BANANAS ARE HELD UP

FAMINE IN THE FRUIT IS PRE-DICTED AS RESULT OF YELLOW FEVER QUARANTINE.

The influences of the yellow fever plague in the south are already felt in the local fruit market. Jobbers have anticipated the possibility of not getting bananas so easily, and loaded up heavily last week—but the supply is being rapidly cut down, and today's reports from Mobile, Ala., are to the effect that arrivals will be detained there from five days to a week before being forwarded. Prices are advancing every day, and there is likely to be such a scarcity before the close of the week that the "banana" peddler will have to seek some other occupation temporarily, and consumers be compelled to give more attention to peaches, pears and plums for a fruit diet.

The other two-thirds is divided equally among the children, Bruce F., Norma and Robert. The executor is Mrs. Hall, Edwin C. Best and Judge F. C. Brooks.

BUYS CABBAGE CROP

Commission Firm Purchases Forty-Acre Field Near Minnehaha. The D. E. Ryan company, one of the leading vegetable carlot shippers of this city, has just closed a deal with E. W. Adair, a market gardener located near Minnehaha, for his forty-acre tract of cabbage, the consideration being based on the present market value, which will net the grower considerably over $5,000. With the exception of a grower near Racine, Wis., and one or two in New York state, this is the largest field of German noses in the country, and four times as large as any other plot in the northwest. Many cars of cabbage, potatoes, cucumbers, wax beans and other vegetables are now going out each day from Minnehaha.

DISPOSING OF EXHIBITS

The twin city world's fair commission met yesterday to make final disposition of the exhibits at St. Louis, but was unable to do much, as a large part of the exhibit is still in Chicago. Minneapolis will take all the photographs, casts and charts relating to Minneapolis, and St. Paul will take similar property. The panorama of the twin cities, one of the most striking features of the model city, will probably be given a suitable place at the state fair.

Guthrie, 332 Summit avenue, St. Paul, was struck by the machine and thrown from his carriage yesterday afternoon. The machine was driven by M. A. Munch, who states that he had practically stopped when he saw Rose trying to get on the right side of the street. The rear wheels of the carriage were knocked off and Rose was thrown backward. He has his leg broken, and since the accident and it is feared that his skull may be fractured.

REVISED FIGURES

Census Enumerators Added to Vital Statistics of 1904. Vital statistics prepared by the state board of health for 1904 have been revised by the board thru additional data secured from state census enumerators. Fifteen hundred deaths were found reported in census returns which had not been reported, as required by law, to the state board. This brings the total deaths for the year up to 20,000 compared with 36,000 births.

YES!

Grandma's girl, Polly Prim, gave a birthday party to her little friends the other day. There was ice cream, cakes, candy and of course, a birthday cake. But oh! what happened to that cake! Too bad—but it was funny. If you want to laugh see the comical pictures about Polly in Saturday's colored page.

GRAM FOR PLACES IN CHINESE ARMY

LOCAL MEN IN TOUCH WITH RECRUITING AGENTS.

Have Been Learning Language and Have Promises of Commissions When Imperial Army Is Reorganized at End of Present War—Get Notice That American Headquarters Are Moved. Minneapolis volunteers for the reorganized Chinese army have been informed that the American headquarters of the organization have been transferred to New York city. For some time the recruiting station for American officers was located at Yankton, S. D., in charge of one Major English. Spanish war veterans and men of long experience in the national guard of various western states were approached with offers of commissions and large pay for service in the reorganized Chinese army, the reorganization to take place at the close of the present war in the east.

A number of Minneapolis men were interested to the extent of taking the examinations, and those who passed were given promise of service and commissions as soon as active work began. A school was started about a year ago, with a Chinese professor from San Francisco in charge. The school has been kept very quiet, at the request of those in charge of the movement. It is known that there are several Minneapolis men who have graduated from the Chinese school. The sessions were held evenings in a downtown chop suey establishment, where the surroundings and influences were ideal. The course included not only the language, but also a general outline history of the country and its customs. The better educated local Chinese were impressed to service in the work of teaching the language. On certain evenings each week fetes were held and the American volunteers given practice in conversational Chinese. The head office keeps a close watch on the work of teaching the language, and a convention will soon be called, at which time plans for the active service will be discussed. It is also announced that the imperial commission will have to make up new army regulations and that these will be forwarded to the recruits for study.

The movement is meeting with considerable success in the east, where a large percentage of the young men are interested in national guard work. The soldier of fortune idea appeals strongly to them, and the commissioner has had a large number of capable men to pick from.

TOOK GOVERNOR'S WORD TO SET HIM FREE

George H. D. Hanson of 2802 Franklin avenue is eagerly awaiting the arrival of his father, Hans K. Olson, who was about to be deported by the government of Ellis island on the ground that he was a self-supporting alien. Hanson was saved from this fate by the personal intervention of Governor John A. Johnson. Mr. Olson is 80 years old and was detained at Ellis island on the ground that he was a self-supporting alien and might become a public charge. He explained his son's position in Minneapolis and Mr. Johnson himself wired to Robert Waterman, commissioner of immigration, explaining that he was abundantly able to care for his father and had sent the funds to Denmark to prepay his way to Minneapolis. This was followed from the commissioner of local bank as to Mr. Hanson's financial standing.

This letter had no effect on the commissioner, and Hanson soon from Frank A. Day, the governor's secretary. A telegram signed in the name of the governor, however, produced better results, and yesterday Mr. Hanson was informed that his father had been released. The venerable traveler is expected here tomorrow.

ASKED TO CONTINUE

Elevators at Superior Stick to Minnesota Inspection. It is probable that Minnesota grain inspectors will continue to inspect grain in elevators at Superior and West Superior. A short time ago the Wisconsin authorities notified the Minnesota officials that their men would take up this work. Owners of private elevators, which will net the grower considerably over $5,000. With the exception of a grower near Racine, Wis., and one or two in New York state, this is the largest field of German noses in the country, and four times as large as any other plot in the northwest. Many cars of cabbage, potatoes, cucumbers, wax beans and other vegetables are now going out each day from Minnehaha.

Thru the help of the poor department and the Associated Charities, August Wacklin and his wife and two children are to be sent to their native home in Finland. Since coming to this country the family has been practically on the verge of starvation and the husband has been too ill to work. Friends raised money for their temporary support, and they would be better off at home. The poor department will furnish transportation to Chicago and the Associated Charities will aid the rest of the way.

WANT ALL LAWS UNIFORM

HOTEL MEN WILL NAME COMMITTEE TO DRAFT STANDARD ACT FOR NORTHWESTERN STATES.

Uniformity in hotel laws is strongly recommended by the members of the Northwestern Hotel Men's association, which is holding its convention in this city. Five states are represented, and each state has a different system of laws, the result being that the traveling public is often badly confused as to what is the law. The association approved a motion to appoint a committee to draft a set of laws regulating hotels, and to endeavor to have them adopted by the various state legislatures of the northwest. In the discussion yesterday, H. S. Joslin of St. Paul spoke of the Minnesota statutes; Rome Miller of Omaha on the Nebraska laws; and J. H. Kingsley of Waterloo, on those of Iowa.

A. H. Limebarger of St. Cloud explained why an extra charge should be made for the use of rooms for sample rooms. J. F. Bishop, editor of the Hotel World, addressed the convention. Last evening the members dined together at the Commercial club. Among those who made remarks were Ralph W. Wheelock, representing the mayor, E. K. Westlake, on behalf of the Commercial club, Hotel Inspector W. L. Ryan, A. W. Crozier, who told the hotel men how the traveling men wanted hotels conducted, and L. S. Person, who discussed the importance of the land-roler cultivating sociality with his guests.

The visitors took the morning off to visit Minnetonka. They made a tour of the lake, visiting the various points of interest and after luncheon resumed their business session. They will also be in session this evening, discussing questions near to the heart of the modern innkeeper.

JUMPED TO HIS DEATH FROM A FREIGHT TRAIN

Robert H. Boynton, a chuffer in the employ of the Great Northern, was fatally injured in jumping from a freight train yesterday morning and died shortly after 2 o'clock this morning at St. Barnabas hospital. The accident occurred at the tracks at Eighteenth avenue SE, just a block from the young man's home. He was riding home from his night's work at the time, and was on the train when he attempted to alight he struck his head against a switch post, fracturing his skull. He walked to his home, 715 Third street, and was later taken to St. Barnabas hospital, where it was learned that his injuries would prove fatal. Boynton was 23 years old and unmarried.

BURNED BY GASOLINE

Explosions Injure Roomer and Fireman Who Was Called. Albert Langstad and Charles Kauffer, a fireman, were seriously burned yesterday by a gasoline explosion in Langstad's room at 60 East Seventh street, St. Paul. Langstad was preparing a meal in his room when the gasoline stove exploded, setting fire to his clothing. He was thrown from the room and landed in the building came to his rescue and smothered the flames. His burns were serious and he was taken to the city hospital.

DOESN'T TEMPT HIM

Bede Prefers Present Job to the Governorship. J. Adam Bede, congressman from the eighth district, was a caller at the capitol yesterday. He was asked if he would be tempted to accept the governorship. "You couldn't pry me loose from my little job if you gave me the nomination of both parties," he said, "provided my people will let me keep the job of congressman. I am satisfied where I am."

HURT IN RUNAWAY

Driver Dashed to Pavement When Buggy Strikes Lamp Post. J. W. Spears, 3617 Aldrich avenue S, was seriously injured in a runaway accident at Cedar avenue and Sixth street last evening, and was taken to the city hospital, where his wounds were dressed. Mr. Spear's horse became frightened at a dog and dashed down the street, colliding with a lamppost and throwing the driver to the pavement. The buggy was completely wrecked, but the horse was caught later by a policeman and taken to Mr. Spear's jet.

PREPARING FOR THE EXECUTION

SHERIFF WARD, OF ELK RIVER, TALKS OF CRAWFORD CASE.

Says that While the Duty of Executing the Condemned Murderer is an Oudious One, He Will Not Shirk His Responsibility—Little Hope for a Stay of Sentence. Unless something unexpected intervenes, C. D. Crawford, convicted of the murder of Helen Anderson, will be hanged in the jail yard at Elk River between midnight and sunrise on Tuesday, Aug. 15. Sheriff Ward is in Minneapolis today to arrange some of the final details of the hanging and for the murderer's transportation from the Hennepin county jail to Sherburne county.

The little town of Elk River is agog with interest and speculation over the coming event. Several days before the hanging everything will be in readiness. A high-board fence is being built around the spot in the jail yard upon which the gallows will be erected. The enclosure will accommodate about a hundred people, but considerably less than that number will be in attendance. "I have issued no invitations to the hanging," said Sheriff Ward today. "I will, of course, ask the sheriffs of the state to be present, but only a few of them will accept and besides the prisoners and local officials, there will be few witnesses. I do not believe there is any prospect of a stay of execution, and we will be in readiness for our part of the unpleasant duty when the time comes. Personally, the task is odious, but it is a part of my duty and I am not letting it interfere with my sleep."

No Special Train.

"This talk about a special train for the prisoner is absurd. I will bring one deputy with me and we will take Crawford to Elk River, probably on the 14th. We will take an ordinary train, and as we would with any prisoner, I do not anticipate any difficulty, as Crawford is not a fool and he knows it is useless for him to attempt anything."

"The man has a wonderful nerve. It has been displayed in many ways since his arrest and during his long trial and imprisonment. Really I think, he is not a nerve, but a lack of approval or some such quality in his mental make-up. Even now he doesn't care anything about the crime he committed, but simply hopes that something may intervene to save him from the gallows."

"I understand that Crawford has a father, mother and sister living. We do not know their names and perhaps we never will, but he may give them before he goes to the gallows. So far he has refused to tell of his relatives or their whereabouts and in that he shows his manhood. His parents, who I believe live in southern Missouri, have not seen him and have heard from him but once since he was 5 years old. They do not know whether he is alive or dead."

Stay Is Doubtful.

E. S. Cary went to St. Paul yesterday in the interest of the condemned man. He interviewed two members of the pardoning board and was told that if he wanted anything done he would have to produce the evidence soon. There may be an attempt to secure a stay but it seems doubtful if it will be granted.

RAILROADS

WON'T SCALP TICKETS Brokers Agree to Let State Fair Transportation Alone. One fare for the round trip to the state fair on the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Soo lines is certain, owing to action taken by the twin city ticket brokers. They have agreed in writing not to traffic in tickets of these lines issued on account of the fair. The brokers have agreed also to influence any brokers who may not be included in the agreement not to traffic in these tickets.

E. J. Cannon was the attorney for the commercial bodies. Those signing the agreement were C. E. Corbett, D. C. McDermott, P. E. Edwards, D. McDermott and the Travelers' ticket office of St. Paul, and W. R. Gitt, Robert Manford, C. E. Corbett and Cooper's prevalent office, Minneapolis. As a part of the second part, the signers were the State Agricultural society, St. Paul Jobbers & Manufacturers' association, St. Paul Retailers' association, St. Paul Board of Trade, St. Paul Produce Exchange and the three lines.

Secure Grading Contract. H. F. Balch & Co., railroad contractors of Minneapolis, have secured a contract for grading the first section of the new Duluth, St. Cloud, Glencoe & Mankato road, which is to be built from Albert Lea to Mankato. Their headquarters are at Highland, Minn., and the nearest point to the work, Balch & Co. are now letting the work, and a large force of teams and men will be required, as it is the intention to finish the line this season.

RAILROAD NOTES.

London Old Boys, bound for Winnipeg on Monday, will use their Minneapolis Saturday morning in a special train of four Pullman, a baggage and a dining car. From Minneapolis they will go over the Burlington and east over the Grand Trunk. The Great Western will run an excursion to the cities from Minden, Iowa, and intermediate points, west from Saturday. The fare will be $2.50 and from Minneapolis $2. The Great Western is reported to be back of the price line from Waverly to Mason City. The relation between the price and the road are such as to indicate that the Great Western behind the scheme. Mr. Brice promoted the Iowa & Dakota division of the North-Western line.

To get relief from indigestion, biliousness, constipation or torpid liver without disturbing the stomach or purging the bowels, take a few doses of Carter's Little Liver Pills; they will please you.
