Social Circles

A quiet wedding took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Rev. and Mrs. M. Falk Gjertsen, 2016 Seventh street S., when their daughter, Lena Falk, and Earl Marsh Barrows were married. Mr. Barrows was graduated from the law department of the university yesterday, and he is a prominent member of the Theta Delta Chi fraternity. Miss Gjertsen was a junior in college.

Only the immediate relatives gathered to witness the service, which was read by the bride's father. The decorations were charmingly simple and the bridal couple who were unattended, stood in a bower of foliage and snow-balls. The house was darkened and lighted with white tapers. Maurice Salisbury played the wedding march. The bride wore a dainty white gown fashioned with real lace and carried lilies of the valley. A luncheon followed the service and the table was decorated with pink roses and white carnations and pink-shaded tapers.

Mr. Barrows and his bride left on the afternoon train for a trip and on their return they will spend the summer at the lake. Last evening Mrs. F. C. Barrows gave a dinner for her son and his fiancée. Covers were placed for twelve and the guests were the members of the two families. Pink and white carnations formed the centerpiece. The bride found a cluster of pink and white roses tied with white ribbon and Mr. Barrows' cover was marked with the university colors. Monday afternoon Miss Christine Dahl gave a party shower for her cousin and Miss Gjertsen received her gifts in a novel way. She had to undergo a trial by jury for enticing a young man away from his home and obtaining a diamond ring from him. She defended herself, Miss Erickson was the prosecuting attorney and Mrs. Carlo Fischer served as judge. The bride was proved guilty and sentenced to be stoned, but the stones proved to be packages in which were the pretty gifts. There were sixteen guests, university girls, whose testimony caused much merriment. Luncheon was served after the trial and the table was gay with red tulips and red tapers.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Nesbitt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Townsend, and Frederick Carl Pochler took place last evening in Gethsemane church. The chancel was banked with palms against which snowballs were effectively arranged. About 300 guests gathered to witness the service which was read by Rev. Irving P. Johnson. The ushers were Dr. Frank Pochler, Dr. M. Kiefer, and J. B. Utendorfer and William Pochler, best man. W. H. Marshall was at the organ, and the full vested choir led the bridal procession and sang "The Voice that Breathes O'er Eden, Before the Dawn of the 'Lohengrin' bridal chorus. They gave "O, Perfect Love" during the service.

Miss Mabel E. Smith was bridesmaid and Miss Margaret Gilmore was maid of honor. They wore white Persian lawn fashioned with lace berthas. Large white hats and arm bouquets of Marguerites, completed their pretty costumes. The bride wore a white lace over plain net and muslin. The shirred skirt was trimmed with ruche and the bodice had a yoke of lace. The veil was of tulle and the shower bouquet of white sweet ferns.

A reception for fifty relatives and friends followed at the Townsend residence on Fourth avenue S. Receiving with the bride couple were Mr. and Mrs. Townsend, Dr. Frank Pochler, A. Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schell. Misses Elizabeth Patterson, Avis Kimmer and the Misses Cosgrove were in the diningroom, where snowballs in a Japanese basket with a tulle bow on the handle formed the centerpiece. Snowballs and foliage were used in profusion thru the rooms also. Among the guests were Mrs. M. and Myrtle Cosgrove, Le Sueur, Misses Blanchard and Carl Smith, Pollock, S. D.; Dr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Dodge, Le Sueur; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pochler, Henderson; Mr. and Mrs. William Nesbitt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton, Excelsior.

Dr. and Mrs. Pochler went east on their trip, and they will be at home after July 15, at Herried, S. D.

The wedding of Miss Maud Day Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Smith, and John Emery Green took place last evening at the new home of the young couple, 2233 Emerson avenue N. The service was read by Rev. R. I. Benedict in a bower of palms and ferns relieved with great clusters of snowballs. Miss Chenevert played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus as the twelve young women, members of the smart set, stretched the ribbons to form an aisle for the bride. The little flower girl was Dorothy North, who wore a white lace frock and carried a Japanese basket filled with bride roses and ferns. Miss Ella Lilly, the maid of honor, wore a pink net over pink chiffon, and she carried La France roses. The bride gown was of white net over tulle. The bride's only ornament was a diamond heart and her flowers were white violets and lilies of the valley. The service was followed by a reception for 150 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Jessie Breen and Mrs. J. G. Heinrich assisted Mr. Green and his bride in receiving and seating in the dining room were Misses Hattie Green, Bevil Blair, Myrtle Snain, Jessie Smith, Katherine de Haven, Jessie Tonge, Beth Miller, Florence Lindblom, Laura Button, Gertrude Hudson, Albo, Lutz and Beulah McAllister. Red carnations and ribbons decked the table and smilax was festooned from the chandelier. Mr. Green and his bride went away for a short trip and they will receive after June 14.

Miss Lydia Hasty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hasty of St. Cloud, Minn., and Ernest Timme were married yesterday at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. H. B. Taylor, in St. Paul. A small group of relatives witnessed the service. Mr. and Mrs. Timme will spend the summer at Spring Park, Minnetonka, and will be at home in Minneapolis after Sept. 1.

Miss Alice Belitz and Albert Ayers were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Amelia Belitz, on Jackson street NE. The maid of honor, Miss May Rykle of St. Paul, wore a white gown with a white sash and a Japanese silk. Robert Quady was best man. The bridal party stood under an arch of green, from which hung a wedding bell. Mr. and Mrs. Ayers will be at home at 608 Jackson street NE after June 15.

Rev. Irving P. Johnson read the service at the marriage of Miss Marilla N. Harrington and Joseph B. Cowing, which took place yesterday afternoon in Gethsemane church. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Cowing of Alexandria were among the guests who witnessed the service. Mr. Cowing and his bride will be at home on their return from a wedding trip, S. on their return from a wedding trip.

Miss Mary Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartholomew Kennedy, and John Hafner, were married Wednesday at the home of the bride on Hiawatha avenue. Palms and lilies made an attractive decoration thru the rooms. Miss Loretta Garvin played the wedding march, and Miss Nellie Greenan sang "Believe It Is Morn" and "Ave Maria." Miss Theresa Kennedy, the maid of honor, wore yellow flowered organdie and carried crown roses. The bride was in white crepe de chine, over tulle, trimmed with Irish point lace, and her bouquet was of roses. Rev. James Dugan read the service and Miss Edna M. Jones was best man. A wedding breakfast was served in the diningroom, which was decorated with plum blossoms and snowballs. Wedding bells of lilies were suspended above the table, where white carnations and ferns formed the centerpiece. Mr. and Mrs. Hafner went east for a trip, and on their return they will be at home at 2613 Eighteenth avenue S.

Among the weddings of Wednesday was that of Miss Edna M. Jones and Frederick William Friis of Kenmare, N. D., which took place at the home of the bride, Mrs. R. M. Friis, 3351 Fremont avenue N. Rev. Fremont Grape Juice Unfermented

(Non-alcoholic) Most so-called grape juice is made from different berries and adulterated. Not so with our "Fremont Unfermented Grape Juice."

It is the pure abstract of the Concord grape, grown in Ohio. Being unfermented makes it non-alcoholic. Cooled—it is the most delicious, refreshing hot weather drink to be had.

Its medicinal properties are far superior to patent medicines or alcoholic liquors, because it is in its natural state—in other words, prepared by nature itself.

People who pay two cents for a paper naturally give it more attention than one they buy for a penny. The latter is sold principally on the streets and is thrown aside after a hasty perusal, and has practically no advertising value. A circulation that is a home circulation is what the advertiser wants. In Minneapolis and the northwest this paper is the Journal.
