.

The Triangle club, which was organized among the inter-fraternity freshmen this spring at the university, acted as hosts to a group of co-eds last evening at a roller skating party, given in the Nicollet rink after the regular session. About fifty couples were in attendance. Among the guests were Miss Rose Marie Schaller, of Hastings, who acted as sponsor for the new battleship Minnesota last month; Miss Hoffman, Hopkins; Miss Daugterman, Stillwater; Miss Marie Rankin, Ruth Haynes, Maud Tubbs, Marguerite Morgan, Ada Comstock, Minnie Stinchfield and Miss Lauges.

The Nu Upsilon club of Gethsemane church will give its annual dance and party for the Alpha Phi sorority in Royal Arcanum hall, Lake street and Nicollet avenue, tomorrow evening. The girls will return the compliment at a later date.

Roller skating does not lose any of its popularity. Tuesday evening the Tuesday club has chartered the Casino rink, near Hennepin, for Friday evening. The South High School Athletic association will give the last of a series of roller skating parties at the Nicollet avenue rink.

The marriage of Miss Anna Phillips of Spokane, Wash., and Walter Ahlony was solemnized Wednesday evening in St. Charles' church. Only a small group of relatives witnessed the service, which was read by Rev. J. M. Cleary. Miss Bertha Ahlony, a maid of honor and wore a pale blue gown, and carried pink roses. The bride was in white and her flowers were roses. Mr. and Mrs. Mahoney will be home after June 1 at 1816 Park avenue.

Miss Nellie Shaw and John J. Finn were married Wednesday in the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Seattle, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Finn will be at home after June 15, in Minneapolis.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL. Mr. and Mrs. David Dreyher of the Hampshire Arms have moved to 1915 First avenue S.

Miss Eva Johnson of Red Wing, Minn., is visiting the Misses Anderson, 2541 Chicago avenue.

Minneapolis arrivals at Holland House, New York, for the week were: Mr. and Mrs. P. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. John Crosby, C. H. Hood, Ludwig Anderson, who will leave shortly for friends, who present him with a handsome kodak.

Mrs. M. E. Sperry of this city and daughter, Mrs. J. D. Gendron, of Minneapolis, are attending the annual convention of the Missouri, where they will remain until June 15.

Mrs. Eugene W. Paige and Miss Helen Pillsbury of Pittsfield, Mass., arrived this morning to spend several weeks with Carleton C. Pillsbury at 2445 Portland avenue.

Minneapolis people at New York hotels are as follows: York, J. P. Brown, St. Denis, E. Ward, Bristol, F. H. Hunsicker, Duluth, Victoria, Mrs. Frazer, S. L. Frazer; Holland, O. C. Hartmann.

Will Golden of Twenty-first avenue S. was pleasantly surprised Monday evening in honor of his birthday anniversary. Games and music by the amusement present were Miss Margaret Kersten, Lillian Kimmner, Rose Faulk, Marie Lank, Gertrude Redd, Lillian Sonnenberg, Mae Gundlach, Henrietta Woerner, Rose Wink, Nora Burns, Gretchen Woerner, Charlotte Kimmner, Emma Miller, Messrs. Otto Golden, Marita Schroeder, Fred Lambert, Alfred Malchow, Edward Schroeder, Arthur Scherer, Fred Schroeder, Albert Golden and George Schroeder.

The Priscilla Girls had a May party at the home of Miss May Day on Fifth avenue N. Wednesday. Music was furnished by Misses Bettie Berg, May Moore and Almah Bragg. A game of cards was won by Miss Agnes Fyfe.

The dining room was decorated in red and green, the club colors, and red carnations formed the centerpiece. The black cards were adorned with a photo of the hostess. May baskets, with white violets, were at each plate. In the parlor singing favors were used. Each guest was in Puritan costume.

CLUBS AND CHARITIES

CLUB YEAR CLOSING Neighborhood Current Events Club Annual Meeting and Banquet.

The Neighborhood Current Events club held its annual meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Zollars, 2742 Dupont avenue S., and elected the following officers: President, Mrs. E. A. Jones; vice presidents, Mrs. Alfred Simmons, J. S. Austin and Mrs. G. Brigger; secretary, Mrs. O. L. Nelson; treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Sears; delegate to the state federation meeting, Mrs. H. S. Birch. The club will study next year the United States, England, Germany and France. The annual banquet will be given Wednesday afternoon at Donaldson's tearooms and the last meeting will be held May 25 at the home of Mrs. G. Brigger, 1115 W. Thirty-first street.

The topic of the program yesterday was the United States; quotations were given from American authors; current events were discussed by Mrs. A. B. Farnham; map talk, Mrs. W. B. Ferguson; 'The Rise of Socialism, or the Labor Conquest of the United States,' Mrs. H. K. Richardson; vocal solo, Mrs. H. H. Freeman; 'Electricity Providing the World with Power,' Mrs. W. G. Skidmore; 'Some Recent American Novels,' Mrs. J. W. Zollars.

GYMNASTS AS HOSTS Monday evening the two boys' clubs of the First Congregational church gave a dinner, which occasion marked the close of the work in the gymnastic department for the summer. George H. Elwell, superintendent of the Sabbath school, presided over the program of a dinner, which occasion marked the close of the work in the gymnastic department for the summer.

Mr. Anderson addressed the boys on 'Purpose in Life,' and cautioned the boys to remember that there are better things in life than the continuing strife for high office and rank. Rev. Clement G. Clarke, the pastor of the church, chose for his remarks the opposite of Mr. Anderson's suggestion, both giving the boys in that way some very valuable hints. Mr. Clarke, in speaking, laid special stress on the life of Garfield, and how his story, from the log cabin to the White House, had been his ideal since boyhood days, and inspired him with the set purpose to aim high.

A. E. Harr of the board of trustees spoke, and among the other guests of honor were P. D. McMillan, C. T. Rickard and W. W. Morse. Dean Martin is president of the B. A. P. club and Edward Anderson represented his club, the Knights of King Arthur.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE Miss Helen E. Preston, a pupil of Miss Margaret M. Drew, will give a piano recital this evening in Graham Hall. Miss Preston will play numbers from Beethoven, Schumann, Grieg, Roubini, Moszkowski and Liszt. Miss Katherine Watkins will assist with soprano solos.

The students of Universal Brotherhood and Theosophy will give a free entertainment tomorrow evening in their hall, 207 Sykes block. The program will include a Greek play 'The Promise' in costume.

The people of Drummond Hall, Second street and Fifteenth avenue NE, will give an entertainment and social this evening, when Aunt Jerusha will exhibit her famous collection of family portraits.

ISSUE MORE STOCK Twin City Rapid Transit company directors have voted an additional $5,000,000 capital, which, if approved by the stockholders at the annual meeting, May 31, will make the total $25,000,000. The new stock will be offered pro rata at par to stockholders. President Thomas Lowry says the money will be used to finance the extensions planned for the present.
