NEW MUTINIES; RUSS RENEGADE SHIP IS DOOMED

MORE WARSHIPS' CREWS REVOLT

Torpedoboats Are Stalking the Prince Potemkin and Will Sink Ship.

REBELS THREATENED A GERMAN COLONY

Meanwhile Uprisings Continue in Numerous Cities in Czar's Domain.

London, July 4.—3:15 p.m.—A dispatch to the Evening Standard from Odessa says the Prince Potemkin has been sighted twenty-five miles off that port.

A dispatch from Lloyd's agent at Bucharest says the Potemkin, accompanied by a torpedo boat, left Kustumji at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon with out obtaining coal and provisions and steered to the northward.

Berlin, July 4.—A dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Odessa says the Potemkin threatened to attack a village of German colonists on the coast near Odessa and requisitioned and took on board some cattle.

Paris, July 4.—A dispatch to the Temps from Constantinople says the Russian steamer Nicholas II, which has been ordered to proceed to Alexandria in place of Odessa owing to the troubles at the latter place, was unable to leave Constantinople on account of a mutiny of the crew which insisted on going to Odessa to protect their families.

Mutinies on Battleships. Paris, July 4.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Petit Journal says it is reported that the crew of two battleships at Revel have mutinied. A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Petit Journal says that the crew of the Georgi Pobiedonozets surrendered at Odessa as that she had gone aground under the guns of the fort and could not be moved.

TORPEDO FOR POTEKIN

Renegade Ship Is Stalked by Destroyers with Loyal Crews. Odessa, July 4.—It is reported persistently in army and navy circles that the Prince Potemkin is being stalked and pursued by several torpedo boats, which intend to sink her. The crews of these boats consist of officers, who volunteered, so there is no danger of their refusal to obey orders and destroy the renegade ship.

The Potemkin's hours are declared here to be numbered. Regret is expressed that the crew of the vessel is so splendid and powerful battleship and at the loss of life, but this is thought to be preferable to the continued dishonor of her presence in the Black sea commanded by mutineers. Several torpedo boats were reported to be off Odessa last night. There are other signs of activity among the torpedo fleet. A general strike for Potemkin is not known here, but she is reported to have left Kustumji.

MUTINY ON ANOTHER SHIP

Crew on a Transport Rebels, Seizes Ship, but Then Yields. St. Petersburg, July 4.—The minister of marine has received the following telegram from Admiral Kruger: "The crew of the transport Prout is creating a general mutiny, and is demanding the captain and other officers. Second Lieutenant Nestertzeff and Boatswain Kozlitzine were killed. "The Prout has arrived at Sevastopol and the crew now is repentant. Officers have been released, the crew begging them to resume their posts. The Prout has been ordered to anchor at Kameshka bay and an inquiry into the affair has been opened."

Appeal for Revolt. The executive committee of the social revolutionists has issued a stirring appeal summoning the working men of all classes of society interested in the overthrow of the present regime to show sympathy with all of those who fought for freedom at Lodz, Warsaw, Odessa and other cities, as well as the sailors who mutinied at Odessa and Liban, by inaugurating a general political strike. The workers' leaders here have supplemented this by the proclamation of a general strike for Thursday. Over 20,000 men are already out and more or less disorder has occurred.

Jewish Massacre Feared. Gen. Karakosoff has been appointed to restore order at Odessa, and his first act was to offer to employ 2,000 idlers in clearing the ruined port. He also took precautions to prevent a Jewish massacre. Jews are fleeing from the city in thousands. Jewish agitators, according to some consular reports received at the embassies here, were prominent in inciting strike riots and throwing bombs on Tuesday, and according to the police and soldiers Wednesday. When the Potemkin arrived they fanned the flames, and according to these reports the population of Odessa has been standing near the railing. He had been the girl's escort. He had paid his $10 fine, but had remained around the building for six hours waiting for the young woman's turn to be heard, and was trying in vain to get bail for her secretly.

Reservists Are Riotous. At Kieff the first mobilization trouble occurred. The reservists attacked and wounded policemen and plundered the liquor shops. Jews are avoiding service by flight. More serious in its way, however, is the refusal of the disciplinary battalion at Kherson to obey orders. They attacked their captain, and killed their colonel. The latter, even when mortally wounded by bayonets, marched his soldiers to barracks and then sank dying. The reservists in Odessa, where fighting commenced, Police agents have been attacked with bombs, and in several places there have been collisions between troops and the populace. Other revolutionaries in other parts of the country are making most of the opportunity to preach strikes and disorder, and the intelligentsia proposes a general stoppage of activity by all professional classes.

THE BIG STICK READY IN NORWAY

Hoping for Peace but Prepared for War if It Becomes Necessary.

The Differences Political—Strong Sympathy Between the People of Sweden and Norway.

O. J. Breda, who writes exclusively for The Journal a Norwegian view of the controversy between Norway and Sweden, was formerly a member of the faculty of the University of Minnesota, but is now a teacher in Christiania.

Special Correspondence. Christiania, Norway, June 19.—The Norwegians at home object to the word revolution as applied to the political changes which have taken place here during the past two weeks. It is too suggestive of blood and strife for the little drama which has thus far, so quietly and successfully passed over the political boards. Possibly the word at large will hold us guilty of a revolution now when we have deposed our old king, severed the bonds of the union and set up a provisional government of our own. But in the revolutionary line it certainly indicates a new departure. There have been no violent demonstrations of any kind; our streets have presented no unusual appearance, the people have been a shade more quiet and well behaved than usual in the morning, our principal street was thronged with a somewhat excited multitude, especially in the evening. In front of the university the throng was dense and here and there were patriotic songs were sung with immense enthusiasm. I happened to fall in with a couple of ex-American soldiers, and here and there a few Norwegians were seen in the crowd. A Norwegian revolution was not in it with an American Fourth of July celebration. Certainly it was a novel experience when it could be done with absolute safety to life and limb. I think a good many asked the question: Is it really so easy to depose a king and break off a union of nearly a century's standing with another nation and to put on a new coat when you are tired of the old? I think most of us went home to our beds that morning with a lingering fear that the serious part of the business was to come afterwards.

FLOODS AROUND HURON

Many Fields of Corn and Small Grain Under Water.

Special to The Journal. Huron, S. D., July 4.—Heavy rains continue over this part of the state; many fields of corn and small grain are flooded, and low places are full of water. Not for years has there been so much water on the surface as at this time. Lake beds nearly dry for years are full of water and all have overflowed their banks. The James river is eight feet higher than in years and hundreds of acres of bottom lands are under water.

GRANT COUNTY INUNDATED

This Says a Quarter of the Crop Is Submerged. Special to The Journal. Hillbank, S. D., July 4.—A rainfall of 3.61 inches in twenty-four hours has caused the highest water ever known. On the Wheatstone and Yellowbank rivers the bridges are all out and the loss is $20,000. One quarter of the crop is under water.

CHARLES M. THOMPSON DEAD

Toronto, July 4.—Charles M. Thompson, prominent lumber merchant of the United States and until a few months ago a resident of Chicago, has been found dead in his room here. Death due to heart failure. He was a native of Concord, N. H.

ONE OF THE TRAGEDIES

A tall, beautiful girl was called before Magistrate Ebley on Tuesday, and she was wearing a white dress and her face was swathed in an automobile veil. "What is your name?" asked the magistrate. The girl stood white as marble without replying. The magistrate repeated the question. "I shall give you no name, and can do no good. It will be death for me in the end and death for my parents. I will only say that I was engaged to be married. I still feel that I am a good woman. It is too late to ask for mercy. Oh, my God, too late!" "Officer, did you ever see this woman before?" asked the magistrate. "Yes, your honor, when she was in the street. She is the daughter of —" "Take her away quick. Put her in a carriage and send her home," exclaimed the horrified magistrate.

Came to Her Rescue

"I'll attend to that, if your honor will permit," said a young man who had been standing near the railing. He had been the girl's escort. He had paid his $10 fine, but had remained around the building for six hours waiting for the young woman's turn to be heard, and was trying in vain to get bail for her secretly.

Sure of Their Facts

The Law and Order society were evidently very sure of their facts before inaugurating the raid. Not over ten in each 100 were released. The general impression is that during the next few weeks the court of inquiry will have to work overtime to hear the charges that will be probably brought against the lieutenants of the districts in which the disorderly houses were located, the special officers and street sergeants and the patrolmen on whose beats the houses were found.

BACK FROM CELL AS IF FROM DEAD

AMERICAN WHO HAS BEEN IN A COLOMBIAN PRISON 14 YEARS IS RETURNING

New York, July 4.—After spending fourteen years in prison in Colombia, Frank Holley, formerly of New York, is on his way back to this country. An aged mother and a woman to whom he was engaged are awaiting his arrival. They believed Holley to be dead until they received a letter from him some months ago.

MAN SHOTS HIMSELF AT THE ROGERS HOTEL

A man believed to be L. A. Mallory, shot himself in the lobby of the Rogers hotel about 1:30 this afternoon. He had been sitting at a table for more than half an hour.

He fired several shots, one of which entered his forehead, but they did not attract attention because of the din of popping crackers in the street. A man entering the hotel saw the man lying on the floor in a pool of blood. He was taken to the city hospital immediately. The name L. A. Mallory, address Harvard chambers, was found on a Masonic card in his pocket.

Few Auto Tourists Arrive from Chicago and Program Is Disarranged.

Sad Stories Told of Desperate Struggles Thru Rain and Mud.

Rain, thousands of tons of it, have made the elaborate plans for the automobile carnival week "gang aglee." Last night's deluge completed the destruction of the roads of southern Minnesota and B. A. Ledy, secretary of the St. Paul Automobile club, was forced to announce this morning that the program, which was to have begun today, has been postponed until tomorrow. While several of the cars may arrive today, the great majority will not, and it is thought best to get together before the celebration is on.

Affection for the Old King

Last Sunday the prayer for the king and the royal family was to be omitted from the church service, but, and that is very characteristic of our Norwegian revolution, a number of clergymen of old military and naval rank, very touching and pathetic appeal to the throne of the Almighty to bless the good old king and soothe the closing days of his life. After the first burst of indignation at the king's refusal to assent to the consular service bill all resentment towards him has melted away. Has the people depose the king, asked him kindly to accept the throne for some other member of his dynasty and afterwards offered up prayers for him in their churches?

REVIEWED PROGRAM

Wednesday, July 4.—Arrival of tourists and reception with bands on outskirts of St. Paul at 3 p.m. Assembly of all divisions at Rice Park at 4 p.m. Secured by 200 men. Cars form in line and proceed to the capitol, where letters from the governors of some states, of distant cities and other official communications will be delivered to Governor John A. Johnson and Mayor Robert A. Smith, who, with their offices at 229 West Congress street, will receive the tourists on behalf of Minnesota. At the conclusion of the reception the cars will be checked for certificates and the various delegations will be escorted to their hotels.

FELL BACK ON THE HORSE

One Party Toted if a Farmer's Wagon—Story of the Run. From a Staff Correspondent. Austin, Minn., July 4.—Rain played havoc with the plans of the touring motorists en route from Chicago to St. Paul. Scores of them, including a number of those in the vanguard, which arrived here last night at 8:30, the trip has been a series of dashes thru mud, rain and over roads and varying from fairly good to very bad. Many of the tourists have given up in disgust. Some have shipped their cars to St. Paul; some have turned their faces homeward, and some of them are still coming.

DEADLY TOY PISTOL

Black River Falls, Wis., July 4.—The hand of Frank Millard, aged 10, was badly lacerated with a toy pistol today. Rain fell all night, and there are no signs of clearing. The celebration will be a failure.

Hurt by a Cannon

Marion, Ohio, July 4.—Frank Reid, aged 28 years, was seriously injured today by the explosion of a cannon filled with powder. The powder did not explode quickly enough to suit him and he heaped on the powder. He was struck in the face with the powder. He may lose the use of one eye.

Shot Thru the Heart

New York, July 4.—The first fatal accident due to the Fourth of July was reported shortly after midnight when Morris Komerstein was pierced thru the heart by a pistol bullet which came in thru a window of the house in Monroe street in which he lived.
