

LAKE MINNETONKA

As the result of the flower show which was successfully given at the Excelsior Casino last July by the Minnesota Rose society, a second affair has been planned for this season, and it will be held next Saturday, at the Blue Line pavilion. Mrs. H. B. Tillston of Eureka is the president of the society, and assisting her in arranging for the exhibit are J. P. Brown, secretary, J. I. Weyer, treasurer, and a group of women who are particularly interested in floriculture. During the past few years gardening and the raising of beautiful flowers has come to be regarded as a hobby of the garden and field will be worthy of inspection. It is earnestly hoped that all who are practically engaged in the culture of flowers, and who have blossoms in their own gardens will contribute to the exhibit whatever will add to its interest and variety. The exhibit will open Saturday at 2:30 o'clock, but the exhibitors are asked to send their selections in not later than 10 o'clock of that day, as the arranging of plants and flowers will require considerable care and time. A program will be given in the following order: Mrs. H. B. Tillston, "Opening address," Rev. Donald McKee, "The Growing of Flowers and Their Moral Influence," Mrs. N. and Will Rugg, "Talk on Sweet Peas," Mrs. N. S. Sawyer, on perennials; L. R. Meyer, on the Monticello Experiment station on shrubs. H. S. Reichold, St. Paul, on trees and O. F. G. Day on roses.

Handsome prizes have been offered as premiums. The roses are to be divided into four classes: the peonies are to have three classes for premiums; and classes for German Iris, Japan Iris, perennials, annuals, floral displays by children, sweet peas, nasturtiums and pansies will have one premium each. A very moderate admission fee will be charged to pay the expenses connected with the exhibit.

Mrs. E. N. Osborne gave a luncheon of nine courses Thursday at her summer home at Minnetonka Beach. Mrs. Hawkins, Miss Kate Hawkins of California, and Mrs. W. King of California, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hulbert, at their lake home, were the honor guests. The dinner was prettily carried out with red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Knowlton of Freeport, Ill., arrived today, and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Dodge at their summer home on Crystal Bay for one week. While they are visiting at the lake, Mrs. Dodge is planning to entertain in their honor.

No other day has so many pleasant social functions at the Lafayette club as Saturday. For then dinner parties precede the regular hops, afternoon automobile parties, and other pleasant social events are given, each and all for the purpose of remaining at the club through the evening. The regular Saturday orchestra plays for the regular Saturday night hops, and when the younger set gathers from all over the lake to enjoy the dancing.

Mrs. Fred Van Dusen is entertaining at dinner this evening for a group of twenty young people from all over the city. Mrs. Van Dusen and George Van Dusen. After dinner Mrs. Van Dusen will be the chaperone at the hop.

Miss Modjeska is planning to entertain at a sixteen-course dinner tonight, and with her guests, will remain for the hop.

Louis H. Piper, W. W. Eastman, Harry A. Shull entertained a party of nine young people at an automobile ride Thursday, followed by a luncheon at the Lafayette club.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. George and the Misses Lucille Insley and Marie Keller of Freeport, Col., met for an automobile ride to Minnetonka Beach Thursday, lunching at the club. Afterwards Tom Shevlin, Jr., entertained the party at a boat ride on the new boat at the home of the Shevlin in Crystal Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Luman C. Pryor, Miss Marion Pryor and Arthur Lyman were guests at the Lake and dinner party. Mr. and Mrs. Pryor have taken a house in Arcola for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Mapes and family were visitors at the club. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Loring and family come out this afternoon to remain over Sunday at the club. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Commons are out. Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sheldon and son have been guests at the Lafayette club.

Mrs. Gardner-Hodgson, who has been spending the winter in California, returned yesterday afternoon and is with her parents, Major and Mrs. John Bigelow, at their Minnetonka Beach cottage for the summer.

Miss Lessinger of Chicago was the guest of Mrs. Willis Williams at Minnetonka Beach Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. La Rue Buxton and Thomas Church Buxton are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chubb at their cottage at Minnetonka Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Church have also as their guests Edward E. Webster, Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Eleanor Brown of Vermont.

Miss Julia Mansson and Miss Moore of Zanesville, Ohio, are the guests of Mrs. W. C. Johnson, Minnetonka Beach. While the season at the lake has hardly blossomed out in full—it hardly ever does until after July 1—Hotel Donaldson is already wide open to a host of patrons and visitors from every where. Among the guests who registered this week were Miss Josie I. Smith, Minneapolis; Miss Helen Dickinson, St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. George H. Webb, Mrs. George Resdon and daughter, Mrs. J. E. Gillespie, Miss Louise Gillespie, Mrs. and Mrs. C. F. Metcalf, Miss Selman, Lawrence K. Sorlie, Henry C. Flannery, MacMartin, Vernon Martin, F. A. Randall, C. J. Johnson, John W. Stuart, Harry McKay, Miss Ruby A. Phelps, Miss Aileen Hagger, Miss Nellie E. Skinner, Miss Grace M. Dole, Miss Effie Palmer, Minneapolis; Miss Mary St. Clair, Vinton, Iowa. Thursday, Mrs. Donaldson had Mrs. Augustin Thompson of Minneapolis as her guests.

Mrs. E. J. Daniels and Miss Cora Daniels of Sioux City arrived yesterday from southern California, where they have been traveling since last November. They will remain at the hotel until late in the summer. Mr. Daniels is at present in the east, having attended the Shriner's convention at Niagara Falls, and he will be present at the Elks' convention in Buffalo next week. Later he will join his family at the Donaldson. James M. Huchner and son, June, were guests at the hotel and will return to spend the remainder of the season early in July. Mrs. C. L. Chase and daughter came last week to spend some time at the hotel and they will be joined tonight by Mr. Chase.

St. Hilda's guild of St. Mark's church held its annual outing yesterday at the home of Mrs. H. W. Gibson at Fairview. The stormy weather in the forenoon prevented a full attendance of all the members, but those who undertook the trip to the lake were awarded by a delightful afternoon on the Plymouth. Those present were: Miss Rose, Miss Weidensae, Miss Christy, Miss Agatha Christie, Misses George Higgins, S. P. Pierce, Will Patton, Stuart W. Patton, P. Norris and Gibson.

At the annual meeting of the Women's guild of Camp Memorial chapel, Minnetonka Beach, Mrs. H. C. Truesdale was re-elected president. Mrs. John Bigelow was named vice president, Mrs. F. S. Jones, treasurer and Mrs. C. G. Church secretary. The first service in the chapel will be held Sunday morning, July 2, and Bishop Edsall will preach.

Opening hops at Lake Minnetonka pleasure resorts will start the ball rolling, and for a while the younger set will have a lot of entertainment at the lake. This evening, Manager and Mrs. Godfree of Hotel Tonka Bay will give the opening ball at the hotel, and it goes without saying that it will be a beautiful and fashionable event. A dinner train will bring many of the guests from town who have received invitations, and in the evening a mid-night train will return to the city, leaving Tonka Bay after 11 o'clock. Hotel Tonka Bay opened for the season Thursday, the event following closely the banker's convention. The convention was a decided success, from a social point of view, and the entertainments which were furnished in honor of the visiting men and women were delightful affairs.

Wednesday evening is the date announced by the members of the Minnetonka Boat club for their opening party. This year the ball will be given at Hotel Tonka Bay, and the appointments will be strictly in keeping with nautical customs and pretty banners, bunting and club colors will decorate the ballroom. A late train will return to the city as the list of members includes many living in Minneapolis. Commencing July 12 the Minnetonka Boat club will inaugurate a series of bi-weekly hops, which will also be given in the ballroom of Tonka Bay Hotel.

The annual picnic of the Royal Arcanum came off with all the success and good attendance which have marked former events of the organization, and over five hundred Arcanumites and their friends met for a continuous round of pleasure. Early in the day there was a baseball game between Minnehaha and Cataract, which was won by the latter by a score of 7-4. The program of sports was held on the Excelsior common. W. H. Barber, E. H. Reed, A. C. Dannenbaum, Frank W. Gray and A. C. Story were on the committee of arrangements and had planned for all sorts of fun and jolly features. In the races the following won the prizes: Hov's legged race, George Hayes, Minnetonka; girls' running race (Glasgow), Mabel Hench; fifty-yard dash ladies, Miss Redell, Mrs. H. A. Swenson; boys' race, Oscar Zwinn; Peter Knabe; fat man's race, W. Fust, Ed Collier; shot put, A. C. Dannenbaum, W. Fust; 100-yard dash, F. J. Kline, H. W. Swenson; hop step and jump, Tom Miller, H. C. Willson; running broad jump, Theo Carlisle, W. J. Kline, standing broad jump, W. C. Wilson, A. C. Dannenbaum; three legged race, Messrs. Haggerty and Casper, Messrs. Kline and Tait.

During the day the large steamer Excelsior made many tours of the lake and in the evening the fine ballroom of the Excelsior Casino was opened for the picnickers.

Manager Hopkins of Hotel Del Otero will celebrate the formal opening of the new pavilion at Spring Park with a handsome ball next Saturday evening, and after that the regular Friday evening hops will be given. This announcement will undoubtedly please many of the lake people especially those living on the upper shores, as the weekly hops at Del Otero are among the most popular social affairs at the lake. For the evening of the opening the pavilion will be attractively decorated and illuminated, and a splendid orchestra will play.

Following the ball a number of dinner parties will be given in the dining room of Hotel Del Otero and the decorations will be in keeping with the social character of the affair. Miss Annie Schultz, who is in charge of the dining room, and who has been connected with the hotel for a number of years, has acquired considerable skill in decorative lines, and to her taste in arranging the decorations, much of the inviting appearance of the hotel is due. Each table has always its cluster of seasonal flowers arranged in the center, and when there is a scarcity of blossoms, potted maidenhair ferns in quaintly fashioned vessels are arranged, while for gala functions, Miss Schultz's deft hands arrange wonders with bunches of fragrant blossoms and foliage.

The college girls have started on their way home and many have already arrived. Miss Glee Jamison's engagement and her coming marriage will undoubtedly be the occasion of much entertaining for the younger set. Mr. and Mrs. Jamison will close their cottage at Wildhurst rather early for the wedding will take place in the city, and their town house at the Excelsior will have to be opened for the event.

Mrs. W. H. Ritchie issued invitations yesterday for a card party and a dance, Thursday, at her summer home, "Latan-mar." The guests from the city will take the 9:15 morning train to Solberg's point and will return at 5 p. m.

Spray Island is one of the most picturesque spots which can be found at every glance in Lake Minnetonka. Captain Joe Montour and Mrs. Montour have opened the only cozy and comfortable cottage on the island for a fisherman's retreat, and are offering to their guests a place which cannot be equaled for fishing. The house stands on the high bluff facing Phelps Island, and the saying goes that once a lazy fisherman threw out his line and hook from the window, enjoying the most delightful combination of fishing and sleeping in turns. Of course, the line was long and much bait was lost during the sloppy spells, yet the angler declared that he never enjoyed more of his life. Spray Island is not inhabited except by fishermen, who make it their home off and on during the week and on Sundays. Mrs. J. Colley and children came out last week to spend the summer with Mrs. Colley's parents, Mrs. Colley had Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klima as her guests. Max Simon and family came out to the island. O. P. Nash, Minneapolis; Mrs. Josie Barrette, C. P. Smith, S. P. Hunter, St. Paul, and P. C. H. Reese of Minneapolis were among the arrivals this week.

The comet, Captain Montour's neat little steam craft, serves as the connecting link for trains at Spring Park, and meets every going out and coming in train at the point. The summer concert connects also with other points in the vicinity of Spring Park, and is the accommodation for a great many upper lake residents. The Territorial Pioneer Woman's club held a delightful all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. B. M. Thompson at Linwood on Tuesday. The guests were entertained on a launch ride and later by music furnished by Mrs. Thompson's daughters, Mrs. F. A. Richter and Mrs. C. D. Huxek. A basket lunch was served. Those present were: Meses. E. R. Brown, E. J. Hawkins, A. Slater and Brewster of Denver; O. E. King, Jennie Fuller, M. Adams, W. S. Humason, A. D. Beals, H. Martin, C. N. McIlvane, Emily Ring, C. C. Horton, John Horton, J. D. Richardson, Teddie Bussert, Carrie Woodfor, J. Remer, M. A. Townsend, J. Orden, Jessie Farise, J. W. Pridie, Annie Galwood, Allen E. Southworth, H. Hazzard, James Gandy, J. A. Ringler, E. D. Ortman, J. E. Gage, Frank Myer, J. Huff, M. J. Harrison, Julia Hill, Eselle Stewart, E. S. Williams, the Misses Helen Huyok, Marie Harrison, Carrie Stratton, and A. Martin, Lottie Galpin and Grace Browster.

Mrs. Harry V. Pettit entertained a small group of friends last evening at her home in Wayzata in honor of Miss Amy Lyons, a bride of Wednesday. Unique guessing contests furnished entertainment during the early part of the evening, after which a buffet supper was served. Red and white carnations helped to carry out the color scheme in the dining room. Red and white cupid heads were suspended from the ceiling, at which the men shot with bows and arrows to find their partners. Mrs. Pettit was assisted by Miss Carrie Robinson, hostess for a few weeks. Tuesday afternoon Miss Ida Dickey and Mrs. H. J. Bartlett gave a luncheon for Miss Lyons, at the home of Mrs. Bartlett. Peonies and asparagus fern were used to decorate the room. Thursday Mrs. E. D. Ferrell gave a thimble bee. Fourteen ladies were present, and the afternoon was spent in sewing for the bride. Mrs. C. E. Smock entertained this afternoon.

LAKE SHORE BREEZES. Mrs. C. A. Couch spent Thursday visiting at the lake. Mrs. J. A. Brush spent Thursday visiting at a social gathering at the Excelsior. Miss Louise Bayless was the guest of Miss Echo McKusick over Sunday. G. Butcher is home from the Indian Territory to visit his family at the lake. Miss Edith Todd has been visiting a week at the E. C. Pratt cottage, Wildhurst. Miss Bertha Bocka is home for the summer, having been at Lewiston, Idaho, this winter. Mrs. Freeman P. Lane has been entertaining Miss J. M. Stark at the Sampson House for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hogle of Chicago are at the Louise Perkins cottage, Excelsior, for the summer. Mrs. Josiah Williams and family have opened their cottage at Wildhurst and moved out Wednesday. Miss Wilma Anderson has been the guest for a week of Mrs. W. B. Albro at her cottage at Tonka Bay.

Mrs. Fattie of Colfax avenue S will be the guest of Mrs. A. Godart at her Excelsior cottage over Wednesday. Mrs. H. B. Tillston and Miss Alice Tillston were guests at the Jamison cottage, Wildhurst, over Wednesday. Anson Purchase and Elva Purchase are home from school and are at the Purchase cottage for their vacation.

The Misses Dorsey of St. Louis are expected at the lake later in the season and will be at the Sampson house at the Excelsior. Dr. and Mrs. James K. Hoemer, who have been spending a few weeks at Wildhurst, have returned to city. Miss Isabelle Goodnow and Marion Goodnow of Washington are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Goodnow at Excelsior.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Miller of Dubuque, Iowa are guests of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown, in Spring Grove. Mrs. Byron H. Kent and Miss Ray Kent came out to the lake Friday and are at the Louise Hanson cottage, Excelsior. Mrs. C. B. Detwiler children are with Mrs. Detwiler's parents for the summer. They arrived from Toluca Tuesday. Miss Annetta Waters of St. Louis, Mo., who accompanied a party of friends to St. Paul from the south, spent Wednesday at the lake. J. Gallagher Sunday made a tour of the lake with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jergenson of St. Paul Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jergenson, Miss J. Jergenson are guests at the lake on Tuesday and took in the sights of Lake Minnetonka on the Plymouth. Mrs. T. W. Lundquist, Miss J. Jergenson, O. E. Ring, were guests of Mrs. C. M. Menzel at the Levering cottage, Westport, Thursday. Mrs. O. W. Lundquist, Mrs. J. Jergenson, Mrs. J. E. Booth, Excelsior, and Mrs. Charles Mann of Eureka, were guests of Mrs. W. E. Bardwell over Wednesday.

Miss Kate Costello came out to the lake Thursday evening to be the over-Sunday guest of Miss Abbie Reed. Miss Reed leaves Monday for Glencoe, Minn., to visit for a week. Mrs. William Nesbitt is entertaining at the Bayview hotel, Spring Park with Miss Delamain, Princeton, Minn.; Messrs. Poore, Columbus Ohio; Jergenson and Taylor, Minneapolis, and Charles Champlin and his wife.

Professor and Mrs. Chaucey M. Crawford and daughter, of Bethlehem, Pa., are visiting Rev. G. H. Crawford, Excelsior. Mrs. Crawford had a year's leave of absence to take a post-graduate course at the University of Minnesota. She is one of the faculty of the university.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Jacques, Miss Agnes Jacques, Miss Gertrude Massot, Miss Miller, Minneapolis; Miss Cora Simmons, Sank Center; H. W. Jacques, Excelsior; Mrs. J. J. Lynch, Minneapolis, registered recently at Pleasant Grove house, Excelsior.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT "TRY THE STAIRS." G. L. Morrill. The day was hot—I was hurried, and had an errand to the printer on the fifth floor. I rang the elevator bell, but there was no response. After waiting a while a boy appeared and told me something had happened and the cage was stuck between the top and bottom floors. When Mahomet could not bring the mountain to him, he went to the mountain; so I started up the long stairs, provoked, and literally put out. It was a hard climb, and not nearly so attractive as the pyramids or Pike's Peak.

Between breaths I gave the foreman of the office my manuscript and a piece of my mind. Then I sat down, cooled off, grew calm, said a good-natured word by and by, and the door opened. When I entered the hall I found the elevator waiting to take me down. How smoothly and swiftly it ran. Before landing I looked up the shaft to see how high I had climbed, and as I did so, my eyes rested on this motto in the corner of the cage: "The elevator to success is generally stuck—try the stairs."

It is easy to do when you have everything to do with. To do without and substitute an indefatigable independence. His hard labor, hoe opus est. There were those in our fathers' days who accomplished much without modern appliances. If anything was necessary to solve one of their problems, no matter how difficult the task or at what cost of inconvenience to themselves. They made up inside what was wanting outside, and their names are written high in the temple of fame. Adversity is as much a test of character as prosperity. We talk of getting in on the ground floor, and of a "soft snap," forgetting that a man who is elevated more by lucky circumstance than personal merit is spoiled to start with.

Civilization frees and enslaves. Humanity conquers nature and becomes its dupe. Men invent professions and pleasure which plague them. We build elevators and lose the use of our legs. Macaulay contrasts Somers and Montague, and remarks: "One of the most severe trials to which the head and heart of man can be put is great and rapid elevation." Patient, hard work doesn't hurt. Beak the mountain are the stars of the easy elevator to success is said to strike out for yourself and climb the steep stairs to where you wish to go. "Work out your own salvation."

Fourth of July Nuisance. The appearance of the toy pistol in the streets suggests an early and vigorous protest against the annual sale of noiseful and noisy toys. It is the greatest of our national anniversaries from its present state as a mere carnival of barbaric and senseless noise and to restore to some of its former time-honored features. With a hope that a successful move may be made in this direction, we will, in golden grain belt beer, drink to our nation's continued prosperity.
