Edna Osborne, 15 years old, who was reported missing from her home, 2833 Harriet avenue, returned last evening as soon as she learned that her parents were worried over her. She had driven to St. Paul with a girl friend and at evening Edna remained at her friend's home. Yesterday she read that her parents were worried over her and she immediately returned with her horse.

Mrs. E. J. Blair of Augusta, Wis., who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Gooding of 1420 Laurel avenue, has in her possession an interesting relic in the shape of a piece of tapestry. Several large majestic cottonwoods which for years have been landmarks on First avenue S between Eighth and Ninth streets have been cut down in the last week. The trees were very old and unusually large. They stood in the street, however, and owing to the widening of First avenue it was necessary to remove them. In order to get them out it was necessary to dig trenches about them and cut the roots.

MAY SOLVE THE SERVANT PROBLEM

HOUGHTON KICKS ON SCANT LUMBER

STATE FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU HOLDS OUT HOPE.

He Says Lumber Classified Under Certain Dimensions Should Be as Thick as the Name Indicates—Practice of Sawing Thin Has Sprung Up to Save Freight Charges.

It is possible that the Minnesota State Free Employment bureau, which opened in the old municipal court rooms in the city hall this morning, will provide a partial solution of the servant problem in Minneapolis for the state. The women's department, which is an innovation in public employment bureaus, is in charge of Mrs. Etta Holmes, the assistant superintendent. Female help, manufacturers of clothes and homes will be furnished free of charge. It is in the domestic class that the bureau and all householders hope to see much good done. It is stated that many of the so-called intelligence offices in the city are unreliable. The charge is made that in some of these offices a regular business is made of providing domestic help for money as the domestic is well trained and settled, some other person in search of help and willing to pay for it appears, the manager of the office sends out a boy. The same girl, stating that she can get her another place with a bonus to start on. In this way the same girl is passed about from one home to another, making a little here and there, and so on, reaping a harvest for the agency. Meanwhile the first employers are obliged to register and pay another fee and perhaps have the same game played again. It is stated that there will be a meeting of this sort in the state agency. There are no registration fees to be collected, and consequently nothing to be gained by inducing the girls to move. Each applicant will file a blank giving his or her name, address and age and the sort of work desired. In addition the nationality, number of dependents, time without work, and references will be asked.

Letter to Employers.

Similar blanks are furnished to employers who are asked to state what sort of help they desire to facilitate the work Superintendent Louis Levy has issued the following letter, which is to be mailed to employers in all parts of the state in the near future:

It is my desire to bring this bureau up to the standard of excellence attained by the best free employment bureaus established in other states, where all classes of labor are furnished to employers upon application; references furnished when necessary, etc. Any time you may be in need of help of any kind at steady or temporary employment, we will be pleased to be of service to you in filling your wants. Our women's department will be glad to give great assistance, both to the employer and employee. It is in charge of a competent lady manager, who will use her best efforts in behalf of the manufacturing employer and the woman who seeks help, as well as in furnishing bookkeepers, stenographers and office help. Another feature of this department will be furnishing competent domestics for private families, etc.

In our men's department we will feel deeply grateful to the employer of skilled labor for an opportunity to fill his wants, and we know from public opinion already expressed on this subject, we can make a grand success of the bureau with the support of the manufacturers, jobbers, retailers and contractors generally.

Commissioner Williams in Charge.

The bureau is to be conducted in conjunction with the state labor bureau, and under the personal direction of Commissioner W. H. Williams, who secured the passage of the creative bill, Louis Vogler and L. B. Torgerson, factory inspectors, and F. W. Murray, field inspector, of the regular department will make their headquarters in the same office and will assist in the employment of female help.

The records and factory inspection statistics of the department for this district will be at the disposal of the bureau thus affording a list of large and small mills may be kept informed when help of their class is at hand.

Business men and others who have heard of the bureau are interested and hope to see it succeed. The office is on the ground floor of the court house and city hall building and will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. every day.

To the Public.

The Minneapolis Railway Clerks wish the public to understand that their annual meeting has been arranged for Sunday, June 4, has no connection whatever with the so-called picnic advertised by some St. Paul parties for Saturday, June 4.

The Minneapolis boys are properly organized and affiliated with the national body, and any profit from an enterprise of this kind goes to the benefit of the distressed and unemployed, hence their enterprise is well worthy of support—and to those who want a pleasant day in a beautiful spot, all the usual games and sports, we say go to Tonka Bay Sunday, June 4, for a good time.

AN EGG WITHIN AN EGG, THIS HEN'S FEAT

STATE REVENUE FUND SHOWS A SHORTAGE

The goose that laid the golden egg has been forced into oblivion by a plain, matter-of-fact, Plymouth Rock hen owned by Mrs. Storms of Minnehaha boulevard. Yesterday, without the preliminary gusto which announces the breaking of old established record, the hen laid an egg a trifle over four inches long. Just how much cackling was done after the event is not said. Anyway Mrs. Storms says the hen is doing as well as could be expected.

Next in the history of the egg came the purchase by B. Ridges, 1644 Hennepin avenue. He took the egg to his home where it was cracked. The shell was found to be unusually thick. Inside the shell were two yolks but no white and inside the yolks was an egg a trifle smaller than the average egg. This egg was perfect according to the standard of the best hen families. The egg has been carefully placed in a box and will be kept for exhibition.

The state revenue fund showed a deficit of $163,886.65 at the close of business yesterday. NEW PRISON SITE

Board of Control Asks Bids for Necessary Land.

The state board of control will open bids June 15 for tracts of land that may be used as sites for a new prison, or an annex to the present institution. The desired amount of land is from 80 to 160 acres, and it will be preferably convenient to the old prison.

The total appropriation allowed for this purpose by the legislature is $75,000, of which $40,000 is available this year, and $35,000 in 1906. This amount may be used in the purchase of a site, the construction of a stockade, power plant, storehouses and plants for heat, light and water supply. The erection of cellhouses, factory buildings, etc., will have to be provided for by the next legislature.
