The Northwestern Conservatory of Music has removed to the Studio Arcade, 804 1/2 Nicollet avenue.

The Gideons will have charge of the meeting at the Volunteer hall, 246 Hennepin avenue, Sunday, at 8 p.m.

Most business men no longer write, telegraph or travel; they telephone.

C. F. Schaeffer, the children's evangelist, will speak at the Methodist ministers' association Monday morning at the Hennepin Avenue church.

Owing to bridge repairs on Hennepin avenue tonight, the last westbound car on the Harriet lines will leave Hennepin and Washington avenues at 1 a.m.

The Century News store, Third street, near Hennepin, has the largest line of souvenir postals, magazines and 10c books. See us about your binding and subscriptions.

L. H. Johnson, the bridge builder, is having an office building erected at Laurel avenue and the railroad tracks. It will cost about $5,000. Harry W. Jones is the architect.

Let the other fellow worry. The "other fellow" is the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, Howard & Wilson, managers, 210 New York Life Building, who write Burglary and Theft policies.

If you are making or handling any goods for the trade or the public, you are losing money every day that you are without the service of Pollock's Clipping Bureau, city. They can send you news of new customers daily.

The public ownership party will hold a meeting for the party at O. U. W. hall, 15 Seventh street S., Sunday at 3 p.m. One of the most noted lecturers in the socialist movement will address the meeting. Good musical program.

J. E. Andrus has put his intention to build for tenants on his new corner at Sixth and Hennepin in writing. His letter to S. S. Thorpe reads: "If the prospective tenant is of the right sort he can have anything he wants on the corner for a $1,000,000 hotel to a $400,000 department store."

The directors of the Twin City Telephone company have declared the fourteenth quarterly dividend on the preferred stock of said company, at the rate of 7 per cent per annum, to the stockholders of record Oct. 25, payable Nov. 1, 1905. The transfer books will be closed from Oct. 25 to Oct. 31, inclusive.

Alderman Platt B. Walker has been called to Olyphant, Pa., by the serious illness of his mother. Should he not return in time for the meeting of the council's committee on lake levels, his ordinance repealing the ordinances establishing the levels of Lakes Harriet and Calhoun will probably be laid over until such time as he can attend.

Barber shops are to have a careful inspection under the direction of Health Commissioner P. M. Hall, as some of the proprietors have become lax in their observance of the barbering ordinance. The inspectors will keep the rules posted as provided by law, and are often inclined to ignore the requirements to sterilize razors, brushes and mugs for each patron and supply him with clean towels.

Hand were lifted in all parts of the house on a request for them by Dr. Chapman of men who desired to lead a better life. Dr. Chapman and Dr. Strouse then went into different parts of the house and took hands with scores of those who had been affected by his remarks. Mr. Butler sang "I've Wandered Far from God" and the audience was then dismissed with a benediction.

An overflow meeting was held at the Orpheum music hall. The place was crowded by 11 o'clock, but an evangelist could not get secured to lead the meeting. Rev. Daniel S. Dixon, then put in an appearance. Mr. Dixon, the gospel singer, came with him and led the music.

French Figure in Interesting Story of Emma Eames.

To hear such an artist as Emma Eames, the great American prima donna, is an event eagerly anticipated and long remembered. Of all the great prima donnas, Eames is the last to visit the west.

It is difficult for an American singer to reach the highest round in the ladder of fame, and there is but one other American who has shared with Eames the honor of attaining such celebrity. Each of these singers has been noted for her untiring industry and devotion to her artistic ideals. An interesting story is told of the life of the great musician, who said, when speaking of her: "To me she is always lovely, her voice is always beautiful. I was in Paris the night she made her debut in 'Roméo and Juliette' at the Grand opera. All the world knows of her pluck in choosing this particular place. The crowds went there to jeer and judge, for Eames had paid all of her own expenses in giving the performance, and they remained to jeer this young American."

Mme. Eames and her company of celebrated musicians appear in the Auditorium Monday evening, Nov. 6, and to her devotees the concert is a treat that music lovers cannot afford to miss.

WANT CHAPEL CHANGED

Engineers Say Present Hour Causes Great Inconvenience.

Chapel hour at the university may be changed as a result of agitation among the members of the engineering faculty. It is asserted that changes at 10:30 a.m. interferes with the work of the morning classes, especially when chapel visitors are invited to speak.

The agitation in behalf of a change in the chapel hour is also backed by many of the undergraduates, who argue that if the chapel exercises were held at some other time there would be no objection on the part of the faculty to long after-chapel mass meetings. Some of the students even go so far as to advocate the abolishment of chapel exercises altogether.

BUYS ON EIGHTH STREET

S. T. McKnight Company Acquires Lot Back of Orpheum Theater.

The S. T. McKnight company has bought the triangular-shaped lot in the rear of the Orpheum theater, fronting on Eighth street near Hennepin avenue. The purchase was made from Alleyne and Gladys Bechtel for $27,500. The lot was bought a short time ago by the Bechtels for $25,500. It has a frontage of 124 feet and a depth of 157 feet to the alley. The improvement is some houses representing little value in the consideration of the deed.

The expert corsetier, Miss Hoffman, will be at Thomas' next week. Let her fit your corsets.

We repair pitch and gravel roofs—Carey Roofing after ten years' service perfectly sound and water tight. See W. S. Nott Co., Tel. 376.

REVIVALISTS ON BURLESQUE STAGE

SINGING ENTHUSIASTS INVADE THE STAR THEATER, ST. PAUL.

At the Close of the Regular Theatrical Bill, They March in, Singing the Hymn, "That Will Be Glory for Me," and Hold a Unique, Inspiring Service.

Above the music of the orchestra at the Star theater, St. Paul, last evening, the revivalists invaded the burlesque stage. The last act of the burlesque performance, "There Will Be Glory for Me," sung lustily by 100 men who had marched down from the Central Presbyterian church to conduct a revival in the theater following the performance. As the remainder of the audience left the theater, the revivalists rushed in, a number of the theatergoers being carried back by the incoming tide, to a not a few of them remaining. Before the chorus girls in their dressing room beneath the stage had changed their tight-fitting street garb, Dr. Chapman and Rev. Henry Ostrom were on the stage above them opening what proved to be a most successful spiritual service. The piano, which a short time before had tinkled to bright music for the chorus dancers, was made the instrument to lead several hundred men in the singing of good old hymns which all remembered from childhood. "In the Sweet Bye and Bye" was one of the first songs sung and was joined in lustily by the small boys who packed the upper gallery.

This was followed by "Oh, Happy Day," and "Shall We Gather at the River." The third requisite of enthusiasm of everyone present and prepared them for the rousing address later delivered by Dr. Chapman and following an impressive prayer by Rev. Henry Ostrom.

Dr. Chapman's theme was "The Prodigal Son." "Come, men, and let me tell you that God so loves you, and always will," said the speaker, with earnestness. "There are three necessities to accept Christ. The first is a willing mind. God cannot save you if you are unwilling. Then it is necessary to have an honest desire to know the truth and then do it. The third requisite is an honest conviction of your sin. If you say you have drifted so far away that he cannot save you, you are wrong. He will save you."

"Do not notice that the first thing the father did when the son came near was to kiss him. Here is a man who says he will wait until he gets more decent before he accepts God. He wants you now with all your shortcomings and sins. The father also was moved with compassion at his son's condition. Do you know that every sin you commit is a blow to your wife, mother, and a blow to God?"

The evangelist told a story of a woman in Iowa who, after she had been refused all requests concerning her convicted son, asked that a place be left by the grave of her son that she might be buried in it. "Everyone here knows that the love of a mother is great, but the love of God is greater than that," said Dr. Chapman. "Sign, you are even to pray at your mother's grave on a Sunday school, but maybe you have forgotten how to do it. How many of you will lift up your hands and say I want you to pray for me?"

Hands were lifted in all parts of the house on a request for them by Dr. Chapman of men who desired to lead a better life. Dr. Chapman and Dr. Strouse then went into different parts of the house and took hands with scores of those who had been affected by his remarks. Mr. Butler sang "I've Wandered Far from God" and the audience was then dismissed with a benediction.

LITTLE GIRL KILLED AT A GRADE CROSSING

DR. CHAPMAN TO SPEAK

He Will Address an Auditorium Gathering Tomorrow Afternoon.

Segie Carlson, 10 years old, was instantly killed by a switch engine in the Milwaukee yards yesterday afternoon while trying to cross the tracks at Twenty-second avenue S.

The little girl lived at 2121 Nineteenth avenue S. and was on her way home from school with her sister, Mary, a few years older. The Carlson family has only lived there a few days, and the father had often told the children to be careful of the crossing.

When they reached the crossing yesterday the gates were down and a passenger train blocked the road. They waited for some time, and then started around the train. A switch engine was backing down, and Segie was struck just as she passed the rear end of the passenger train. Her body was thrown several feet into the air, and in descending, struck Mary, injuring her slightly.

The train was stopped immediately, but the neck of the little victim had been broken and she had died instantly. Deputy Coroner Irvine was summoned, and ordered the body turned over to the parents.

The body was later removed to the undertaking parlors of Olson Earl, Son, and the funeral will take place from there Monday afternoon.

DR. CHAPMAN TO SPEAK

He Will Address an Auditorium Gathering Tomorrow Afternoon.

On Sunday, at 3 p.m., Dr. J. Wilbur Chapman will address an audience of men only at the Auditorium on the subject, "A Startling Announcement."

Music will be rendered by a chorus of 100 male voices under the direction of Charles F. Allen. Instrumental music will be rendered by Kenny's orchestra and the big Auditorium organ. Fred Butler, formerly a grand opera singer, and who now travels with Dr. Chapman, will sing "The Voice of God's Creation."

This is the second of the series of meetings held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in connection with the Chapman evangelistic meetings.

JANE ADDAMS LECTURES

FAMOUS HEAD OF HULL HOUSE TALKS TO CLUBWOMEN AT DONALDSON'S RESIDENCE.

The entertainment subcommittee of the convention of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs this morning gave the delegates a treat in the form of a lecture on settlement work by Miss Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago.

This was given in the ballroom of Mrs. William Donaldson's residence, which was thronged.

Miss Addams expressed the settlement ideal and aim in a way that impressed her audience. She said that people got tired of hearing about settlements because they did not fully appreciate their function.

"Women's clubs," said Miss Addams, "represent, broadly speaking, the more public-spirited portion of the community and they are coming more and more to the concrete things. The needs of the community are often brought to their attention thru the personal study of conditions made by the settlements."

Miss Addams wanted the proverb, "charity begins at home," revised for city use, as here conditions demand a going forth to learn the needs of the poorer classes and co-operation in solving the problems of the city.

Things in their larger relations Miss Addams told us the test of cultivation and this is needed in coming to an understanding of the foreign populations that populate portions of large cities. It is necessary in meeting their problems.

The vicinity of Hull House has settlements of twenty-six nationalities, with a Greek community of 5,000 and an Italian city of 10,000 persons. These people are not adjusted to their surroundings and in order to help them to that adjustment a knowledge of their previous environment and life is necessary. This Hull House seeks to illustrate to public-spirited Americans in its labor museum and other agencies, while thru other means it seeks to inculcate the American ideal by dealing with the foreigners thru channels which they are capable of understanding.

Miss Hoffman, the expert corsetier, will be at John W. Thomas & Co.'s all next week.

Operator at Hopkins Slugged in His Office

J. C. Ewing, night telegraph operator for the Milwaukee road at Hopkins, was slugged and robbed shortly after 11 o'clock last night by a stranger to whom the operator was offering his services.

MRS. WASHBURN NEW PRESIDENT

DULUTH WOMAN EXECUTIVE OF MINNESOTA FEDERATION

Mrs. Allen, Retiring President, Presents New Officers to Convention at Closing Session—Study Clubs and Art Study, Topics of Important Discussion—Plans Announced for the Biennial.

NEW OFFICERS M. F. W. C.

President, Mrs. J. L. Washburn, Duluth; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. E. Conant, Wells; Auditor, Mrs. C. L. Atwood, St. Cloud; Historian, Mrs. H. N. McKusick, Stillwater.

District vice presidents: First district, Mrs. Burdette Thayer, Spring Valley; second, Mrs. T. C. Collins, Windom; third, Mrs. Alice Motz, and the other fourth, Mrs. J. W. Edgell, St. Paul; fifth, Mrs. W. M. Hopkins, Minneapolis; sixth, Mrs. H. J. Boyd, Alexandria; seventh, Mrs. A. C. Beck; eighth, Mrs. H. C. Hollister, Duluth; ninth, Mrs. A. C. Wilkinson, Crookston.

The result of the election of officers was announced late in the afternoon at the closing business session yesterday of the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Allen, the retiring president, presented her successor and the other officers, nearly all of whom are well known, to the convention. Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Bigelow, the retiring officers, and Mrs. Washburn, the new president, were presented with armfuls of roses.

Study clubs and art study were the subjects of a brief afternoon program, over which Mrs. E. L. Loyhed of Faribault presided. Mrs. Work of the Art Club pointed out ably the value of the study clubs for women. In the discussion there was some criticism of study methods as superficial, but they were regarded as a valuable source of information, keeping women in touch with the great movements of the world.

Mrs. Martha Anderson Wyman of Chicago spoke on "The Work of the Art Club," outlining the helps available for this work.

Miss Julie Gauthier of St. Paul, a member of the governing board of the State Art society, spoke on "The Results of the State Art Law." Referring to the illustration of the Japanese, Miss Gauthier said:

"It is so permeated with a thorough knowledge and love of art, is preeminent in many ways—very particularly in the manufactures. The old world understands this and encourages it given to artists and artisans by the government by purchasing works, awarding prizes in way of money, medals and scholarships and by maintaining free galleries and art schools."

Resolving has been made in this direction in America within a few years in the commissions for the decoration of civic buildings and in the incentives offered by the art commissions of two states, Utah and Minnesota. The Minnesota state society holds annual exhibitions at which series of prizes are awarded to Minnesota artists, an exhibition at the state fair and educational lectures, besides aiding and encouraging art development in other directions."

Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, was present all day at the convention and spoke informally in the afternoon on the coming biennial in St. Paul, giving an outline of its plans. She urged all clubs to join the general movement and artists representation there even if they did not continue their membership after the biennial.

The final reports showed an attendance of 228 officers and delegates, representing 125 clubs. A number of two of town club women were present and took part in the convention. The convention closed with a fine musicale arranged by Miss Ednah F. Hall.

This afternoon Mrs. B. MacLean, retiring vice president of the fifth district, was hostess at a luncheon given in the Egyptian room of the Nicollet. The guests were: Mrs. Sarah Platt Decker, president of the general federation; Mrs. Frank Allan, the retiring president; Mrs. J. L. Washburn, the incoming president; Mmes. E. M. La Penotiere, Lydia Phillips, Williams and Mrs. W. B. Mitchell, St. Paul, former presidents; Mrs. William Hopkins, incoming president of the fifth district.

COMPLIMENT FOR FEDERATION

Thursday Musical Gives Concert at First Baptist Church.

The Thursday Musical paid the Minnesota Federation of Women's Clubs a graceful and charming compliment in the concert given at the First Baptist church last evening. The program had been prepared by Miss Ednah F. Hall and was a varied and interesting evidence of the versatility and equipment of its members. Miss Anna De Witt Cook opened the evening entertainment with "Hosanna," and a "Berceuse" by Schubert, two finely contrasting and well-rendered numbers. Miss Inez Lavis sang, Del Acqua's "Chanson Provencale," a number admirably suited to her style. Her voice, however, is a little light for so large an auditorium. Miss Mabel Augustine played two violin numbers with admirable poise and a firm, clear tone. Three waltzes and two soprano songs afforded Miss Ednah F. Hall an opportunity to assist in the entertainment of the club's guests. The "Gathering of the Girls" by the organ, "Das Rheingold," arranged for eight hands, was played by Mmes. Runyan, Porteous, Vander Horeck and Richardson with admirable technique and thematic treatment. Miss Inez Lavis sang "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from "Samson and Delilah," and Miss Loretta Dellone played a theme and variations by Thomas. Miss Cook, by request, played another organ selection and the program closed with the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria," sung by Mrs. Albert Fisher Reuttell, with W. S. Marshall at the organ. Miss Dellone at the harp and Miss Hilda Jensen playing the violin obligato. Mrs. Reuttell's singing was delightfully clear and artistic and formed a fitting close to a delightful evening.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

The Late Rev. R. F. Sample to Be Lovingly Remembered.

A notable memorial service will be held Sunday morning in Westminster church in memory of the late Rev. Robert F. Sample, D.D., LL.D., for nearly twenty years the beloved and revered pastor of Westminster church. Short addresses will be made by the pastor and others and the choir will sing appropriate musical selections. In closing, Dr. Sample's tender and touching hymn, "I Hear a Voice," "Thy Soft and Sweet," will be sung. For the evening service the Westminster church will give beautiful and popular musical program of rare merit.
