MINNETONKA

The management of the Hotel Del Otero is untiring in its efforts to beautify the picturesque upper lake resort. George Cox, who represents a part of its interests has made some pretty orna-ments in the way of rustic arbors. The approach to the hotel from the depot has a winding arbor opening into a hook-shaped arbor house; the latter ten-der green of wild grape vines is already twining around the rustic frame sug-gesting what beauties to expect in an-summer. Benches have been placed under the arches at intervals and will be fully appreciated by the guests. At the foot of the hotel walk leading to the steamboat landings is another pret-ty arbor with shady vines spreading their board leaves into a cool shelter-ing roof. Mr. Bousfield's private dock has a similar arbor opening into a small rustic summer house. At the foot of the hotel will be a beautiful flower garden, a large space having been laid out into flower beds.

Recent guests at Hotel Del Otero were Fred M. Sachse, M. Myalls, C. H. Thume, Thomas E. Covington, Henry P. Jones, H. W. Chicago; John A. J. H. Grausden, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. J. Moersch, Bernard H. Blank, New York; N. B. Dunlap and wife, A. J. Stewart, Spooner, Wis.; Robert J. Ritchie, New York; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grausden, Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Segenstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Otto E. Greely, Miss Hattie van Bergen, Min-neapolis; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Jackson, Port Arthur, Ont.

Among the office force at Del Otero will be W. J. Williams, whose duties will be those of clerk during the day and E. J. McGrath who will be at the desk nights. Manager Hopkins has been successful in employing a person-nel such as will add to the comfort and pleasure of the guests. Among the staff are many who have been at Del Otero during past seasons and whose courteous attentions have been the fac-tor in establishing the reputation of Del Otero as one of the very hospitable resorts at Lake Minnetonka.

Mrs. E. Nesbitt gave a pretty birth-day party yesterday for her grand-daughters, Isabelle Nesbitt Skinner and Margaret Arnett Skinner. Vases of flowers stood around the rooms. Miss C. Christian and Champlin chaperoned the young people at a boatripe on the Acie and Mrs. A. Skinner and Mrs. George Hamilton assisted in entertain-ing the children.

Mrs. George E. Day who opened the Pleasant Grove house on her return from Denver, Col., early this spring, has had the satisfaction of welcoming back many of her last summer's guests and just at present every room in the spacious building has been spoken for. Mrs. Day, during former seasons made a reputation as a hostess, and Pleasant Grove House, one of the most inviting spots in Excelsior, is once more com-ing into undisputed popularity under her management. Its large shady lawns, and the nearby shores of Gid-geon's bay, with splendid bathing and boating facilities, offer every desired advantage to summer guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Troendle and family are at Pleasant Grove for the summer. Frank B. Riley and family came out early in June. Captain Riley left yesterday for Camp Lakeview.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.

BURSON Hose Demonstration.

FASHIONED HOSE

What a Stocking Should Be and Why It Should Be So.

YOU ARE INVITED to attend the greatest Stocking Demonstration this city has ever seen. Stockings should fit—to make them fit most are made with seams, but stockings with seams are bad for the feet. Most seamless stockings are straight as a string after washing—they were stretched to look as tho they would fit—and the stretch washed out!

The only seamless Stockings that fit are the BURSON FASHIONED STOCKINGS. They are called “Fashioned” because that is the trade name for Stockings that fit, tapering at the ankle, widened in the leg and having a shaped foot.

Now most Stockings that have these good points have seams. The BURSON STOCKINGS have no seams—they are knit on a specially constructed machine that shapes the leg, ankle, heel and toe, just as neatly as grandmother did with her needles. Because they are thus beautifully shaped to fit, yet without seams, are smooth and comfortable to the feet and wear better than other stockings, they are called BURSON FASHIONED. No other stockings have all these good qualities combined.

Special salespeople are demonstrating them this week in our Nicollet Arcade.

GUARANTEE—We will give a new pair for every pair that fails.

FOOT COMFORT—depends as much on the Stockings as on the shoes. Your feet cannot be comfortable in the best of shoes if your stockings have hard seams, wrinkles and creases.

Have your Stockings fashioned the BURSON way. Come in and learn about them.

Every little girl who owns a doll will want to come with her doll family next Tuesday—June 20—it will be DOLL DAY—A Great Day for All Dolls.
