Minneapolis Cycles Curiosity is one of the forms of feminine bravery.—Victor Hugo.

Plans for the women's tennis tournament at the Minnikahda club sound exceedingly interesting. There will be music on Monday afternoon and evening at the club in honor of the opening day, and there will also be music on Tuesday and on Saturday, Sept. 2, the closing day of the tournament. The regimental band from Fort Snelling will be present and play afternoon and evening. The officers and ladies from the fort will come over in a chartered car and join the gay throng which will gather to watch the finals. The tournament is for the championship of Minnesota and is open to the women players of the state. Entries must be in by Saturday, and names should be sent to Thomas F. Wallace, New York Life Building, Minneapolis.

The Minnetonka Boat club will give another of its popular informals at the Pomona hotel this evening. A program of eighteen dances has been arranged for the evening, and the dancing will begin early so the guests from the bank of palms and ferns that filled the train home.

Miss Margarette Speedy and Frank A. Harvey were quietly married at their summer cottage in Groveland Park, Minnetonka, last evening, in the presence of about twenty-five guests. The ceremony was performed in one corner of the porch which had been turned into a bower with vines, foliage and golden-rod. White roses and marguerites were also used for decoration. Rev. C. F. Shattuck officiating minister. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey will receive after Sept. 1 at their cottage, Groveland Park.

Miss Helen Aleda Upton and George H. T. Brinkerhoff of Spokane were married last evening at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. E. Aleda Upton, 22 Grove place. Golden glow and gold-rod furnished the decorations in the first parlor, and the second room, where the service was read, was in white and green, with asters caught in the bank of palms and ferns that filled the bow window. Pink asters were in the dining room.

Mrs. Henry Church played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus as the bridal couple entered, unattended. The bride wore white Persian lawn trimmed with Valenciennes lace and insertion, and carried bride roses. Rev. Clement Clark read the prayer in the presence of a small group of friends. An informal reception followed and Mr. and Mrs. Brinkerhoff were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Upton, Mr. and Mrs. E. Upton, Mr. and Mrs. Howard B. Upton and Mrs. Charles Upton.

A wedding of last evening was that of Miss Bessie M. Carpenter and C. J. Harrington of Aberdeen, S. D., which took place at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Flett, 931 Sixteenth avenue S. The mantel was banked with ferns and pink white carnations and wall baskets held more than a dozen blossoms here and there thru the rooms. Lavender and white asters were used in the dining room. Miss Pearl Sargent played the program of appropriate selections as the guests arrived and the "Lohengrin" chorus was used as a processional. Mrs. George Cool of Aberdeen was matron of honor and wore a white organdie gown, trimmed with lace, and carried bride roses. The bride wore a white silk and the bouquet of roses. George Cool was best man and the service was read by Rev. W. B. Dyer, St. Paul's.

W. W. Marshall announces the engagement of his daughter, Maude Clara, to John S. Thompson. The wedding will take place in September.

Miss Caroline Gold and Byron Harris were honor guests at a handsomely appointed dinner which was given last evening by Mrs. John A. Harris at her home, 1507 Clinton avenue. Asters and sweet peas carried out a pretty color scheme of green and white in the decorations. Covers were placed for twelve.

Work of Club Women. The Civics club of Orange, N. J., has taken up the question of the extermination of mosquitoes and the prevention of dust on the streets. Mrs. Glynnes, president of the Society of American Women in London, has been agitating for the formation of a General Federation of Women's clubs to provide scholarships for American girls at Oxford university, following the example of Cecil Rhodes for American boys.

Kansas Club Women. The Kansas Federation of Women's clubs issues an interesting report. The membership of 326 clubs has acquired fifteen fine schools and is planning educational institutions of the state, the scholarships to be given to young women recommended by the clubs. The federation recently published a volume of quotations and with the proceeds established two traveling art galleries, one of Italian and the other of Dutch art, and four study collections. The art galleries have been placed in charge of the University of Kansas, and the university has added its large equipment of photographs, fine prints and other reproductions to the beginning made by the club women for circulation among Kansas people.

Household Alliance. The Woman's National Household alliance has been incorporated in Maine. Its aim is to bring practical means to promote higher life in the household. First, by affording a medium thru which housekeepers may obtain competent servants, and by securing good positions to good help. Second, by the co-operation of both employer and employee in raising the standard of domestic service and home life. Third, to foster the interests of all who employ women in occupations other than domestic service, as well as assisting girls and young women to qualify themselves for better positions. Fourth, to advance the interests of pure foods, right living, economical buying, rational cookery, the marketing of products by women in the home, the advancement of rational education, etc.

Fraud Charged in Sewell Divorce Vice President of American Smelting & Refining Company Accused by Ex-Wife.

NO 'SOFT SNAP' FOR PRESIDENT'S FRIEND Washington, Aug. 23.—President Roosevelt, despite criticism directed at him because of an alleged intention to give his chum, General Leonard Wood, a desirable assignment on the general staff here and sold up assignment to other officers in order that General Wood's wishes might be gratified, has disappointed his critics. Instead of giving General Wood the assignment in Washington, which is coveted by all officers of the army, he decided to return him to the Philippines and place him in command of all the troops in the archipelago as the successor of General Corbin.

Oil Suit for Millions H. H. Rogers Says Greenough Vacated His Agreement. Boston, Aug. 23.—A motion was made in the supreme court for the appointment of a commission to take the testimony of John D. Rockefeller and other officers of the Standard Oil company in the $50,000,000 suit brought by the state of New York against the company, which alleges that amount due her in royalties on the oil refined by the company since 1874. H. H. Rogers, who is made the chief defendant, says an agreement was made, but that Mr. Greenough himself vacated it on Jan. 1, 1875.

Conviction Follows Trial When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin; how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out. Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use Lion Coffee, the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

ARGANUMITES DEMAND RETURN TO OLD RATES New York, Aug. 23.—At a twelve-hour secret session, attended by representatives of seven-eighths of the Royal Acaunum membership of the United States and Canada, held yesterday in this city, resolutions were passed demanding that the supreme council of the order rescind at Put-in-Bay next week the action raising rates taken by the supreme council last May. If this is not done, it was declared, there will be wholesale secessions and lawsuits. The session was attended by prominent secessions from the states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Michigan, which thode embrace a membership of 295,000 out of the total of 316,000 in the order.
