The Greatest American Prima Donna

shows her appreciation of Lablache—America's most perfect Face Powder. An exemplification of what science and skill can produce as a complexion beautifier and a toilet necessity to women of refinement.

Mr. Ben. Levy, Boston: I find your Lablache Face Powder very refreshing and soothing. EMMA EAMES STORY.

We have thousands of letters from all parts of the world testifying to the wonderful qualities and purity of

LABLACHE FACE POWDER

Insist on having the genuine. Substitutes are not only unsatisfactory, but frequently dangerous, on account of being compounded of poisonous drugs.

Dear Sir—As I have used your Face Powder for a long time, I am firmly convinced that it has not its equal in the world.

Believe me, very truly yours,
ZELIE DE LUSSAN.

It is our aim to use only the highest-priced, purest and most efficient ingredients known to science in the manufacture of Lablache Face Powder, believing it better to give our patrons full value for their money than to expend it in large, illustrated and extravagant advertisements, as Lablache Face Powder sells on its own merits.

Flesh, White, Pink or Cream, 50 cents a box. Sold everywhere or by mail. Send 2 cents for sample.

TO Social Circles

Beauty is the eye's food and the soul's sorrow.—German Proverb.

The date for the wedding of Miss Marie Northup, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Northup, and Sidney Dean of St. Paul has been set for Thursday, Dec. 28.

Mrs. F. M. Stowell will give a reception Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 14, from 2 until 5 o'clock at her home, 2434 Colfax avenue S.

The wedding of Miss Harriet Messing, daughter of Rabbi and Mrs. Henry J. Messing of St. Louis, and O. Mose Fire-side of Cincinnati, Ohio, was solemnized last evening in the parlor of the West hotel. Rabbi S. N. Debnar officiated in the presence of the immediate friends of the young couple, several of whom were from St. Paul and St. Louis. Mr. Fire-side is a traveling man and will take his bride with him on his trip. They will make their home in the city.

Miss Jean Gowdy, principal of the Washington school, who has been transferred to the Logan building, was the guest of honor at a dinner which the teachers of the Washington school gave Saturday evening at Dayton's restaurant. A number of vines and ferns was in the center of the table and at Miss Gowdy's place was a basket of violets. Covers were placed for eighteen.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martin Lovsted, who were married in Grace church, San Francisco, Wednesday evening, Oct. 11, have returned to Honolulu, where they will be at home at the Hotel Albatross, after Dec. 30. Mrs. Lovsted was formerly Miss Elizabeth Jones of Minneapolis and a niece of Mrs. Frank Strobel. Mr. Lovsted is a native of Minneapolis and left two years ago for Honolulu. Shortly after their return from their wedding trip, a reception was given for Mr. and Mrs. Lovsted by Bishop and Mrs. Restarick at their home. Mr. Lovsted is a director of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and several members of that organization were present and assisted in receiving the guests. They also presented the young couple with a handsome set of silver teaspoons and napkin rings. The Iolani Glee club entertained the company with delightful Hawaiian airs, and a group of young girls served ices.

Miss Molly O'Brien gave a delightful Halloween party Tuesday evening. The rooms were gayly decorated with jack-o'-lanterns, smilax and yellow chrysanthemums. Misses Zella Hall and Julia Sanders assisted in receiving the guests.

During the evening Halloween games were played and Miss Helen Nelson gave piano and vocal selections. Luncheon was served in Halloween fashion. The table was set with an immense pumpkin filled with yellow chrysanthemums, and smilax trailed over the table.

Two weddings in which Minneapolis people will be interested took place last week in California. Miss Edith Lyburn Isham and Dr. Herbert McKay Coulter were married in Pasadena, California, on Thursday. Mrs. Coulter is the daughter of the bride's mother, Mrs. John Isham, Thursday. Mrs. Isham and her daughter lived in Minneapolis until last December, when they went to Pasadena. Dr. Coulter was also a former resident of Minneapolis and is a graduate of the university.

Miss Mabel Gonn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Cobb Gonn of this city, and Benjamin Stickney Hunter, were married Monday at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Arthur D. Edly, in Los Angeles. Mr. Hunter and his bride will make their home at Santa Monica and will receive after Jan. 1.

W. A. Stuart of Cincinnati, Ohio, was in the city to attend the Minnesota-Madison football game and after the game George W. Peavey gave a dinner at the club for Mr. Stuart, who returned home last evening.

Mrs. Charles Cady will give a granite shower tonight at her home in North-east Minneapolis for Miss Harriet Van Arnam, a bride of Wednesday. Miss Van Arnam was the guest of honor at a parcel shower last week given by Mrs. Austin Gannon at her home, 319 Quincy street NE. There were twenty-five guests.

PILLORIES MEN AS FASHION'S SLAVES

Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Says Men Is a Serf When It Comes to Hats.

New York, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish has come to the rescue of her sex by flaying men for following fashion blindly. She says: "Talk about slaves of fashion, we women are not in it with the men. They wear straw or felt hats, according to a certain date and pay no attention to the weather or to their own comfort, but that is not all. For years they have clung to the derby fashion, because it is the fashion and if there is an uglier, more uncomfortable or more unhealthful hat than a derby, I don't know what it is. There's not one man in a thousand to whom such a hat is becoming. But tall men and short, big-headed men and small-headed men, fair men and dark men, all stick them on and walk around with a self-satisfied air. "If fashion decrees a narrow brim derby, all men wear narrow brim derbies, regardless of the fact that the narrow brim makes the round face look like a full moon. If broad brims are the fashion, every man wears a broad brim, although it makes the thin-featured man look like a scare crow. If fashion says brims shall roll sharply at the sides, every man rolls his brim, and wears a sharp, rolling brim, although he must know that it makes him look like a yellow kid. "Woman will mind fashion so long as she detects something becoming, but they will refuse to look frites to please her. Men follow her manly and devotedly, no matter at what sacrifice to their looks. And every fall I wonder what has become of the handsome men, until I remember that the ugly hat season has come upon them."

BIRTHDAY GATHERING

Director Theodore Martin Is Presented with Bust of Mozart.

In celebration of the forty-second anniversary of his birth, the members of the Orpheum theater orchestra assembled at the home of Director Theodore Martin after the performance Friday night and presented him with a handsome bust of Mozart. Following the usual congratulations, the party enjoyed a duck dinner served by Mrs. Martin, assisted by Mrs. C. Koek, Mrs. Venner and Miss I. McGrew. The evening closed with "informal vaudeville," which included a speech on "The Musician's Life," by J. Hassmer, several harp solos by Joseph Delaquila, harp soloist with the Orpheum orchestra, and a "Dutch comedian act," by C. Koek.

MORPHY MAKES RECORDS

Novel Phonograph Feature by the Man Who "Beats the Band."

One of the up-to-date features of the program for Morphy and his band at the Auditorium Wednesday, Thursday and Friday nights is a graphophone demonstration. Mr. Morphy giving an exhibition of how phonograph records are made.

For three years Mr. Morphy was soloist for a phonograph company, making records with the accompaniment of Gilmore's famous band of sixty-two pieces. The famous soloist sings with the accompaniment of his band to make records for the entertainment and enlightenment of the audience. Within fourteen seconds after the last strain of the song has been sung and played, it is reproduced before the audience.

Another feature is the introduction of "The Peacemaker," a descriptive song dedicated to President Roosevelt and introducing Russian and Japanese war songs, with American counter-melodies. The sale of seats will commence tomorrow at the Metropolitan Music store.
