In Social Circles

The history of love would be the best of humanity; it would be a beautiful book to write.—Nodier.

MEANS SOCIAL OSTRACISM IT'S BAD FORM IN ST. PAUL NOT TO WEAR AN AUDITORIUM BUTTON.

St. Paul is having a big time with the auditorium button, which is the badge of honor to who have subscribed to the auditorium fund. The desire is to have a button on every man, woman and child in the city, and the rapid sale indicates that it will not be long before a buttonless St. Paulite will be an object of curiosity and possibly derision. The sale started last Monday evening at the Grand opera-house, where an auction was held; No. 1, after spirited bidding, was sold for $250. Elks lodge, No. 59, gave $59 for No. 59. One man paid $50 for No. 13.

Final Reduction and Clearance Sale of Women's Tub Skirts, Tub Waists and Shirt Waist Dresses

Our season for wash goods is over, quite over, and our great aim now is to clear out everything of a summery character, even though we get but a nominal price for the same. We would rather have the space they take up for autumn goods and a portion of the money they represent to turn over than carry the merchandise on our books. Therefore, we name prices for tomorrow which, conservatively speaking, cover about the cost of unmade material.

- Tub Skirts Shown in natural and white linen, pique and shrunk cotton, entire stock—Wash Skirts, up to $2.50, $1.00. Wash Skirts, up to $4.00, $2.00. Wash Skirts, up to $7.50, $3.00.
- Shirt Waist Dresses These dresses are in plain white and colors; lawns, linens, organdies and other wash materials. Full range of sizes—Dresses up to $3.75 sell at $1.00. Dresses up to $6.00 sell at $2.00. Dresses up to $9.00 sell at $3.00. Dresses up to $12.50 sell at $4.00.
