

GOPHERS OUT ON NORTHROP FIELD First Practice of the Year Open to View of Student Body.

By O'Loughlin. Freshmen who hold tickets for the campus had their first opportunity to see them this afternoon. Dr. Williams has the football squad out in the open and was putting them through their first open practice of the season.

The squad which will play the first game of the year comes Saturday with the high school team, and it will take all of the time of the coaching staff to get the boys into shape to make a showing against the younger players.

Max Ricker and Case have not announced a final decision to play as yet, but there is hope that they will play in the opening game of the gophers in the work to come. Hanson may also return, but there is some uncertainty about his playing.

The team was not worked hard this afternoon, but was put through signal practice, running down the field under guard and other work. The men all look to be in fair condition, also the summer's work has left some of them much lighter in weight than they were at the close of the playing season last year.

In addition to the squads are expected daily for a week or two. The university carries a large registration, and physically the students are the best of the state. The football forces are in a condition of mind which cannot be described as enthusiastic. Most of the boys are doing something is noticed. This spirit will doubtless lead to a more successful season than the material available can ever before.

A glance at the material at hand shows that Minnesota has the nucleus for a fairly strong team at present. The coaching staff would wonder in team prospects. The coaching staff is the equal, if not the superior, of other western teams two weeks or longer the football situation will be up in the air, to a slight extent. If a sufficient number of eligible men turn out, a successful season can be reasonably expected.

At North St. Paul there has been a steady increase in the number of candidates. Friday Coach Burgen had four full teams out in armor. The team showed up well in the kicking and punting, but the rest of the team was not so good.

KOEHLER'S SQUAD LOOKS PROMISING Lawrence Coach Has Much Football Material at His Command.

Special to The Journal. Appleton, Wis., Sept. 18.—With the first game less than a week off, much interest is being manifested in football at Lawrence university. Fifty candidates have responded to Coach "Doc" Koehler's call for men, and Lawrence field has been lined with plucky characters.

The present squad is by far the largest in the history of the Methodist institution, and the large list of players is largely due to Koehler making a ruling that there will be no gymnasium classes at present, but the male students were given their choice of joining the football squad or the cross-country club. Fifty responded to the gridiron call and will insure a second eleven always being on hand.

The team will be heavier this year than for some time past. Lightness the past two years has been the greatest complaint of the eleven. The team which was selected Friday averages 170 pounds, while the line will average six feet in height. It is expected that the position at quarter will be well taken care of, as Nelson, Aller and Hinderman all bid fair as making good. Several heavy men are now trying for guards, one of which was weak last year. Stephenson's return today assured the success of the line. Koehler today assured the success of the line. Koehler today assured the success of the line.

The most promising of the different men are: Captain Walker, tackle, weight 185 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches; Winkler, guard, 180 pounds, 5 feet 11 inches; Ballantyne, guard, lightest man in the line, 164 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches; Shergar, center, 160 pounds, 5 feet 7 inches; Dinsdale, guard, 6 feet 1 inch, 180 pounds; Hoadley, guard, 200 pounds, 6 feet 4 inches; Murphy, 170 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches; Probst, center, 180 pounds; Aller, 160 pounds, 5 feet 5 inches; quarter or half; Bever, half, 165 pounds, 5 feet 10 inches; Winkler, half, 150 pounds; back field, Church, 165 pounds, 5 feet 11 inches; Volk, 180 pounds, 6 feet 1 inch; Klaus, half, 160 pounds; back field, Winkler, half, 150 pounds; back field, 11 inches; Radtke, Wright, Trevor and Patterson, all high guards, regarded as prospective substitutes; halfbacks: Nelson, 150 pounds; Hinderman, 152 pounds, 5 feet 8 inches; Mason, quarter, 150 pounds.

GORRIGAN SAYS HE WAS NOT VANQUISHED

New York Sun Special Service. Louisville, Ky., Sept. 18.—Edward Corrigan takes kindly the story that a Louisville street conductor kicked him. "Just tell me," he said, "what you mean except my father ever kicked me. That the gutter punched me a few times, his blows were now trying to make a hole in my back. That brute on my lip is a fever blister. Nothing more. Never got mad until that fellow said he would take the bump out of my back. That remark was an insult, and I went for him and some fellows started us. I followed him to the station and got on my person, and I want my friends all over the country to know that no scrub can do that. No, I'm not on Edward Corrigan."

He Cannot See Wherein Horse Racing Is a Violation of Illinois Code. New York Sun Special Service. Carlyle, Ill., Sept. 18.—The Breeze Driving club held its regular meeting here Sunday afternoon without interference, in spite of the fact that Governor Dwyer had given Sheriff William Ragan verbal instructions by long-distance telephone that no violations of the law occur.

After conversing with Governor Dwyer over the telephone Sunday afternoon, Sheriff Ragan drove to Breeze, where he found horse-racing in progress, according to advertisement, and he said he would not interfere with the racing. The sheriff claimed last night that he saw no violations of the law, such as betting, book-making, etc. Prosecutor Henry Ford, he said, holds that horse-racing on Sunday is not against the law where there is no gambling. Consequently he made no effort to stop the races. The sheriff says he had already received a letter from the governor instructing him to enforce the law at Breeze, but he had concluded to remain away until he received orders by telephone from the governor. He says there were no violations of the law at the track.

William Kienholz, a former halfback on the University of Minnesota team, has been selected as head coach at the University of Colorado, and Minnesota will watch the progress of Kienholz's progress with interest. In the 1900 game with Wisconsin Kienholz, playing with an inferior team, gained ground consistently for Minnesota and was one of the stars of the contest.
