HOW TO JUDGE A LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

(This is one of a series of explanatory statements by the Minneapolis representatives of the STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF WORCESTER, MASS. For full explanation send for pamphlet mentioned below.)
STATEMENT No. 5—Annual Distribution of Surplus.
Every insurer should select a company which distributes the surplus annually and publishes the amount as a definite liability until paid.
The effect of the contrary or deferred distribution system cannot be fully explained in the space permitted here, and those who wish to understand it should send for the pamphlet mentioned below; but the sum of the matter is that the annual distribution system publishes the condition and earning capacity of a company each year; while the tentative or deferred distribution system conceals the condition of the company and frees it from the healthful influence of publicity and competition. A further and weighty reason for treating surplus earned as a definite liability is that otherwise there is no proper security that the amount earned will be kept intact until paid.
The STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF WORCESTER, MASS., is 61 years old and has always adhered to the principles advocated in this series of publications. Full information will be given by any of the Company's agents, and a pamphlet fully explaining the principles of insurance management and organization will be mailed upon receipt of a stamped addressed envelope. Intelligence is a duty.
C. W. VAN TUYL, General Agent, 15-21 Loan & Trust Building.
