REVISE TARIFF TO COMBAT GERMANY CHAP

Sibley Would Amend Dingley Law to Produce Revenue and Serve as Club.

New York Sun Special Service. Washington, May 16.—The prospect of a tariff war with Germany has set Representative Sibley to thinking about the best way of amending the Dingley law so that it will produce Dingley law so that it will produce more revenue and at the same time be useful as a club in the expected fight. A maximum and a minimum tariff appears to him to be the best thing that could be made out of it. He called on the president yesterday and had a long talk on the matter. Representative Babcock also called and stated that the tariff should be raised horizontally to meet revenue demands.

The new administration expects to have a new reciprocity treaty with Ger-

ST. OLAF CHOOSES ORATOR

MARTIN ANDERSON WINS FIRST PLACE IN A FINE CONTEST AT THE NORTHFIELD SCHOOL.

Northfield, Minn., May 16.—The pre-iminary oratorical contest at St. Olaf's college, to select a representative in the intercollegiate contest of the state, was held last night in the college chapel. The contestants were Herbert Row el. The contestants were Herbert Rowberg, who spoke on "Our Treatment of Anarchism"; J. N. Brown, on "The Farmer of St. Ives"; P. C. Danielson, on "The Duty of the American Youth"; Edward Rorem, on "The Champion of Individual Liberty" (Luther); N. T. Tosseland, on "The Soul of the Reformation" (Luther); Martin Anderson, on "The Exponent of National Unity" (Webster); Conrad Tharaldson, "Wendell Phillips."

The literary value of these orations

National Unity' (Webster); Conrad Tharaldson, 'Wendell Phillips.'
The literary value of these orations had been passed upon before the constant test last night by Professor W. F. Kunze, Red Wing; George Chandler, Osage, Iowa, and Judge Calvin L. Brown, St. Paul.

The judges on delivery were Rev. A. H. Alberts, Faribault; John S. Mc-Lain, Minneapolis, and Judge Andrew Holt, Minneapolis, and Judge Andrew Holt, Minneapolis.

On the combined markings of both sets of judges Martin Anderson was given first place and will represent the college in the state contest. Edward Rorem is his alternate and N. T. Tosseland was given third place.

The decision seems to give general satisfaction among the students. Mr. Anderson will be a formidable champion of St. Olaf, which has twice in recent years carried off state honors in oratory. The success of the representatives of this college in these contests has developed much interest in the art of public speaking among the students of this institution, and the performances of the soveral contestents best of this institution, and the performances of the several contestants last night showed a high degree of excellence in this field of study.
