Almost. The United States sells Japan yearly goods worth $29,000,000, against $27,000,000 sold by China and $14,000,000 by Germany.

THE UNEASY CHAIR. LIGHT ON THE PATH TO HAPPINESS.—That is what Dr. C. Hanford Henderson says in "The Uneasy Chair."

AMUSEMENTS. Wonderland's Fireworks and Music. A fine display of fireworks was given at Wonderland park last night.

CITY NEWS. THE Y.M.C.A. YEAR PASSED IN REVIEW. ANNUAL REPORTS RECEIVED AT DIRECTORS' MEETING.

CHAMBER FIXING UP A REPRIMAND. TWO PROMINENT MEMBERS ACCUSED BY AN ARMY OF BOYS.

Licensing Street Preachers. By all means let Minneapolis license the street preachers. We believe there should be a committee of the council.

The Equitable Muddle. The impression prevails that the directors of the Equitable lost their opportunity when they rejected the Frick report.

SCOTT'S PLACE IN LITERATURE.—Continuing his papers on "The Great Masters of Literature," Professor George Edward Woodberry writes of Sir Walter Scott for the June McClure's.

AMONG THE PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH.—A somewhat unique contribution to the fiction of the day is "The House of the Black Ring," by Fred Lewis Pattee.

WHY CITIES ARE DOING. The Brooklyn Citizen charges that former Governor Odell is in a combination with W. F. Sheehan to beat McClellan for mayor of New York.

GO. ATTORNEY IS PRAISED. GRAND JURY NOTES IMPROVED CONDITIONS IN HENNEPIN—MAKES SOME SUGGESTIONS.

FORGOT TOMMY, BUT NOT SO AS TO REGGIE. "You must be sure to count Reggie, Mr. Ennumerator," announced a fourth ward woman to one of Superintendent Rain's counters today.

Advocating Assassination. American newspapers do not often advocate assassination and the American public is decidedly against that mode of political reform.

The Anti-Saloon Fight in Los Angeles. Los Angeles has just been thru the most exciting election in its history.

AMONG THE PENNSYLVANIA DUTCH.—A somewhat unique contribution to the fiction of the day is "The House of the Black Ring," by Fred Lewis Pattee.

MS. REJECTED. The News returned about four columns of editorial matter to the Great Northern railway.

THE MAGAZINES. Have You Been Buying Spurious Pictures?—A Paris authority contributes to the June number of the North American Review a startling article on "The Traffic in Spurious Pictures."

DESERTS A SECOND TIME. AFTER SURRENDERING, TROOPER ARSTILL FELS GUARD AND ESCAPES AGAIN.

PROPERTY WAS BURNING AS AGENT WROTE POLICY. As Jacob Brunner was taking out a fire insurance policy on his household goods, his lawyer, Arthur A. Conroy, attempted to start the fire.

Good Advice to Shun. Governor Johnson will hardly yield to the advice of those patronage-hungry democratic attorneys who claim that the elective railroad commission conflicts with the constitution.

RUSSIA AND SCANDINAVIA. Boston Herald. One may be tolerably sure that the present war (with Japan) will not put an end to Russian desires for an outlet on the open ocean.

THE NEW HIGHWAYMAN. Cedar Rapids Gazette. The president declares that the railroads are highways, and there are some people connected with the railroads who act the part of the highwayman.

A SLANDER ON WOMEN. Chicago Journal. "All a woman asks is to be loved," says a gushing poet. Then all this stuff about lust wanting new bonnets and jewelry must be a vile slander.

MURDER TRIAL IN ST. PAUL. George Mahan, colored, accused of killing his wife. George Mahan, colored, accused of murdering his wife at 559 Sibley street, St. Paul, April 28, is on trial in the Ramsey county district court.

STRING QUARTET FORMED. Well Known Local Musicians Have a New Organization. Minneapolis is to have added to its permanent musical organizations a string quartet, whose object is to contribute to the pleasure and musical knowledge of the city.

SAMUEL HILL HAS A TIP. He Has Learned that the War Will End by July 1. Samuel Hill, of Seattle, son-in-law of James J. Hill, believes the war in Manchuria will end by July 1.
