3 WARSHIPS AND 200 MEN, COST OF THE JAP VICTORY

Japan's Naval Office Announces Togo's Losses—Rojestvensky Reaches Jap Hospital with Fractured Skull He Will Recover.

GENERAL BATTLE IS AT HAND ON LAND

New York Sun Special Service. St. Petersburg, May 31.—Dispatches from Manchuria say that Field Marshal Oyama is already in motion and that a general battle is at hand.

ai, which is on the mainland of Japan and opposite the scene of battle, Monday night. She flew a white flag, and as soon as she was sighted a government boat was dispatched to escort her ashore, and offer the survivors a ready welcome.

Waters Alive With Men. The waters were yesterday alive with Russian seamen, desperately striving to make the land in small boats, or clinging to the masses of wreckage.

Tokio, May 31.—The naval office has announced that the only Japanese vessels lost in the battle with the Russian fleet were three torpedo-boats.

Washington, D. C., May 31.—The state department has received the following cablegram from Tokio, dated today:

Rojestvensky's skull fractured, requiring operation, serious but not dangerous. Total Japanese losses to date, three torpedo-boats sunk, three officers killed, about 200 men killed and disabled.

The Japanese legation today received the following report from Tokio: "It is officially announced that in the last naval battle the damaged and abandoned by our fleet were eight and none of our battleships, cruisers, destroyers and other ships was lost, except three torpedo-boats."

Under imperial command Admiral Togo was authorized to permit Nebogatoff to submit to the czar the reports on the last battle and a list of Russian killed, wounded and prisoners.

Three Cruisers Missing. St. Petersburg, May 31.—So far as ascertainable the torpedo-boat destroyer Bravi is the only vessel belonging to Admiral Rojestvensky's fleet which has arrived at Vladivostok.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—Dispatches from the front say the news of Admiral Rojestvensky's defeat is not yet made known to the Russian armies in Manchuria, and that the soldiers are still hoping for a Russian naval victory.

SKRYDLOFF IS SAFE. Admiral Avoided Capture by Japs by Staying at Home.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—1:30 p.m.—The admiralty denies the report telegraphed to the London Daily Express that the cruiser Gromoboi of the Vladivostok squadron had been sunk with nearly eight hundred men on board.

RUSSIA'S RULERS DEBATING PEACE FOR FREE PEOPLE

Realizing at Last the Seriousness of the Situation Created by Great Defeat on the Sea, Czar Holds Peace Council.

St. Petersburg, May 31, 5:35 p.m.—The seriousness of the situation created by the complete destruction of the Russian fleet seems to be fully realized at Tarskoo-Selo, where the emperor has assembled practically all the members of the imperial family to decide on the course to pursue.

St. Petersburg, May 31.—Admiral Togo has wired Admiral Yamamoto, minister of the navy, as follows: "The main force of the Russian second and third fleets is nearly annihilated."

Tokio, May 31.—The naval office has announced that the only Japanese vessels lost in the battle with the Russian fleet were three torpedo-boats.
