"INTELLIGENT WHALE" A FORMER SUBMARINE

New York Sun Special Service.
New York, Aug. 28.—Living in a junk heap at the Brooklyn navy yard, discarded as useless by the government and practically forgotten, is the Intelligent Whale, the submarine boat of bygone days. The Intelligent Whale suggested the brook on the Flunge, so that she could be grappled for in case of emergency.

The Intelligent Whale is a cigar-shaped iron structure, 24 feet long and about 6 feet wide. There is only room for four men. The boat was propelled by hand, two of the crew working the cranks, one at the pumps and the other in the conning tower, which would not accommodate a man of the president's size.

The man in the conning tower worked the steering gear, which was connected by ropes on sheaves with the rudder. Two large tanks in each end of the hull were used for water ballast, being emptied or filled as the navigators required the vessel to go up or down. The mushroom anchors on each end of the boat were used to hold her down, and the mud of the East river is believed to have kept the boat under when the navigators wanted to come up. Three times the boat had to be hoisted by a derrick.

ACTORS IN A CRASH.
Berlin, Aug. 28.—The collapse of the timber work of a terrace fifteen feet above the stage during a rehearsal at the Metropole theater this afternoon, while thirty performers were on the terrace and the stage was crowded, caused the injury of twenty persons. Max Stelden, the most popular comic singer in Berlin, may die.

MINNETONKA

Hotel del Otero will remain open thru the greater part of September, as there are numerous guests booked from different southern parts as well as parties who are on their way home from the Portland exposition. The date of closing has not been set as yet, but it will probably not be before the middle of next month. Mr. Hopkins had the full-house sign out for over Saturday and Sunday in spite of the threatening weather. Saturday afternoon many guests came out from the city just for the day yesterday, and the pretty resort was a lively place.

George Booth and F. H. Elijah of New York are among the guests at Hotel del Otero who had rather a novel experience in making a trip up the Mississippi in their open launch. They traveled over 750 miles, and while on the water were handicapped to a great extent by the main fog and bad weather. A small cooking outfit was kept on board, and when out of sight of a friendly inn, the men prepared their own meals. One evening during a heavy rainstorm the boat was heavily covered with a canvas and the men had to work under it. Mr. Booth was taken seriously ill from the effects of the heat.

Bowling contestants at the Spring Park pavilion, from twenty to thirty-five in number, are working hard for the trophy cup. The score changes continually and since Saturday afternoon, Mrs. C. D. Harrington is leading with a score of 208, Miss Madonald of Columbus, Ohio, is second with a score of 208. The results of the contest will be announced Sept. 15, when the cup will be awarded.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rosenbaum of Chicago, who left last week for a trip to Duluth, returned Saturday evening and will remain at the Del Otero the greater part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Witte, F. A. Witte, O. W. Witte, Mrs. J. Achilles and Miss F. Rossfeld all of St. Louis, who were at the Hotel del Otero some time ago, returned for a short visit Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Trask, Harold Trask of Minneapolis, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Horton, H. H. Horton, Jr., of St. Paul, were in a party at the hotel over Saturday.

Mrs. S. V. Harris, the well-known singer, who has been at the hotel on a month's visit, will leave this week for St. James, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dunham of Chicago are at the hotel as their guest over Sunday was D. E. Gonsulos of Minneapolis.

J. W. Stern, P. W. Stern, J. C. Stevens, R. C. Bond and E. H. Ransom of St. Paul, were at the del Otero over Friday.

Mrs. W. M. Walker entertained at a delightful party yesterday at Rose Cottage, Tonka Bay, for Mr. Walker, celebrating the recovery of Mr. Walker from a serious illness one year ago. The guests were a group of fourteen men, including Mr. Walker and they came out of the morning train, and were met at the station by a party of friends. The house was beautifully decorated with asters and ferns, and the dinner table had as its ornament a large basket filled with shaggy asters in pink, white and lavender. The name cards were ornamented with a picture of Mr. Walker in his launch and a long-stemmed aster thrust thru each card, were the favors. At the shore of the Walker's summer home is a spacious cyclone cellar and this had been transformed into a smoking room and lounge where the men found relief from the heat. In the afternoon there was a boating party across the lake and bathing, and group pictures were taken as souvenirs of a happy day.

Walker was assisted thru the day by the ladies who were visiting at her cottage.

The invited guests were Judge Dickson, Dr. G. G. Eitel, Henry Hahn, Harry McPherson, W. A. Murray, Fletcher Fankhauser, Lucius Frink, Dr. A. Irwin, Charles Goetz, David Knowlton, R. H. Hunt, R. D. Cuy, R. Myers, John A. Schlener, Dr. J. Foote, Sam McPherson, Charles Owenshire.

Mrs. Wilbur Fiske, Mrs. W. D. Humiston and Miss Leopold of Meadville Park will entertain at a neighborhood party Friday, at the summer home of Mrs. Fiske.

L. J. Conkey of Wahnapitae, Ont., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Conkey, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Day at their summer home in Excelsior. Yesterday the families enjoyed a picnic at one of the charming spots in the upper lake. Mrs. S. A. Stockwell and family came out from the city to join them for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gregory gave a porch and boating party Saturday evening for their daughter, Miss Lucile C. Gregory, to celebrate her birthday anniversary. Twenty guests had been invited and the supper was served on the porch from tables daintily decked with water and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory were taken on a pleasant launch tour of the lake. The guests were a group of friends from Fairview shore and from the city. Mrs. Hannagan of Minneapolis assisted.

Among the late arrivals at Maple Hill were H. M. L. Cleary, Mrs. J. and Mrs. James C. Heron, St. Paul; Henry Peter, L. Snyder, E. C. Perkins, C. G. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grover, Mrs. Lillian B. King, Mrs. Ida Cutler, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Preston, W. L. Dickey, Miss Elizabeth Dickey, Miss Sofie Aamodt, Alfred L. Adams, L. L. Hanger, Minneapolis; Mrs. J. Herne, Miss Josie Herne, James Herne, Canonsota, N. Y.; Mrs. Georgia Latschaw, A. F. Evans, Kansas City; E. P. Greer, Mrs. Mary Fingus, St. Paul; H. G. Ford and son, Omaha; A. R. McFarland, Wilmot, N. D.; William Cutler, Dubuque, Iowa; Gordon Freeman, Pine Bluffs, Iowa; Robert Domes, Meron, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, Eva, Ada and Hazel Roberts, Dorothy Mingave, St. Paul; S. D. D. Myers, Natalie Myers, Dubuque, Iowa; James O. Meyers, St. Paul.

Clifford Fay entertained a party of twelve young friends from the city last week at his home at Meadville Park. A porch luncheon was served and a cruise of the lake was made on the Fay.

Yesterday was an ideal day for distance swimming and the sailors who found that whistling for a breeze did not do any good, donned their bathing suits and dipped into the lake. Hugh London, James London, Stuart Lane and John Bryant covered the distance from the Excelsior bathing beach to Gale's island and return, about one mile and a half, in short time without any signs of exertion or fatigue, as all are excellent swimmers and athletes. Ben Sheldon and Mr. Chatterton of Minneapolis swam over to Gale's island from the Excelsior bathing beach, which is considerable of a distance even for a good swimmer. The feats were watched by a throng of interested people from the shore and from the bathing beach.

Over-Sunday guests at Hotel del Otero were, H. M. L. Cleary, Mrs. J. C. Wellman, New York; Wilson McGill, Podomuk, Ohio; Miss Louise Fitz Gibbons, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. William G. Holt, Kansas City; James F. Tower, Kauana, Wis.; Mr. Schlemmer and son, Chicago; Miss Jessie B.

SPECIAL

Fur Jacket and Fur Lined Garment Sale

A master stroke of advance buying places our store in a position to save all early buyers from 25 per cent to 50 per cent on purchases before Sept. 10th. If expecting to buy a fur jacket or fur lined coat this fall, this is a money-saving chance it would be foolish to overlook. (All garments stored free of charge until wanted.)

Besides numerous high grade furs, the lot includes 300 handsome selected Near Seal Jackets priced from $25.00 to $60.00, a saving of fully one-third; also 200 beautiful Fur lined coats, priced from $25.00 up, in Broadcloth, Kersey, heavy storm cheviot, etc.; all with handsome full rolling collars of Mink, Persian Lamb, Plain and Sable Squirrel, Beaver, Lynx, etc. In many instances the saving will be one-half. These garments were all made to our special order during the early spring and summer and we not only saved a pretty penny by having them made at this time (as prices have since advanced steadily) but by accepting the garments and paying for them nearly two months before they were due, we received a liberal discount which we are pleased to pass along at this time.

With new fall suits and coats in, full 10 days earlier and others constantly arriving, we give you a first glimpse of the coming Autumn display.

PIANOS AT ONE HALF THEIR VALUE

That's what you get at Foster & Waldo's great closing out sale of 200-Pianos-200

You see, it's like this—our fall stock will soon be arriving and we find that we have about 200 pianos more than we should have at this time of the year. There are many new pianos of America's leading makes that are perfectly new, only a little shopworn; other new pianos, styles that have been dropped from the catalogue; also a number of beautiful pianos, the agency of which has been given up; 40 slightly used pianos of the leading makes that cannot be told from new. Now we propose to sell every one of these pianos immediately. To do this we must do something sensational in the way of making low prices. The low prices will fairly take away your breath and you will be astonished at the small sum of money that will make you the possessor of that long wished-for piano.

Terms Are Also Down

Only $3, $4, $5, $6 or $7 a Month.

We mention a few bargains to give you an idea of this great piano-saving opportunity.

- $500—Sohmer piano—used upright grand, full size, fine tone, for..... $190
