

TROOPS MURDER INNOCENT JEWS

Bomb Thrown by Socialists in Bialistok, Poland, Horribly Avenged.

New York Sun Special Service. Warsaw, Russia, Poland, Aug. 26.—Another massacre of Jews, marked by atrocities worthy of savages, has occurred in Bialistok, about fifty miles southwest of Grodno.

The official report minimizes it, as usual, merely stating that a party of Jews at Bialistok threw a bomb, which killed some soldiers, whereupon the troops fired in self-defense, and that "during the scuffle forty Jews were killed and one hundred and eighty wounded."

Bialistok lies near the junction of the St. Petersburg-Warsaw and Königsberg-Bialystok railways, and is a town of 65,000 inhabitants, three-quarters of them Jews.

To Teach a Lesson. Some Jewish workmen were arrested three weeks ago and treated with exceptional brutality by soldiers and policemen, whose officers threatened openly that they would crush the Jewish population; "teach the Jews a lesson."

A small gathering of Jews, possibly socialist, but not authorized by the socialist party to act, ordered that the brutal treatment of their arrested co-religionists be avenged. The persons picked to do this work threw a bomb Aug. 12 among some soldiers, of whom three were killed, while a dozen workmen were wounded, some fatally.

This was the signal for a violent outbreak by the troops against all the Jews, innocent and guilty alike. Soldiers marched up and down Bialistok's streets shooting indiscriminately wherever they were abroad. They entered the houses, killing and robbing the occupants.

Atrocities Incredible. Some incidents are so atrocious as to be almost incredible, but there is good reason to believe the soldiers had been made drunk beforehand, a supposition which alone can explain some of the savagery.

Mutineers Are Sentenced. Libau, Russia, Aug. 26.—The court martial of 137 mutineers of the battleship Kniaz Potemkin has just completed its work. Eight of the prisoners were sentenced to be shot, but it was recommended that sentence be commuted to life imprisonment. Nineteen others were sentenced to various terms of imprisonment at hard labor.

Disturbances of an Anarchistic Character—Damage to Railroads Attempted. St. Petersburg, Aug. 26.—The police department has drawn up a report of the disturbances in the Baltic provinces which of late have assumed an anarchistic character.

Within four months, in towns in the provinces of Courland and Livia, there have been serious attempts on the lives of officials, four attacks on private persons, six attempts against the lives of police officers, and the attacks on Cossack patrols, and two cases in which bombs were thrown.

At Riga an attempt was made to set fire to the powder stored in a cartridge factory. The report says that "in the Lutheran church, demonstrations were begun and repeated every Sunday in May and June," and that the agitators supplied the peasants with arms, of which they obviously possessed an extensive supply.

In Mintau the rioters in one day destroyed the archives in nine districts, throwing the documents, seals and portraits of the emperor into the streets. Attempts to damage the railroad lines, the report says, have been numerous of late.

STRIKERS TELL OF BRIDGE TRUST

COERCIVE METHODS TO GET ERECTORS TO JOIN IT.

Frank Buchanan Claims that Its Attacks on Labor Organization Endanger Industrial Freedom—Some of the Methods of the Bridge Company that Have Been Employed in the East.

Cleveland, Aug. 26.—Frank Buchanan, president of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, has issued a statement giving the reasons for the strike against the American Bridge company. He said: "The American Bridge company is using coercive methods to get all the erectors to join in forming the National Association of Erectors of Structural Steel and Iron. It has succeeded in getting a large number of employers, for these erectors believe that if they opposed the wishes of the American Bridge company that they could not succeed in their business. Hence, their submission to the dictates of the American Bridge company."

This company has successfully attacked labor organizations of their mill workers, they have repeatedly discharged their workmen for no other cause than talking trade unionism; in fact, their conduct is calculated to endanger industrial freedom. "In the jurisdiction of local 15, at New Haven, Conn., where the present trouble started, the American Bridge company secured a contract from the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad company, for the erection of about 3,000 tons of steel, at a price higher than the Boston Bridge company had bid. We have been informed that the railroad company let this contract to the American Bridge company, believing it to employ union men, and that there would be no labor troubles. Then the American Bridge company subcontracted this contract to the Boston Bridge company, knowing that they were working in violation of the established rules of our association in that locality."

MAN-WOMAN, ELLEN GLENN IS BUSY

Paying Court to Pretty Girls Again and Victimitizing the Unwary.

New York Sun Special Service. Lapeer, Mich., Aug. 26.—Ellen Glenn, alias a woman who formerly was a waitress, real estate broker, paper hanger, forger, "good fellow," has appeared again. This time it is as the star performer in a land deal. Stephen A. Lockwood, a local merchant, was victimized for $2,500. The papers were found to be clever forgeries.

Glenn conducted the negotiations, masquerading in male attire as a real estate agent. She was arrested and the disclosure of her sex led to her identity.

Residents of this village were shocked, as she has appeared a model young man and was admitted to the best homes, paying court to various pretty girls. Ellen Glenn first flashed across the newspaper horizon in 1899, when she was arrested at Hillsboro, Ill., on a charge of forgery while wearing male attire. At that time she was engaged to marry a pretty girl, Miss Ella Duke of Butler, Montgomery county, Ill.

After a legal fight lasting for more than five years, she finally won on a technicality and was set free. The mystery which surrounds her real identity is as deep now as it ever was. She has deepened the mystery by telling several different tales. She has declared that she is not Ellis Glenn, the man who committed forgery, but a twin sister, having a remarkable resemblance to the real person, whom she declares she is shielding.

Many a romantic tale she has woven about her past, and while there are many things tending to connect her with the man who committed forgery, she has always been impossible. Cures Indigestion

MINNESOTANS ARE ON LAST STAGE OF ANNUAL OUTING—THE GOVERNOR INTERVIEWED. Special to The Journal. Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Aug. 26.—One hundred members of the Minnesota Press association are here today, guests of the city. They arrived on the steamer Huronic from Sarnia, Ont. The Chamber of Commerce is giving the visitors a trolley ride and they will visit all the big industries and points of interest. They leave for Minnesota this afternoon.

Governor Johnson of Minnesota, who is with the editors, said today in an interview that primary reform in Minnesota is a good thing for the people. It takes away, he said, the grip of the bosses and gives the people a chance to have a voice in the naming of their officials. He thinks Minnesota was the first state to pass a primary reform law. He said: "It has worked well, although we do not choose state officers that way. I do not believe the people would go back to the old way of nominating candidates. Primary reform does away with much trickery in politics in our state; it is a good thing."

RUSHES HEADLONG INTO A TRAIN

Sensational Suicide of a Great Northern Employee at a Montana Station.

Special to The Journal. Helena, Mont., Aug. 26.—David J. Barr, a carpenter, engaged on the new Great Northern coal chute at Wagner, committed suicide in a sensational manner by rushing head first into a landseker special train going west.

A few minutes previous to the train pulling out Barr headed his watch and letters to a fellow carpenter, saying, "I am going to die." The landseker's train had pulled out of Wagner station and was going at twenty-five miles an hour, and before the carpenter to whom Barr had spoken could comprehend the latter had rushed straight at the approaching train with a wild yell and had fallen upon the rail, being instantly killed, his head and both arms being cut off.

Barr was 25 and a former resident of Helena, Pa. He was unmarried. No motive is assigned for his sensational suicide.

TRYING TO SMOKE GERMS TO DEATH

New Orleans People Spend Day Fumigating as Fever Prevails.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 26.—Following the appeal of the marine hospital authorities many households today are engaged in fumigating. The announcement of yellow fever at Gulfport created no surprise here. There will be no general quarantine by New Orleans against either Gulfport or Mississippi City.

The discovery of additional cases at Lake Providence threatens to bottle that town completely and will handicap Governor Blaine's efforts to restore railway communication in that portion of the state. Dr. Marour and his band of nurses are expected to reach Lake Providence today. President Southerland is expected to return today and will determine whether the state board shall take full charge of the situation there.

One of the two cases that have appeared in St. Tammany parish has died and the other has recovered. Both were traceable directly to New Orleans. Cairo, Ill., Aug. 26.—The new quarantine regulations against the north went into effect here today. At 6 o'clock no one could enter Cairo unless provided with a permit.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 26.—George W. Graesser, left tackle of the Drake university football team, rushed thru a circus crowd here today and caught the bit of a runaway team.

He was dragged 300 feet, finally stopping the team. The heroic act excited the admiration of the spectators, who have already started a movement to get a Carnegie medal for the young man. The transfer team smashed three rigs, but no one was hurt. The team was scared at the circus calling.

Horace Birdsall, manager of the Savery hotel here and the Pilgrim hotel at Marshalltown, died today. He was 67 years of age. He was a member of the Grand Army of the Republic, and was critically injured. He may not live. He fell 250 feet.

MOSBY "TALKED"

Ex-Guerrilla Gets Himself in Trouble at Washington. Washington, Aug. 26.—Colonel John S. Mosby, the noted Confederate guerrilla chieftain, the head of "Mosby's Rangers," is the center of a tempest which has broken forth in the department of justice. He is charged, doubtless justly, with having given out to the press information concerning the latest charges against Senator Burton of Kansas, of which he was the official investigator, before he had even made his report to Acting Attorney General Robb.

Mosby's friends persuaded him that public policy required some dissemination of the information as a check to the rising tide of sentiment in Burton's favor among Kansas politicians. Colonel Mosby is employed by the department of special attention and in that capacity went to the Indian Territory to investigate the case. He has been somewhat under suspicion at headquarters for "talking too much."

found and escorted over the frontier—an incident that caused a great sensation at the time. It is pretty generally understood now that Sweden's commissioners will be able to promise Prince Carl, the king's second son, to Norway for a king. This is now generally recognized as the wisest plan for Swedish interests and it will doubtless help to bring about an early return of the wood being between the two countries. Sweden's leading men fear that to refuse would cause Norway to become a republic, and that the political politics might be very serious, from a conservative standpoint.

SON OF GOVERNOR IS INDICTED

Federal Grand Jury Returns More Bills in the Oregon Land Frauds.

Portland, Oregon, Aug. 26.—The federal grand jury investigating the Oregon land frauds, has returned true bills against Claude F. Thayer, the Tillamook capitalist, son of former Governor Thayer, and against several other operators indicted with him.

In September, 1899, approximately 100 persons made filings at the Oregon City land office, to enter timber lands in Tillamook county, in the famous Nehalem valley. It is alleged that Thayer and his associates secured a purchaser and the net profits were to be divided. The alleged fraud in the affidavits of contents which were subsequently filed led to the order for an investigation.

These cases involve more valuable timber land than in any other cases which have been tried thus far. Sheridan, Wyo., Gold Hunters Stake Out Claims in the Big Horn Country.

Special to The Journal. Sheridan, Wyo., Aug. 26.—George H. Cutler, Thomas J. Mitchell and Carl K. Kneisel, prominent business men, reported yesterday they had found the famous Lost Cabin mine on top of the Big Horn mountains, between the heads of Little and Big Goose creeks, thirty miles from Sheridan. The first two named men had been on a pleasure trip and ran across the lost cabin, containing newspapers twenty-five years old. They found a tunnel and a quantity of ore on the dump. Specimens of ore brought back are heavy from the dip and platinum tin ore.

Kneisel was let id g the secret after the party returned. Night trips are being made from Sheridan in the utmost secrecy. Claims have been staked all along the banks of the creeks. COMMANDER ESKKY TAKEN BY JAPS

SUFFERED YEARS WITH COMPLICATED PELVIC DISEASES.

Hopeless Invalid Women Restored to Health and Usefulness By Pe-ru-na.

General Debility, Nervousness, Backache, Kidney Troubles, Female Weakness, Are All Symptoms of Pelvic Catarrh.

Pe-ru-na Is an Unfailing Remedy For All of These Cases.

If the reader will take the pains to glance over this article, it will be noticed that three American women make frank, unequivocal statements concerning "Peruna" catarrh. They were chronic and hopeless victims of pelvic catarrh. Now, they are healthy, happy and useful women. The symptoms of catarrhal weakness, systemic catarrh and female catarrh are very numerous. No two cases are exactly alike. The symptoms most frequently met are general debility—kidney trouble—loss of flesh—bad complexion—tired and worn-out all the time—aches and pains—unable to stand long at a time or to walk any distance—general cramps—displacement of pelvic organs—ovarian troubles—throbbing—trembling—flushes of heat—nervous—headaches—chronic dyspepsia—constipation—insomnia—irritability—easily frightened—brown spots before the eyes—dizziness—roaring in the head, etc. Any one or more of these symptoms mean that the victim has chronic systemic catarrh which is undermining all the bodily functions and weakening every nerve center. Such women are liable to become bedfast, or are induced to submit to some surgical operation in complete desperation. Operations Unnecessary. A short course of Peruna is sufficient to convince any woman in such a condition that there is a remedy that is able to come to her relief.

Thousands of women have already discovered this, but there are tens of thousands of others who need to know it. If a woman who has these lines and feels that her case is described in whole or in part by the above symptoms should lose no time in giving Peruna a fair trial. Those requiring special advice should write to Dr. Hartman, President of The Peruna Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio, when they will receive a prompt reply to their letters, free of charge. Sick Thirteen Years—Well Woman Today—Thanks to Pe-ru-na. Mrs. L. Mahaffey, 195 Seventh street, Portland, Ore., Chairman St. Patrick's Circle, writes: "I suffered for eight years with prolapser uteri and a painful, inflamed condition, which at times compelled me to go to bed, as I was unable to stand on my feet. I tried different remedies, which brought only temporary relief until a friend told me how she had been cured of ovarian trouble by the use of Peruna and advised me to try it. I used it for two months with surprising results."

Three Lives Lost in Maranacook Hotel. Readsville, Me., Aug. 26.—Three persons lost their lives in a fire which destroyed the Maranacook hotel at Lake Maranacook. The guests and employees escaped in night attire by leaping from the windows. A search of the ruins revealed three charred bodies. The injured are Robert Botwell, Malden, Mass., a hotel clerk, burned about the head and hands; Mrs. George H. Haassam, Boston, leg broken, ankle sprained and back injured; W. J. Maxwell, Brooklyn, N. Y., and sprained J. H. Martin, Dorchester, Mass., internal injuries; 10-year-old son of Mr. Martin, ankle sprained. The fire was caused by a defective chimney. Clerk Botwell rushed thru the corridor and aroused all the guests. The hotel was built twenty-seven years ago and was owned by the Maine Central railroad.

Period of Political Regeneration is Here. Peoria, Ill., Aug. 26.—In an interview Governor La Follette said of Governor Dineen: "I believe that Governor Dineen is an able man. The governor said that he was of the opinion that a period of great political regeneration was now in progress.

MURDERER LEAVES SIGN IN BLOOD ON VICTIM. Lewistown, Mont., Aug. 26.—Samuel Studzinski, a fur buyer and pawnbroker, was found dead today in his place of business, having been beaten to death. While robbery is believed to have been the motive, there is an element of mystery in the tragedy. On the dead man's breast the murderer had placed a small card upon which was written in blood "K. C. Number 17." A similar card was found on the front of a small black stove in the same room. Studzinski was 65.

The authorities say they will have the names of fifty women who were married by Witzhof.

BUTCHER'S IDEA OF ELOPEMENT WAS BAD. Chicago, Aug. 26.—Instead of stealing to the side of his beloved over the trellis and persuading her with the twanging guitar to elope down a rope ladder, William Henrich, a butcher, went armed with a meat carver and a revolver. He was arrested for threatening the life of Mrs. Kohler, who appealed to the police to save her from being made into cutlets. "I spent $200 on that woman, and when I asked her to elope, she laughed," he said with much bitterness.
