KILLS HIMSELF BEFORE WIFE.

Special to The Journal. Winnipeg, Man., May 24.—Without warning, while waiting for his wife to dress his injured hand with carbolic acid, James Strong, a bartender in the Oriental hotel, seized the bottle of acid and swallowed enough to end his life before his wife could stay his hand. A week ago his hand was badly cut with a glass in a barroom disturbance.

Truths that Strike Home

Your grocer is honest and—if he cares to do so—can tell you that he knows very little about the bulk coffee he sells you. How can he know, where it originally came from, how it was blended—or with what—or when roasted? If you buy your coffee loose by the pound, how can you expect purity and uniform quality?

LION COFFEE, the LEADER OF ALL PACKAGE COFFEES, is of necessity uniform in quality, strength and flavor. For OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY, LION COFFEE has been the standard coffee in millions of homes.

LION COFFEE is carefully packed at our factories, and until opened in your home, has no chance of being adulterated, or of coming in contact with dust, dirt, germs, or unclean hands.

In each package of LION COFFEE you get one full pound of Pure Coffee. Insist upon getting the genuine. (Lion head on every package.)

IN SOCIAL AND CLUB CIRCLES

The marriage of Miss Cora Norcross and Walter H. Newton, will take place Wednesday evening, June 14, in Emmanuel Baptist church. The service will be followed by a small reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Newton, 3223 Elliott avenue.

A unique shower was given last week in honor of Miss Norcross, by Mrs. J. H. Mitchell of 3031 Bloomington avenue. Each guest presented the bride a book of her favorite recipes. Apple blossoms were used thru the rooms and in the diningroom pink satin ribbons ran from the apple blossom centerpiece to the corners of the table where they were fastened with huge bows. The bride's chair was marked with a big satin bow. Earlier in the week Mrs. E. A. Hasty of 722 East Twenty-first street gave a towel shower for Miss Norcross, at which she entertained ten guests.

The wedding of Miss Louise Bello West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard West, and Charles Frederick McVey will take place Thursday afternoon, June 1, at the West home.

Friday evening Mrs. W. A. McVey will entertain for Miss West at her home on Fourteenth avenue SE. Monday afternoon Mrs. Frank Keller gave a quilting-bee at her home on Broadway for her sister.

Rev. and Mrs. M. Falk Gjertsen announce the engagement of their daughter Lena Falk to Earl Marsh Barrows. The wedding will take place next month.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bontecou of Spring Valley, Minn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Edith, to J. W. Swinburne of Minneapolis. The wedding will take place in June.

Mrs. Arthur Jewett entertained a group of young women this afternoon at her home on Clinton avenue for Miss Jessie McVoor. Lilies and spring blossoms furnished a charming decoration thru the rooms. A guessing contest in regard to the contents of a bride's work basket was one of the amusements, and was answered in a precise way later in the afternoon, when Miss McVoor found at her place at luncheon a beautiful workbasket, which had been fitted up by the guests.

There were four June brides at the luncheon which Mrs. William S. Hughes gave this afternoon in the afternoon, at Third avenue S, for Miss Agnes Griswold. They were Miss Griswold and Miss Nesbitt, whose weddings will take place next week; Miss Norcross, a bride of June 14, and Miss Sarah Stevens, whose marriage to Dr. George Smith has been set for June 21. The decorations and appointments were all in white and pink and a Japanese basket of peonies was in the center of the table, while flowers were at each cover. The other guests were the Misses Kindard, the Misses Finnant, Grace Golden and Mabel Smith.

After luncheon there was a mock marriage to show the brides the proper way to arrange matters. The bride and her attendant adorned their gowns with paper ruffles and wore net veils, the bridegroom, his best man and ushers donned wigs and dress clothes, and a merry scene followed.

For souvenirs Mrs. Hughes gave the brides dainty aprons of white dimity and the other girls received dimity bags filled with candy, with which the brides were showered.

Mrs. Robert Rose gave an informal luncheon at Donaldson's tearooms this afternoon for the brides. The brides were Winona. Covers were laid for six and pink peonies made a pretty table decoration. Mrs. Horton has been spending a few days in the city, and she will leave this evening for home.

About 300 guests attended the entertainment which Mrs. Newton gave last evening in the parlors of the Church of the Redeemer. The program included a group of French songs by Miss Gertrude Hale and two one-act French plays, "Cambridge, Minn.," and "The Little Boat." Miss Hale's numbers were from Massenet's opera, "Cinderella," and she also sang a Godard selection. Miss Margaret gave her own accompaniments. The cast for "La Soupiere" included Miss Hale, Miss Helene Schirmer and George Willard, and for "Cambridge, Minn.," Miss Langlois, Harry Mitchell and Joseph Evans. The actors entered into their parts with a spirit that won frequent applause.

The Eta Gamma sorority gave a dancing party in Johnson hall last evening, and the sorority colors, green and white, were used for decorations. Palms, ferns and white peonies with green-shaded lights, were used to carry out the color scheme. The schedules were received by Misses Claudia Oswald, Harriet Schreyer, Lillian King, Anna May Mortimer, Lillian Hoyt, Ida Purchase, Gertrude Massolt, Viva Changring, Ethel Chase and Margaret Kingman. Assisting them were Misses C. S. White, A. Massolt and O. F. G. Day. A program of sixteen numbers was played by an orchestra.

Mrs. S. G. Tettis gave a handkerchief shower last evening at her home on Como avenue for Miss Bertha E. Kammer, a June bride. Tomorrow Mrs. A. E. Booth of 1703 Como avenue will give a luncheon at Donaldson's tearooms, and Saturday Mrs. F. E. Crighton of 332 East Seventeenth street will give a luncheon and kitchen shower for the bride.

The wedding of Miss Kammar, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kammar, and Jay Houtaling will take place Tuesday evening, June 5, in the Como Avenue Congregational church. Miss Grace Kammar will be her sister's maid of honor.

The Law club of the university held an after-theater banquet last evening at the International cafe.

Miss Emma Brown and Charles W. Elliott were married last evening at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. G. L. Morrill, on Stevens avenue.

Miss Olga Ingebredsen gave a kitchen shower Monday evening at her home on Hillside avenue for Miss Sigurd Olson. Light refreshments were served.

T. C. Lee was honor guest at a dinner which was given Sunday by a group of his friends at the home of Henry Holmen. Mr. Lee left Monday evening on the Sons of Norway excursion train and the guests at the dinner accompanied him to the station.

Miss Clara Frudenberg entertained last week at her home on Park avenue. There were twenty-two guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kinports entertained at the Gardner-Sillway bridal party at dinner last evening.

The 1907 class of Macalester college were entertained at the home of Miss Ruth A. Sherrill, 210 E. Twenty-sixth street, on Tuesday evening. The decorations, flowers and confections were in cardinal and white, the class colors. Impromptu exercises, games on the lawn and music were the diversions. A dainty repast was served. On leaving, the class broke the stillness of the
