Society Circle

The marriage of Miss Rebecca Van Cleve and Rev. John H. Nicol of Thief River Falls, Minn., was solemnized last evening in Andrew Presbyterian church. Unusual interest centered in the wedding as the young couple will leave in the fall to enter the foreign missionary field. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Van Cleve and a granddaughter of Mrs. Charlotte Van Cleve, so well known to old settlers. The bridegroom was formerly pastor of Andrew Presbyterian church.

The decorations were charmingly simple and the church was a bower of spring blossoms arranged against a background of palms and ferns. Miss Anna Louise Woodcock played Mendelssohn's "Spring Song" on the violin just before the bridal party entered, and Miss Mary E. Felton sounded "The Pilgrims' Chorus," from "Tannhauser," as a professional. The ushers were H. P. Van Cleve, Elmer Bisbee, Howard Hare and Robert T. Chute. The bridesmaids, Misses Emily Hyde, Alma Pennock, Emily Leonard and Louise Leavenworth, wore white gowns trimmed with Valenciennes lace and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas. Miss Elizabeth Yerxa, the maid of honor, was in white museline de soie and her flowers were pink and white sweet peas. Little Grace Van Cleve, the flower girl, wore a fluffy white frock and carried a basket of the sweet peas. The bride entered alone. Her gown was of white museline de soie, fashioned with Valenciennes lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and her bouquet was of lilies of the valley.

Mr. Nicol and his best man, Rev. Robert Clark Young of Lisbon, N. D., met the bride at the altar and the ceremony was read by Rev. Nicol. The bride wore a gown of white museline de soie, and the bridegroom wore a tuxedo. The Mendelssohn wedding march was played as the bridal party left the church.

The service was followed by a reception in the church parlors, which had been decorated with palms and ferns and white flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Nicol were aided in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. Van Cleve and Mr. Hubbard. Frappé was served by Misses Van Cleve, Kate Nicol, Miriam Clark and Esther Chapman, while a group of the church women assisted thru the rooms. Mr. Nicol and his bride went east on their wedding trip and they will be at home after July 1 at Thief River Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Collet Campbell of Crawfordville, Ind., have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Florence, to George Ross McBride of this city, which will take place at their home, College Hill, Thursday evening, June 8, at 8 o'clock. Mr. McBride will be at home in Huron, S. D., after July 1.

The wedding of Miss Ora Belle Masters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Masters, and Henry P. Norton will take place at the home of the bride in Walnut Grove, Minn., Thursday evening, June 1.

Miss Leota Tredway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Tredway, and Joseph M. Robeson will be married at their home in the Western Avenue M. E. church, Tuesday morning, June 20, at 9 o'clock, in the Immaculate Conception church.

The wedding of Miss Mollie Simpson and Edward Byrnes will take place Tuesday morning, June 20, at 9 o'clock, in the Immaculate Conception church. Mrs. John D. Barrett gave a luncheon for Miss Simpson this afternoon at Donaldson's tearooms, and American Beauty roses furnished a pretty table decoration. Yesterday afternoon Mrs. John T. Hoy gave a quilting party for her bride at her home on Fifth street S.E. The rooms were bright with spring flowers. There were ten guests.

Epistol chapter of the Alpha Phi sorority will hold its annual banquet at Donaldson's tearooms Thursday evening, June 1.

Miss Frances Thayer and Miss Anna Laurie Lewis will give a morning reception Saturday for Miss Agnes Griswold at the home of Miss Thayer on Mount Curve avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward J. Clark will entertain at cards this evening at Miss Etta McCabe and Dr. Harry G. Irvine, whose wedding will take place next week. There will be about forty guests.

The university senior class play will monopolize interest Saturday evening, and society as well as college will be represented in the thing that is to be the Metropolitan theater. There will be any number of parties made up to attend the performance. The Delta Gamma girls will have a box. The Delta Gamma girls have a special interest in "The Pledging," for the plot, as has been acknowledged at last, concerns a real incident that happened to the local chapter. The Phi Kappa Psi and the Alpha Phis are also planning box parties, and President Northrop will occupy one of the boxes. The class play has grown to be an interesting feature of commencement season until few people who have title to do with it, do not look forward to the performance and its amusing picture of college life.

The senior class of the Central high school will give its last social tomorrow evening in Elks' hall.

The senior class of the South high school will give a dancing party tomorrow evening in the Phoenix club.

Mrs. Frank Cudworth gave an informal card party this afternoon at her home on Laurel avenue for Miss Jessie Melvor. The guests numbered about a dozen and hearts were played.

Mrs. A. E. Booth gave a luncheon at Donaldson's tearooms this afternoon for a June bride, Miss Bertha Kanzer. A cluster of dark-red roses in the center of the table and a second cluster marked the bride's place.

Miss Sophia E. Tracy and Frank Meier were married Saturday. Rev. Charles S. Davis read the service.

Miss Mae E. Stanton and Clifford F. Snow were married last evening at the home of the bride, 2432 Oakland avenue. Rev. G. L. Merrill read the service in the presence of the members of the family.

Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. John R. Schwend celebrated the tenth anniversary of their marriage at their home on Elliot avenue, by entertaining thirty-five guests. Lilies, tulips and other spring flowers decorated the parlors and reception hall, and pink and white carnations were in the diningroom. A musical program was given by Miss Clara Eisele, Harold and Florence Schwend, Seward Winter and A. E. McLean and Dr. Dexter D. Bacon received. Miss Clara Eisele served frappe, and Miss Charles Mayor, Dexter Bacon and Willis Tuller and Miss Sophie Eisele assisted on the tables.

The Eta Epsilon sorority of the Central high school, and an equal number of young men enjoyed a May party Friday evening in Mrs. Noble's hall. The decorations were in the sorority colors and May flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Traxler and Mr. and Mrs. Brandt chaperoned the young people. The sorority gifts present were: Misses Elsie Johnson, Ruth Hill, Jessie Dorr, Marion Traxler, Una and Ina McClatchie, Marjorie Gammans, Anna Marie Johnson, Rowena Hoplock, Hazel Conkey, Marion Davies, Helen Atwater, Mary Jones, Edith Morgan, Audrey Holman, Alice Palmer, Vera Carrington, Gertrude McClatchie, Evelyn Quinlan, Gertrude, Florence Cobb and Stella Nicol.

There was a double wedding at the home of Mrs. M. F. Holmes, 1212 W. Welch, Minn., last week, when Miss Selma S. Holmes was married to Herman A. Anderson of Vasa, and Miss Helma M. Holmes became the bride of Edwin A. Johnson of Minneapolis. Misses Lydia Holmes and Lillie Johnson were the bridesmaids, and Carl Anderson and Fred Holmes attended the bridegroom. The brides were gownned in white silk and the bridesmaids were in blue. The service was read by Rev. C. A. Barr. A wedding dinner was served at the home of Mrs. M. F. Holmes. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will make their home in Vasa, while Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will reside in St. Paul.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL. Minneapolis people attending hotels are as follows: Holland, Miss Partridge, G. A. Partridge, Mrs. R. R. Rand, Marlborough, W. Chase, Duluth, Connecticut, J. Dearings, Holland, J. Hertley.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE

A graduation recital was given last evening in Johnson hall by a group of pupils of Gustavus Johnson of the Johnson School of Music. The program was by Misses Mabel Hanson, Jessamine Allen, Pearl McKay, Miss Hanson gave a Chopin number, with Mr. Johnson at a second piano to furnish the orchestral parts, and her instrumental pieces were delightful surprises to the audience. Miss Hanson has unusual musical ability, and her numbers roused her friends to enthusiasm. Miss Allen gave the "Pavane" Sonata, by Beethoven, in a most pleasing manner, and the numbers by Miss McKay were also interesting.

A musical program will be given tomorrow evening in Como Congregational church.

The cantata, "Grandpa's Birthday," will be given Monday evening in Trinity M. E. church by the third division of the Ladies' Aid society. L. A. Willsey will entertain the party, and others in the cast will be Florence Greenwood, Melba Roberts, Ethelyn Leonard, Esther Reiner, Bernice Rang, L. O. T. M., and Misses S. C. and Emma Leuer. Walter Campbell, E. A. chorus of children.

TWELVE FOR EACH PLACE

GREAT FIELD OF CANDIDATES FOR APPOINTMENT ON GRAIN BOARD OF APPEALS.

Of all the problems that have beset him since his election, the appointment of the grain board of appeals is probably the most important. There are six places to fill on this board and seventy-five applications are in the governor's hands, representing a most pleasing number, and every interest. Whatever selection is made, there will be sixty-nine disappointed applicants, whose friends will be concerned to see that the government has made a great mistake. The old 13-14-15 puzzle does not begin to present so many possible combinations as the selection of six men out of the seventy-five.

For one thing, the law requires that both the Minneapolis and Duluth boards shall be bipartisan, so there cannot be more than four democrats appointed to two republicans. The farmers must be represented, also the milling and elevating interests. In the interests of the service the governor cannot afford to name any but efficient men, and for that reason great pains are being taken to ascertain the qualifications of each applicant. Hundreds of letters are being received and much of the governor's time is taken with answering correspondence on the subject. On account of this great drain on his time and energy, Governor Johnson is trying to get the question settled. The appointments will be for two years, beginning Aug. 1, and the successful men will draw a salary of $3,000 a year.

Decorations Day Excursion Rates. The Northern Pacific will sell the week-end Excursion tickets on May 27th, 28th, 29th and 30th, good for the return until May 31st. Call at City Ticket Office, No. 15 Nicollet House Block, for information on new trains to Duluth Short Line Points.

BABY CAME NEAR DYING

From an Awful Skin Humor, Scratched Till Blood Ran. Wasted to a Skeleton.

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA

"When three months old my boy broke out with an itching, watery rash all over his body, and he would scratch till the blood ran. We tried nearly everything, but he grew worse, wasting to skeleton, and we feared he would die. He slept only when in our arms. The first application of Cuticura soothed him so that he slept in his cradle for the first time in many weeks. He is now a healthy, happy, and permanent cure. (signed) Mrs. M. C. Matland, Jasper, Ontario."
