"To correct the faults of man, we address the head to correct those of woman, we address the heart."—De Beauchene.

At the wedding of Miss Ella Terrill Dixon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hudson Dixon, of Fargo, and Rista N. Best, who will take place Tuesday evening, June 27, in the Portland Avenue Church of Christ, the bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Charles S. Wartenbee, as matron of honor. Thomas A. Wallace, Jr., will be Mr. Best's best man and the ushers will be George K. Belden, Mr. Wartenbee, Louis Williams and Frank Bester. The service will be read by Rev. W. W. Aberley, assisted by Rev. John C. Faries of Duluth.

Saturday evening the members of the bridal party and other guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Briggs at their summer home near Manitowish. The guests went out on the 5 o'clock train and were met by carriages. The house was decorated with a profusion of flowers. Red poppies flamed in the living room, marguerites were in the hall and the dining-room was gay with pansies. A program of music was given during dinner and later games were played. There were twenty guests. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. George Head will give a kaffe klatsch at the home of Frederick Head on Third avenue S., from 4 until 6 o'clock. Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Ernest Eastman of Park avenue will give a luncheon. Thursday Mrs. N. Crowther of James street will be hostess at a thimble bee, on Friday Miss Gertrude Hale will give a luncheon and Saturday Miss Jessie Fawcett will entertain at luncheon at a family dinner. Next Monday evening Mrs. W. S. Best will entertain at a family dinner for her son and his fiancée.

The wedding of Miss Bessie Brundage and Norman C. Richardson, which will take place Wednesday evening, will be a very quiet affair at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. George E. Wheeler, on Park avenue, and only the family and a few near friends will be present. Miss Brundage will have as attendants, James Horine, of Chicago, will be Mr. Richardson's best man.

Miss Stella Lynch and Dr. Norman J. Cox of Minneapolis will be married tomorrow evening at the home of the bride in St. Paul.

The wedding of Miss Matilda Rose Duresen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Duresen, and Anthony Edward Erickson will take place Saturday, June 27. Last week Miss Gussie Nyberg, 618 Bryant avenue N., gave a china shower for the bride, and Miss Lydia Carlson entertained at a linen shower at the home of Mrs. Red Peterson, 1709 Eleventh avenue S.

Miss Katherine Norton entertained 175 guests at a reception Saturday afternoon at her home on Girard avenue S. for Miss Georgia Bryant and Joseph Moore of Seattle. Pink peonies were massed in the reception room and the parlors were in the pink. The dining room was in red with peonies to carry out the color scheme. Miss Norton, Miss Bryant, Mr. J. H. Cheyette and Blackwell, who will be the best man at the wedding, received the guests and Misses Marion Thwing and Mabel Moore served frappe, and string orchestra played as the guests came and went.

Miss Laura Golden and Clarence Porter Cowles of Burlington, Vt., were the honor guests at an informal party at which Mrs. Frank E. Pomeroy gave Saturday evening at her home at Linden Hills. Festoons of red hearts made an appropriate decoration and hearts were played. Supper was served after the games.

Mrs. J. H. Chestnut of Garfield avenue gave a parcel shower Saturday afternoon for Miss Leola McMillan of St. Paul, whose marriage to Dr. Frederick Faeger of St. Paul will take place tomorrow at White Bear. The parcels were brought to the bride in a little wagon decorated in pink, by Jamie Chestnut. Miss Leola Fisk told fortunes during the afternoon. Pink and white peonies furnished the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wedge of Albert Lea, Minn., were in the city yesterday on their way to the Pacific coast for a six weeks' trip. Mr. and Mrs. Wedge were married Wednesday in Decorah, Iowa, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Ezekiel Cutler. Mrs. Wedge was formerly Miss Mary B. Tuttle and she has been connected with the faculty of Albert Lea college for some time. Mr. Wedge is the president of the State Horticultural society. Mr. and Mrs. Wedge will be at home in Albert Lea after Aug. 1.

The wedding of Miss Mary A. Sandidge and George A. Blewett took place Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's brother on Pleasant avenue. Rev. L. H. Hallock read the service in a bower of palms, and peonies; roses and carnations were used for the rooms. Misses Bessie Sandidge and Emma Blewett, the bridesmaids, wore white organdie and carried pink and white carnations. The bride was in white lace over a pink and white dress. Her flowers were white peonies. The bridegroom was attended by Charles Blewett and U. M. Rochette. Mr. and Mrs. Blewett went away for a short trip and on their return they will make their home in St. Paul.

Mrs. J. J. Mullane and Mrs. Thomas Heenan gave a parcel shower Thursday evening at 2317 Harriet avenue in honor of Miss Tessie Andraska, a bride of the month.

A group of Northwestern people will sail from New York tomorrow on the steamer Grosser Kurfurst for Europe. The group includes Miss J. H. Buchanan, Mrs. J. J. Hopkins, St. Paul; Miss A. E. Schoen Rene, Mrs. H. Wehmann and sons, Minneapolis; Mrs. G. S. D. Kramer and Misses Kramer, Kelley, Iowa; Mrs. W. Lisovski and children, Cedar Rapids; Mrs. P. E. Johnson, Jackson, Minn.

Miss Ida L. Hermann and Mrs. S. Taylor of New Ulm were married today at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. M. B. Morris. Yesterday Mr. Morris officiated at the marriage of Miss Augusta W. Wittig and Alfred G. Nagel, also of New Ulm.

A Club Picnic.
The Cassiopeia club held its annual picnic Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. R. Hazeltine, at Cottagewood, Minnetonka. The morning was very pleasantly spent on the lake in the Hazel-tine electric launch, and in the afternoon the club took the steamer for a trip around the lake. A basket lunch was served at noon, and at 7 o'clock there was an elaborate supper under the trees, when the husbands of the members were the honor guests. The picnic also celebrated the birthday anniversary of Mrs. D. E. Smith, an honorary member, and an immense birthday cake was placed on the table while her place was marked with a cluster of peonies. Games and music occupied the evening. Mrs. Hazeltine was assisted by Mrs. Scott.

CLUB NOTES.
The Woman's Home Missionary society of Plymouth church, Wednesday evening, Mrs. J. E. Bell at her home in Excelsior. The members will take the 9 o'clock train from the Burrer Y. W. C. T. U. and will entertain them at luncheon.

The conference of Minneapolis Y. W. C. T. U. will be family and a few near friends will be present. A literary program will be given, and refreshments will be served. The Burrer Y. W. C. T. U. met Friday with Mrs. A. C. Warrington and elected officers for the year as follows: President, Mrs. J. W. Whitman; vice president, Miss Helen Warrington; secretary, Miss Mabel Johnson; treasurer, Miss Jessie Roberts; press correspondent, J. R. Gifford.

Westminster Social circle will spend tomorrow evening, Mrs. Hazeltine at Excelsior, going out on the 9 o'clock train from the St. Louis station. A basket luncheon will be served at noon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNICS
Wesley Sunday school will have its annual picnic Thursday at Excelsior, Lake Minnetonka, starting at 9 a.m. from the Minneapolis & St. Louis station and returning at 5:30 p.m. The picnicers will be accompanied by the Journal Newsboys' band of forty pieces. There will be athletic sports and contests and a ball game in the morning and a sail around the lake in the afternoon on the large steamer, Excelsior.

A novel feature will be the old-fashioned method of having one large table with accommodations for 500, and all of the baskets will be used to furnish one big dinner. Coffee and lemonade will be furnished free by the committee in charge.

The annual picnic of the Portland Avenue Church of Christ Sunday school will be held at Minnehaha tomorrow.
