The marriage of Miss Jessie Frances McIvor and Frank Meyers Steiner was solemnized at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McIvor, on East Twenty-fourth street. Folio, palms and ferns, with a profusion of white blossoms, made an attractive decoration thru the rooms. About one hundred guests were present at the service, which was read by Rev. J. P. Johnson. George Steiner and Walter Jordan stretched the white satin ribbons as the orchestra played the wedding march. Miss Nellie Kenay was bridesmaid, Mrs. Arthur Jewett matron of honor, and Miss Gertrude McIvor, maid of honor. Robert Manley of Omaha acted as best man. Miss Kenay wore pink and yellow crepe de chine and Mrs. Jewett was in green, and both carried marguerites. The maid of honor wore white net over pale green tulle, and her bouquet was of white roses. The bride gown was of white satin, fashioned with duchess lace. A wreath of orange blossoms held the tulle veil in place, and the shower bouquet was of white orchids.

A large reception followed the service and several hundred guests were present. Those from out of town were Mrs. Charles B. McCormick of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Steiner and son of Salt Lake City, Mrs. J. A. Steiner and Misses Flora and Helen Steiner of Lincoln, Neb.; Mrs. E. Williams of Chicago and Mr. and Mrs. Rahl of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Steiner went west for a trip and they will return after Oct. 1.

A small group of relatives and near friends witnessed the wedding of Miss Myrtle Lilla Holliday and James Edward Ireland which took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellery Channing Holliday, on Grand avenue. The decorations were charming and roses were the bride's favorite. They nestled in the bank of palms that formed the altar and made a canopy overhead. More of the blossoms were suspended from the chandelier above which bettered the effect. The bride wore a similar dress to that of the bride in the previous article. The bride wore white point d'esprit over tulle. Her veil was caught with a white rose and knot of white ribbon. The bride's bouquet was of white roses. James Quint was best man and the service was read by Rev. F. A. Sumner.

A reception followed at the Leighton residence on Seventeenth avenue. Red roses and ferns brightened the rooms and in the dining room a basket of red roses was in the center of the table. The bride wore a similar dress to that of the bride in the previous article. The bride wore white point d'esprit over tulle. Her veil was caught with a white rose and knot of white ribbon. The bride's bouquet was of white roses. James Quint was best man and the service was read by Rev. F. A. Sumner.

The wedding of Miss Georgia Hall and Chester Charles Seattle took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCracken, 3022 Harriet avenue.

A wedding that will bring a bride to Minneapolis will take place Wednesday in St. Stephen's church, Payne-ment and Mrs. Doolittle, F. M. Barnard, Louis Ireland, the Misses Ireland and Miss Doolittle, Mrs. J. H. Hankinson and Mrs. I. M. Wilson of Hankinson, N. D.; Mrs. C. J. Doolittle, F. M. Barnard, Louis Ireland, the Misses Ireland and Miss Doolittle, Mrs. J. H. Hankinson and Mrs. I. M. Wilson of Hankinson, Ore., and they will receive at 11 Spruce place after Oct. 1.

Among the weddings of last evening was that of Miss Olive Stone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stone, and Harry Camp Reynolds, which took place in St. Paul's Episcopal church. The church was elaborately decorated with palms and snowballs and the chancel was a bower of green in which great clusters of the flowers were caught. Large bunches of snow balls hung from each of the pillars.

Just before the ribbons were stretched by the ushers, Walter Hoffman, John Stone, Lin Holbrook, James Bostwick, the Gammus, Mu Pi sorority, of which the bride is a member, entered and took places in the front of the church. The twenty-five young women were all gowned in white. W. S. Marshall played a program of nuptial music before he sounded the notes of the "Lohengrin" chorus and later gave the Mendelssohn march as a recessional.

The bridesmaids, Misses Florence Wright, Jessie Reynolds, Harriet Smith and Blanche Edgerton, were followed by Mrs. Isaac Johnson, wife of the bride's father, and Miss Emily Smith. Miss Smith wore pink crepe de chine over pink silk and carried pink sweet peas. The bridesmaids were in various shades of white, and their bouquets were white sweet peas. The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine over tulle with the tucked yoke of chiffon and white lace and ferns. The bouquet was of white roses. The bridegroom and the best man, Arthur Reynolds, met the bride at the altar and the service was read by Rev. Theodore Payne Thurston.

A reception followed at the Stone residence on Aldrich avenue. The decorations were all in green and white and the doorway was arched with snowballs and ferns, while great clusters of snowballs were hung from the chandeliers. The mantel was banked with palms, ferns and snowballs and the bride and groom were seated under a canopy of white crepe de chine over tulle. The bride wore white crepe de chine over tulle and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The service was read by Rev. J. P. Johnson.

Last evening Augustana church was thronged with guests who gathered to attend the wedding of Miss Emelia Elvira Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Johnson, and John Victor Bergquist. The church was elaborately decorated. At the entrance was an arch of snowballs and vines and flowers wreathed the balconies. The bride was in white and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The service was read by Rev. J. P. Johnson.

Miss Tekla Walquist was at the organ and played a program as the guests arrived. The wedding march was played by Miss Malina Skoglund. The bridesmaids were Misses Hattie Johnson, Myrtle Johnson, Edith Anderson and Mary Hanson, and the maid of honor was Miss Edith Johnson. They all wore white mousseline de soie and carried American Peony roses. The little flower girl, Viola Johnson, and the ring bearer, Mrs. W. T. Reynolds received with the bride. The bride entered with her father. She wore white crepe de chine over tulle and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The service was read by Rev. J. P. Johnson.

The ushers were Walter Hanson, Edwin Lindholm and E. Edward Sequist. Bernard Bergquist of Winthrop, Minn., was best man. The service was read by Rev. Carl Petri and was followed by a reception for seventy-five guests at the Johnson residence on Seventh avenue. Snowballs and red carnations furnished an attractive decoration and each of the supper tables had a centerpiece of flowers. Misses Josephine Johnson, Emma Nelson, Emily Johnson, Alma Johnson, Hulda Bjork and Edith Estberg assisted in the dining-room.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergquist went away for a trip and on their return they will spend the summer at the lake.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. O. M. Huestis was the scene of a pretty appointed wedding last evening. The bride, Miss Anna Danielson of Amercy, Wis., became the bride of Dr. Charles J. Wallace of Chippewa Falls, Wis. Southern smilax wreathed the doorways and arches and a bower of orange and ferns was arranged in the parlor, where the bridal couple stood beneath a bell of snowballs. The decorations were in the reception hall and the dining room was in red, with peonies to furnish the desired color scheme.

The Misses Cora Huestis and Ruth Tallant stretched the white ribbons to form an aisle as an orchestra played the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin." There was only one attendant, Little Margaret, daughter of the bride, who wore a white frock and carried a basket of white roses. The bride's gown was of white crepe de chine over tulle with the tucked yoke of white lace. Her bouquet was of white roses. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The service was read by Rev. W. B. Riley.

Miss Myra Edna Leighton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Leighton, and Emmanuel Richard Karlen were married last evening in Pilgrim church, which was decorated with palms and ferns. The wedding march was played by the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus for a professional and Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bride and groom left the church. Miss Myra wore a white dress and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridegroom wore a white tuxedo and carried a white boutonniere. The service was read by Rev. F. A. Sumner.

BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffers with the delicate ailments peculiar to her sex it will be well for you to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive, momentary relief from a tipping beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a placebo.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say I am gaining strength," writes Mrs. Seneth Kimb, of 605 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for any one suffering with female troubles. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat and neglected my health. My heart troubled me and I had cold and humbly spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had one child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment am positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for 21 one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or send 31 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

These ORIGINAL Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, stand for such malady which is never equalled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure all ailments of the stomach, bowels, liver and bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two laxative, three or four a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering his own remedy to you instead of this well-known preparation of Dr. Pierce.

What I Can Do.

I CAN improve the condition of your skin, cure your scalp, and correct all irregularities of features. I can cure all skin diseases, blackheads and all facial blemishes, and remove all wrinkles. Write for particulars. JOHN H. WOODBURY, D. O., 103 State St., Chicago.
