

CITY NEWS

THE WEATHER

Minnesota - Partly cloudy, with showers and thunderstorms tonight and possibly in east portion Friday; warmer in east portion Friday; brisk southerly, shifting to westerly, winds. Up- per Michigan and Wisconsin - Showers and thunderstorms tonight and Friday; warmer tonight; brisk southerly winds. Iowa - Partly cloudy, with showers and thunderstorms tonight and in east portion Friday; warmer in east and cooler in northwest portions tonight; cooler Friday afternoon; brisk southerly to westerly winds. North Dakota - Ten- erally fair tonight and Friday, except possibly showers in east portion tonight; cooler in east and south portions tonight; westerly winds. South Dakota - Gen- erally fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight and in east portion Friday; fresh westerly winds. Montana - Fair tonight and Friday; cooler tonight; fresh westerly winds. For the Upper Lakes - Brisk southeast, shifting to southerly winds tonight and probably to westerly Friday night; showers and squalls. Weather conditions and general fore- cast: The western storm is moving eastward and is now centered over the Dakotas. During the past twenty-four hours it has been causing showers thru- out the northwest. The temperature has risen considerably, and there has been a further fall in temperature in the lake region and northeastern states. The indications are that the western storm will continue over the western east- ern storm, accompanied by showers and thunderstorms in the Missouri and up- per Mississippi valleys and western lake region. The temperature will rise in this section, but will fall somewhat in the northwest.

Weather Conditions.

Clear weather is general this morn- ing, except in the upper lake region, Iowa, Minnesota, eastern North Da- kota and much of the Canadian north- west. Rain has fallen during the past twenty-four hours in Minnesota, North Dakota, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and parts of Nebraska and Colorado. It is considerably cooler in the valley and New England, and warmer along Lake Michigan and thence westward to the Rocky mountains. There is a low- pressure area central over Saskatchewan. -T. S. Outram, Section Director.

Weather Now and Then.

Today, maximum, 63; minimum, 62 degrees; a year ago, maximum, 60; minimum, 43 degrees.

AROUND THE TOWN

CARRIER CANDIDATES

Civil Service Examination for Postal Positions Coming Soon.

A civil service examination will be held for would-be letter carriers and postal clerks at the postoffice, Nov. 15 and 16. The examinations will cover spelling, arithmetic, letter-writing, pen- manship, copyright, United States geography, and reading addresses.

Applicants must be citizens of the United States, between the ages of 18 and 45 years, and physically fit for the work. Applications for examination must be filed at the district office, St. Paul, before 4:30 p.m., Oct. 16.

Successful candidates will be appointed to the lowest grade of the service as fast as vacancies occur, and will be eligible for promotion at the end of one year. The minimum pay for carriers is $600 and for clerks $400.

ATTORNEY INQUIRING

Investigating Ferris Wheel Accident on Behalf of Victims.

F. R. Farr, an attorney of Eau Claire, Wis., is in St. Paul making a thoro investigation into the accident to the Ferris wheel on the state fair grounds, in which Mrs. Ida Sebenthal lost her life, and her husband, Frank Sebenthal, was injured. An effort probably will be made either to establish criminal negligence and secure the punishment of the guilty ones, or to collect damages from C. G. Gill, the owner of the machine.

ASKED TO REMAIN

Hamline Methodist Church Retains Rev. Mr. Avison.

Rev. R. N. Avison, pastor of Hamline M. E. church, has been invited by the official board of the church to return for his sixth year. SHOT HIMSELF TO END TROUBLE

MAN'S BODY FOUND THIS MORN- ING IN ROOM.

Ill and Out of Money, Thomas Zembo Commits Suicide in the Night-Other Occupants of House Failed to Hear the Shot-Had Suffered from Tuberculosis.

Driven to the verge of insanity by long suffering from tuberculosis, Thom- as Zembo shot himself thru the heart some time last night in his room at 2110 Second street N. Altho there were seven or eight per- sons in the house all night, all declare they did not hear the shot fired. Zem- bo's dead body was found on the floor when his friends went to call him this morning, and a few feet from him lay a revolver. One chamber was empty. The man had evidently risen from his bed in the night and taken his life, as the bed had been used and he was dressed in his night clothes. Coroner Kistler, after deciding that death was due to suicide, ordered the body taken to the county morgue. Zembo and all other lodgers at the place were Poles, and, after their usual manner, refused to talk about the mat- ter and claimed to know nothing of the English language. There was no evidence, however, of any foul play. The suicide was 34 years old and unmarried. He was a common laborer until a few months ago, when he was forced to quit work and live on the charity of his friends.

PRaise FOR MINNEAPOLIS

EASTERN MAGAZINE DEVOTES PART OF SEPTEMBER NUMBER TO THE FLOUR CITY.

Ruby Danenbaum's article on Min- neapolis, written with the co-operation of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club, appears in the Sep- tember number of the New England magazine. Negotiations are on for its reproduction along for distribution, as was done with a previous article by Wallace G. Nye in another magazine. Photographs furnished by the Com- mercial club are reproduced in half- tone and appear thru the story of the metropolis of the northwest. They have been wisely selected and give in pic- torial form a concise presentation of both business and residence districts. Prominent buildings, the principal parks and portraits of founders and prominent business men of Minneapolis are pictured. The pictures include Colonel John H. Stevens, Charlotte Oatason Van Cleave, Charles A. Pills- bury, W. D. Washburn, F. R. Salis- bury and C. F. Nelson of the Commer- cial club, Bvros Northrop and J. T. Wynman of the university, P. B. Walker, C. M. Loring, John S. Pillsbury, C. A. Smith and Mayor D. P. Jones.

Miss Danenbaum's article is concise and well written. The author runs rapidly from early beginnings to the de- scription of the modern city with its strong commercial supremacy and its equipment of beautiful parks, drive- ways, lakes and buildings.

SELECTED AN ARCHITECT

ERNEST KENNEDY TO HAVE CHARGE OF BUILDING OF FLO- RENCE SHEVLIN HALL.

Ernest Kennedy was named as archi- tect for the Florence Shevlin hall, at a meeting of the executive committee of the board of regents. In drawing his plans he will use the sketches of the architect, J. J. Flather, whose preli- minary plans have been approved by the regents. The committee also approved the plans for a new 9,000 plant build- ing to be erected for the department of botany. The building is to be on the east corner of the triangular plot of ground on University avenue, across the railroad tracks from the university.

NORMINGTON LEAVES

Ill Health Forces Retirement of Well-Known Choirmaster.

Recurrence of ill health has induced George H. Normington to resign as or- ganist and chorister at St. Mark's pro- cathedral. Six months ago sudden ill- ness forced Mr. Normington to seek a six-months' leave. On his return, a short time ago he was taken ill again. With great reluctance the resignation was accepted at a special meeting of the wardens and vestrymen and Mr. Normington will return to his father's home in Saskatchewan. Gordon Gra- ham, a pupil of Sir John Stainer, now at St. Paul's, Winona, will succeed Mr. Normington. The retiring organ- ist was presented with a testimonial and well-filled purse.

CASE TRANSFERRED

Iowa Suit Is Removed from State to Federal Court.

Special to The Journal. Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 14.-The suit brought by dissatisfied stockholders against the Northwestern National Life Insurance company of Minneapolis, has been transferred to the federal court by order of Judge McHenry of the district court. The case will be heard by Judge McPherson of the federal cir- cuit court, who will set a date for the hearing.

HINDU'S TURBAN CAUSES TROUBLE

HIRA SINGH PERSISTS IN WEAR- ING IT IN SCHOOLROOM.

Authorities of East High May Call Upon Board of Education to Settle Question of Whether Head Covering Should Be Regarded as a Hat-Student Wears It as Mark of Caste.

As a result of the enrollment of Hira Singh, a high caste Hindu who has come to Minneapolis in search of an education, East High school authorities face a question of discipline unique in high school history. Is the turban worn by Mr. Singh a hat, and should he be permitted to wear it inside the high school building? This is the question of the hour at the East High, and it is possible that the board of education may be called upon to settle the status of the Hindu's head cov- ering.

When Hira Singh came to Minne- apolis two weeks ago he was garbed in flannel trousers, tan shoes and coat of the latest cut. He is a European, and there was nothing about him to attract attention except his urban.

When Hira Singh found that he could not register in the school of mines at the university without fur- ther preparation, he decided to enter the high school. He appeared on the first day of school, wearing his tur- ban, and when he entered the building and was assigned his desk in one of the rooms, he did not remove it. With him the turban is a mark of his rank, to be worn at all times. When he rose to recite he still wore his tur- ban, and when asked to remove it by a teacher, he politely but firmly re- fused. When the dismissal bell rang, Hira still wore his turban, and he is still wearing it, in school and out.

Why the question is being discussed by the school authorities, Singh is fast becoming one of the most popular stu- dents in the high school. He wears a beard and is 30 years old, but he is making friends with his classmates, and in the matter of the wearing of the turban, undoubtedly has the sup- port of the students. The coaches of the East Side high school team have approached Singh in connection with football, and it is possible that he may become a candidate for the team.

TERRA COTTA GAVE WAY

PEDESTRIANS ON HENNEPIN AVENUE SCARED BUT NOT HURT BY ACCIDENT AT LYCEUM THEA- TERE.

A length of terra cotta trimming in the facade of the Lyceum theater fell to the sidewalk this morning. Beyond tearing a big hole thru a canvas awn- ing, no damage was done, but the possi- bility of a serious accident to the pedestrians who happened to be in the vicinity, the thankful over their escape, were much disturbed.

Orders were sent to the building inspector's office, and in response Mr. Houghton sent Andrew Lundquist to the scene. The theater management had already taken steps to repair the damage. Orders were given by the building inspector that no performance would be permitted until the terra cotta decorations had been made safe and a policeman was posted to warn the people from the vicinity.

CATTLE ARE REDUCED

STATE BOARD LOWERS THE BASIS FOR ASSESSMENT OF COWS, OXEN AND OTHER CATTLE.

The state board of equalization spent today in going over the schedules of the various classifications of live stock, and adjusting the assessments in the respective counties.

One-year-old cattle came in for a big increase in some counties. In Bel Lake was increased the most, 125 per cent, Cook county 100 per cent and Becker and Benton each 50 per cent. The other increases were considerably smaller.

The board also decided to make a decrease in the assessed value per ani- mal for cows, oxen and all other cat- tle. In equalizing the return for cows, the average value per animal will be reduced from $14 to $12; oxen, from $20 to $18; and all other cattle from $15 to $13.

A strong plea was made by a dele- gation interested in sheep raising to have the assessed value of sheep de- creased from $12 to $10, but the board claiming that otherwise the industry would be crowded out of the state by heavy taxation. The board decided to let the assessment stand at $1.50 a head.

GOVERNOR CONFIRMS IT

SAYS CHANGE ON SUPREME BENCH WILL COME OCT. 1-SUC- CESSION TO ELLIOT GIVES CON- CERN.

Judge C. B. Elliott will be appointed Oct. 1 by Governor John A. Johnson to succeed Justice Lovely on the state su- preme bench. Justice Lovely's resig- nation taking effect Sept. 30. Governor Johnson authorized this announcement today.

"I had a talk with Judge Elliott," said Governor Johnson, "and he under- stands that he is to be appointed for the last three months of this year, in order that he may take up the work of the October term, which will extend into the new year."

A number called at the governor's office today interested in the matter of succession to Judge Elliott. They in- cluded former Lieutenant Governor G. S. Ives, Judge Robert Jamieson, Judge Larson, Representative Carl Wal- lace and others.

This morning Frank A. Dav, the gov- ernor's private secretary, was in Min- neapolis, admittedly on behalf of the governor, to look into the district judgeship situation in Hennepin, and to report to the chief executive this af- ternoon.

RUN NEXT WEEK

Excelsior Trolley Line Will Be Opened Soon.

Cars may be running next week on the Excelsior line. The officials took a trip over the new extension this week and found work nearly done except on the Hopkins bridge, which spans the railway tracks. An hourly schedule will be put on for the present and a summer schedule next season. Cars will be run to Fifth and Hennepin and transfers will be given at that point. It is not likely that the company will charge more fare than the railroad.

NURSES' TRIP POSTPONED

OUTING AT MINNETONKA PLANNED BY AUTOMOBILE CLUB AND THE JOURNAL DELAYED BY RAIN.

Because the roads have been ren- dered unfit for travel by the rain which has already fallen, and in view of the fact that more rain is promised for to- morrow, the outing planned for the nurses and attendants of the various children's homes by the Minneapolis Automobile club and The Journal has been postponed.

Unless further complications arise the plans will be carried out Thursday, Sept. 21. The plan is to divide the auto into two squads. The faster ma- chines will go to the lake by the way of Superior boulevard and will follow the lake shore to the Narrows. The slower party, which will include the lighter machines and any late comers, will take the more direct route thru Minnetonka Mills.

The parties will meet at the Hotel St. Louis landing, and in launches to the Minnetonka Yacht club, where they will be the guests of The Jour- nal at luncheon.

LAKE AND SUBURBAN SALOONS COME NEXT

Pleased with their success in con- vincting the saloonkeepers of Sunday selling in the city, the reformers are now to start a crusade against saloons. There are several just outside of Minneapolis and at Minnetonka that reap rich harvests every Sun- day.

They furnish liquor for all the pic- nics, and if closed on Sunday they would fail. The reformers, however, say that they will conduct the crusade.

THREE EMPLOYERS OF CHILD LABOR FINED

P. Horwitz, Edward Kilroy and James McNamee, arraigned in police court yesterday, were given fines for violating the state labor law by em- ploying boys under 16 years of age. Horwitz and Kilroy paid $25 each and McNamee $20.

Unsgaard entered a plea of not guilty and will fight the charge.

J. R. DREXEL HERE

Capitalist with Large Interests in City Pays a Visit.

J. R. Drexel of New York, one of the best known financiers in the nation, of the famous firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co., now J. P. Morgan & Co., arrived in Minneapolis this morning from the east and is registered at the West hotel. He is accompanied by his son, William Drexel, chief clerk of the Drexel estate, and Mrs. Dercum.

In conversation this morning with Senator J. P. Calhoun, who represents the Drexel estate in Minneapolis, Mr. Drexel expressed himself as pleased and surprised at the evidences of growth, which are apparent to him in Minne- sota. He said his last visit here two years ago there has been remarkable progress in the way of improvements, and Mr. Drexel is much impressed with the healthy spirit of business enterprise evident on every side.

Mr. Drexel leaves tomorrow night for Omaha, where the estate owns large properties. From Omaha he will con- tinue his journey westward, while Mr. and Mrs. Dercum will return to Phila- delphia.

WOMAN'S NAME LEARNED

Unfortunate Who Died at Workhouse Was Minnie Higgins.

Coroner Kistler was informed today that the name of the young woman who died at the workhouse yesterday was Minnie Higgins, and not Nellie Wilson, as she had stated. The woman was employed in the laundry, which is now with her relatives on a farm in North Dakota. She and her husband separated two years ago.

Investigation today shows that when she was arrested she received the best of attention and that she did not com- plain of feeling ill until a few minutes before her death. She told the matron at Central station that she had a chronic drunkard and drank pure alcohol every day. When she complained of illness, a physician was at once summoned and she died before he could get to Camden place.

DULUTH MEN HOSTS

Real Estate Men Make Plans for Trip to Zenith City.

For a second time the Minneapolis real estate board of St. Paul real estate exchange have chosen the Great Northern as the official route to Duluth. The party, limited to fifty, will leave on the night train Friday, reaching Duluth in early breakfast. The ex- cursionists will return Sunday after- noon on the Gopher State limited and on the night train.

The trip to the iron ranges will be- gin at 7:30 a.m. Friday. The real es- tate men and their hosts will be car- ried on the Duluth, Missabe & North- ern and back on the Duluth & Iron range. Dinner will be served in the evening, followed by a smoker. At 1:30 p.m. Sunday, the trip to the works of the Great Northern Power company, near Thomas, will begin. This will be followed by an inspection of the blast furnace of the Zenith Furnace com- pany.

WORK FOR INMATES

Board Will Meet to Discuss the Work- house Problem.

The board of corrections and chari- ties will meet at the workhouse next Tuesday morning to inspect the insti- tution and to discuss the problem of keeping the prisoners employed after the fall work ceases. Superintendent O'Donnell is not much impressed with his predecessor's plan for a brickmak- ing plant, but is willing to undertake the task, if, in the judgment of the commissioners, the plan is deemed fea- sible and desirable.

ECKES APPEARS

Osseo Man Brings Charge Against School Principal.

Nicholas Eckes, the Osseo saloon- keeper, who killed Fred Roma, but was acquitted of murder, is waiting his turn to appear before the grand jury in an attempt to secure an indictment against W. Marshall, principal of the Osseo school. Eckes claims that the new prin- cipal was called away suddenly last week and before he went cashed a worthless check. The schoolmaster has not returned.

DEVINE UNMOVED BY ARRAIGNMENT

SLAYER OF WILLIAM WALLACE ENTERS PLEA OF NOT GUILTY.

Makes Oath That He Is Without Funds and Court Will Appoint an Attorney to Defend Him-Grand Jury's Grist of Indictments Calls Forth Many Pleas of "Not Guilty."

John Devine slouched up to the bar of justice in Judge F. C. Brooks' court- room today, and without the slightest show of feeling listened to the reading of an indictment charging him with the murder of William Wallace, at Greenwood, Aug. 25. He pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for Sept. 26. He swore that he had no money and Judge Brooks will appoint a law- yer to advise him. Devine was rough- ly clad and is to all appearances a day laborer.

Devine has confessed to the killing of Wallace. He says he was drunk when he stabbed Wallace and did not know what he had done until long after his victim's death. It is probable that Devine will plead guilty to manslaughter and County Attorney Al J. Smith has intimated that the state will be satisfied with such a plea.

Frank Kalmer and William Doole, two of the burglars whose kit of tools and dynamite struck fear into the hearts of the local detective at the time of the arrest, were arraigned on three indictments charging grand larceny in the first and burglary in the third de- gree. They pleaded not guilty. Their trials were set for Sept. 18 and bail for each defendant was fixed at $2,500.

Clarence Warmelin, the third member of the gang, was indicted, but was not arraigned today. He has turned state's evidence and will probably get off easier than his pals. Other arraign- ments on the big batch of indictments returned by the grand jury last night were:

James J. Lane, burglary of the Paeg- led Jewelry Manufacturing company's store on Third street, pleaded guilty and remanded for sentence. All of the other defendants pleaded not guilty, as follows:

Adria Hilary, burglary third degree, bail $1,500, trial Sept. 19.

John Higgins, grand larceny second degree, no bail, trial Sept. 20.

John Biss, criminal assault, bail $1,000, trial Sept. 22.

Robert O'Day and Arthur Kenyon, robbery first degree, Kenyon is said to be weak-minded and arraignment was postponed pending an examination.

Maggie Brown and William Doane, adultery, trial Sept. 22, no bail.

Ollie Okstad, grand larceny second de- gree, trial Sept. 19.

Lemuel Cannon, colored, criminal as- sault, no bail.

George Johnston and Frank Lindberg, robbery first degree, no bail, trial Sept. 20.

William Muranec and Abe Kurland, grand larceny second degree and bur- glary first degree, no bail.

John Biss, criminal assault, trial Sept. 20.

The grand jury is still working on jail cases and will probably not reach the investigations waiting for them be- fore the first of next week.

PROHIB LEADER HERE

Chairman of National Committee Con- fers with Local Workers.

L. O. Jones of Chicago, national chairman of the prohibition party, was the guest of the local prohibition work- ers for a few hours yesterday. The visit was unexpected and there was no formal reception, but about fourteen of the party leaders met Mr. Jones at lunch at the Russell Coffee House.

Next national campaign. He is espe- cially interested in the present in the work of Dr. Eaton, an Illinois Methodist minister, who is at the head of a move- ment for uniting the ministers of all faiths in the interests of prohibition.
