HIS LIFE SAVED BY FAIR MEDIC.

E. L. GRAHAM WOULD HAVE BLEED TO DEATH BUT FOR HER.

Miss Bertha Newkirk, Senior Medie at the University, Coolsly Stops Fearful Flow of Blood Which, in Fifteen Minutes More, Would Have Been Fatal—No Time to Get Frightened.

Miss Bertha Newkirk, a senior medical student at the University of Minnesota, saved the life of E. L. Graham, who was bleeding to death, last night. Mr. Graham, who lives at 2919 Pierce street NE, was on his way home about 9 o'clock when he tripped on an obstruction on the sidewalk on Twenty-ninth avenue NE and Taylor street, and fell heavily, severing the arteries and large veins in his left wrist. The blood spouted from the cut in a stream, and the injured man realized that unless help came soon he would bleed to death. Suddenly he remembered that Miss Newkirk, who lives at 1016 Twenty-ninth avenue NE, was a medical student. With great difficulty he made his way to her home, the blood streaming from his wound. When he reached there he was already very weak from the loss of so much blood, and he had barely strength enough to ring the bell.

Miss Newkirk, who lives at 1016 Twenty-ninth avenue NE, was a medical student. With great difficulty he made his way to her home, the blood streaming from his wound. When he reached there he was already very weak from the loss of so much blood, and he had barely strength enough to ring the bell.

Miss Newkirk, in addition to her work at the university, has had three years' experience in the university free dispensary, and has been in the hospital at the Fergus Falls hospital for the insane, where she devoted herself to pathological work. She is 23 years of age.

No, of course, I wasn't frightened," she said today. "I've seen too much hospital work for that, and besides, there wasn't time to be frightened. Mr. Graham was bleeding to death and someone had to be done quick. It was lots of fun," and the fair M.D. laughed delightedly.

TO USE METROPOLITAN

Varsity Dramatic Club Will Appear at a Real Theater.

The University Dramatic club will not play in the "home grounds" after all. At a meeting of the whole club yesterday, it was decided that "Crocket on the Hearth" and "Nance O'Connell" would not be produced to the best advantage on the university chapel stage. Accordingly, arrangements have been made with the Metropolitan theater for the production of the two plays Friday afternoon, Nov. 3.

The club found that the recommendations of the more experienced members of the casts who did not like the chapel and wanted a more pleasant theater well founded, and after considering the expenses involved in altering the chapel stage, the business manager of the club was authorized to make a contract with the Metropolitan.

Daily rehearsals are now the order of the day for all of those who are to take part in the play.

WILL WORK REFORM

New Orders Regarding Purchase of Army Supplies Approved.

Jobbers and manufacturers of the twin cities are now pleased over new orders issued by Secretary of War Taft relative to the purchase of army supplies. It is believed these orders will do away with the professional army contractor and make a decided improvement in the quality of supplies secured for the various posts. The orders provide that contracts shall hereafter be awarded strictly on the merit of the goods and the responsibility of the manufacturer. Bidders who do not manufacture goods may be made to tell from whom they intend to purchase the articles on which they are bidding. The financial standing of the bidders must be satisfactory and also their facilities for turning out the supplies which they offer.

ELECTS DIRECTORS

At the meeting of the St. Anthony Commercial club last evening fifteen directors, to serve three, two and one-year terms, were elected from a list of sixty-five candidates. The meeting was one of the most enthusiastic and successful the club has ever held, and the directors elected represent the leading business elements of the East Side. Those elected for the various terms were as follows: Three years, W. E. Satterly, J. E. Ware, J. C. Haynes, George A. Rose, W. Y. Chutey; two years, Fred S. Brown, G. H. Tennant, Frank Lane, George H. Ewell, Carl Schober; one year, A. H. Ives, Dan Brown, C. M. Way, Arthur Sweet, Louis Gluck.

MAN WAS NOT POISONED.

The body of Samuel Levine, the St. Paul blacksmith who was found by his widow at first it was believed that Levine had been poisoned, but a postmortem by the deputy coroner revealed other causes, chief of which was severe brain congestion. The man was picked up at St. Paul alley and was at first arrested there. Later he was removed to the hospital, where he died alone and unknown.

LONDON LEARNS OF CHARGE.

The Coal Smoke Abatement society of London has asked Dr. Justus Chas. de la Montaigne of St. Paul, to send directions for suppressing the smoke nuisance. Some one has informed the society that smoke is unknown in St. Paul owing to the energetic and intelligent work of the health department, which is greatly annoyed by smoke, hastens to secure the recipe for exterminating it.

Forty Years in Business.

TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP

ACTION WILL BE NECESSARY TO MEET INCREASING NEEDS OF ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Chairmen of the standing committees of the Associated Charities made their annual reports at the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors this afternoon. In addition to hearing these reports the board spent considerable time discussing the financial problems which confront the association. In order to meet the increasing needs of the work, it will be necessary to increase the membership and list of subscribers materially.

Manager Edwin D. Solenberger reported that 201 agencies had co-operated with the association during the year. These were divided as follows: 33 public schools, 88 churches, 5 hospitals, 2 dispensaries and 73 clubs, societies and public officials.

Chairman George C. Christian reported for the tuberculosis committee that a public nurse had been provided for the tuberculous poor, special diet had been furnished 305 patients, and literature on the cause and prevention of tuberculosis had been circulated through the public schools. Thrur the provident savings fund, 1,378 school children have saved $1,571.30 during the past year.

The Men's club of the Unitarian society has started a movement for a federation of the men's clubs of the various churches. The proposed federation will be organized along the same lines as the Federation of Labor, and the public meeting of the club congress of delegates from the clubs composing its membership.

UNION OF CHURCH GLUDS

PLAN TO ACHIEVE GREATER EFFICIENCY BY FEDERATION RECEIVES HEARTY SUPPORT.

The Men's club of the Unitarian society has started a movement for a federation of the men's clubs of the various churches. The proposed federation will be organized along the same lines as the Federation of Labor, and the public meeting of the club congress of delegates from the clubs composing its membership.

The Unitarian club has taken active steps to accomplish such a union and has appointed a committee to confer with the other clubs of the city. The committee consists of S. A. Stockwell, president of the club; Professor Willis M. West, Stiles P. Jones, secretary of the Voter's League; E. G. Erickson of the Typographical union and Dr. H. S. Ulrich.

Speaking of the aims of the proposed organization, President Stockwell said, "There are, almost as many men's clubs in the city as there are churches and influential membership, but individually they are too small to exert any great influence. In our club we have many interesting and valuable discussions on public matters, but the action, the management of the schools and other municipal questions, but they always end in talk. Could the men's clubs of the city form some sort of a union, we would be able to exert a powerful influence in favor of those measures which, in our discussions, we found to be needful to the welfare of our city."

THOUGHT HER LAND LOST

AGED WOMAN DECEIVED BY DESIGNING RELATIVES WILL HAVE BEST LEGAL ADVICE.

Ignorant of the law, and the prey of designing relatives, an old woman who has recently come under the protection of the Associated Charities has been kept from using property ample for the support of her declining years.

QUIT WORK ON SEWER

Bondsman for E. J. Kirkland Give Up Because of Quicksand.

Work on the St. Anthony Park sewer has been stopped, the bondsman for E. J. Kirkland, who contracted or abandoned the job, having followed his example. They have asked for a conference with special committees from the city council and the city engineer.

PLANT WILL BE RUSHED

Contracts will soon be let for the several buildings which are to compose the new factory at Columbia Heights, and they will be finished in sixty days.

KILLED BY A CAR

A St. Paul Blacksmith Dies After Being Hit by Street Car.

As a result of a streetcar accident on Monday, Erick Stromstedt, a blacksmith, 51 years of age, died today at St. Joseph's hospital in St. Paul. Stromstedt worked last Monday evening and started for his home about 9 p.m. As he was crossing University avenue he was struck by an Interurban car and hurled to one side. He was carried to the hospital in an unconscious condition which lasted till his death. He was employed by the Anderson company, manufacturers of farm implements, 2300 University avenue.

REPORTED TOO LOW

Official Returns on Street Railway Assessment Much Higher.

The assessed valuation of Minneapolis is larger by $580,000 than the first report made to the county auditor from the state board of equalization. The mistake was made in reporting the valuation fixed on the Twin City Rapid Transit company for Hennepin county. A deputy in the county auditor's office secured the figures at the time the state board acted, and was given a figure of $5,083,195 as the street railway's assessment.

Later came the official returns from the state auditor, showing that the assessment was raised to $5,663,000. This makes an appreciable change in the valuation for the county and city, and will make a slight revision of the tax levy figures necessary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

AMERICAN UNION IN CONFERENCE AT Y. M. C. A.

Official Organ of the Union Is Not Deemed Adequate and Establishment of a New Paper Is Seriously Considered—Interesting Phases of Work in Minnesota Discussed.

An animated discussion of "Our Missionary Papers" followed a talk on that subject, given by G. R. Gilruth Fisher of Northfield, Minn., at the morning session of the American Sunday School union, in conference in the Y. M. C. A. assembly hall.

The Sunday School Missionary, printed in Philadelphia, is the official organ of the union states. The delegates do not want to complain, they feel that it does not adequately represent the union nor is it of great enough scope to keep pace with the accomplishments of that society.

F. G. Ensign of Chicago, superintendent of the northwestern district, presided. State meetings and other phases of state work were discussed, and various resolutions were adopted to facilitate the business of the convention.
