"It is not easy to be a widow; one must resume all the modesty of girlhood, without being allowed even to feign ignorance."
—Mme. de Girardin.

The marriage of Miss Effa Crawshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crawshaw, 3033 James avenue S., to Arthur C. Danenbaum, will be celebrated Wednesday evening, Aug. 2, at the family home.

The marriage of Miss Olive Ellis and Raymond C. Smith of Fort William, Ont., was celebrated last night amid pretty appointments and happy circumstances at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelbert C. Ellis, 1523 Seventh street SE.

The doorways and windows were draped with southern smilax; in the parlor this greenery was supplemented by a graceful arrangement of asparagus ferns and marguerites. In the living-room oak boughs formed a background for knots of sweet peas, and in the reception hall the green was relieved by clusters of flaming poppies in brass jars. The centerpiece of the supper table was a basket of red roses and maidenhair ferns. Festoons of smilax were draped from the chandelier to the corners of the table, and the table was lighted with red candles in brass holders.

The nuptial music was played by Miss Minnie Smith, sister of the bridegroom. The ceremony was read by Rev. W. H. Jordan of First M. E. church, the bride standing under an arch of smilax and marguerites. The bride's gown was of dusty white Swiss trimmed with narrow bands of satin and lace, and she carried an armful of white roses. Miss Blanche Holt, the maid of honor, wore a white gown trimmed with lace and carried pink roses. The bride's pathway was strewn with rose petals by little Bernice Koras. Claude Smith was his brother's best man.

After the ceremony Mrs. E. D. Smith of Rochester and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis received with the newly-wedded couple. Assisting in the dining-room were Misses Ada Perry, Harriet McKendrick, Blanche Taylor and Ethel Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will visit Milwaukee, Chicago and Rochester on their wedding journey and will be at home after Aug. 15 at Fort William.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Gjersten, 2535 Elliott avenue was the scene of a wedding last night, which marked the union of Miss Louise Wettstein, the wife of Harry Lund. The service was read at 7:30 by Rev. Irving P. Gethers of the Lutheran church. The bride's gown was of white tulle with a train and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's pathway was strewn with rose petals by little Bernice Koras. Claude Smith was his brother's best man.

The bride's gown was of soft, lustrous white pongee with a bertha of hand embroidery and her bouquet was a spray of white roses. The house decorations of sweet peas and ferns were simple. Mr. and Mrs. Lund have a new home on Tenth avenue and Thirty-first street where they will be at home after Oct. 1.

A charming nuptial event of Saturday was the marriage of Miss Bessie Lewis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Lewis, 1006 E. Eighth street, to Hal Beach of Lewiston, Idaho. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Latimore of Lewiston and was witnessed by forty guests. The house decorations were of green and white, carnations, ferns and smilax being used. The bride's gown was of white tulle with a train and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bride's pathway was strewn with rose petals by little Bernice Koras. Claude Smith was his brother's best man.

The annual meeting of the Eighth Ward W. C. T. U. will be held Friday at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. Hoover, 3105 First avenue S. Reports of officers and superintendents will be given, and officers will be elected for the coming year.

The members of the Author's Study club will be entertained tomorrow by Mrs. O. H. Fleming and Mrs. F. R. Salisbury, at the home of Mrs. Salisbury on Big Island, Minnetonka.

A charming outdoor wedding celebrated the union, Wednesday afternoon, of Miss Belle Solberg and William Hazen of Minneapolis. It was an out-of-town affair and took place at the home of the bride's sister in Granite Falls. The marriage vows were pronounced by the bride's brother, Rev. C. K. Solberg of Chicago, before a company of 120 guests. At 5 o'clock an elaborate dinner was served, and an orchestra furnished music for the festivities that continued thru the evening.

Mr. Hazen will bring his bride to Minneapolis to live.

A quiet wedding which took place last night was that of Miss Louise Schiek, daughter of Mrs. Fred Schiek, and Nelson B. Price, at the home of Mrs. Schiek, 5523 Garfield avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Price will make their home at 2552 Garfield avenue after their return from a short trip.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Evenson, who were married in June, left last night for Seattle, their future home. Yesterday the bride's mother gave a farewell luncheon for her at her home, 1920 Central avenue.

Twelve young girls from Mrs. John McMath's day school class of the Grand Avenue Church of Christ, picnicked at Linden Hills, Wednesday. A substantial lunch was served from a flower-decked table, and the usual out-of-door games were played. There were sixteen in the party.

Miss Helen Baker and Irving H. Hara were married last evening at Wesley church by Dr. L. T. Guild.
