Social Circles

"Everyone speaks well of his heart, but no one dares to speak well of his mind."—La Rochefoucauld.

Kappa chapter of Gamma Phi Beta sorority gave a handsomely appointed ball last evening in the West hotel, in honor of the delegates who are here to attend the national convention. The corridors were banked with palms and the lights were shaded in pink and green. The sorority flower, the pink carnations, was used in the reception room where Japanese baskets held the spiky blossoms on either side of the tall palms that banked the window and great bows of tulle were on the handles. In the ordinary the silken pendant of Kappa chapter waved above a tangle of palms and ferns. The supper room had a huge cluster of shaggy yellow chrysanthemums in the center of the table encircled with crystal vases holding pink roses. The mantel was banked with foliage and palms were placed effectively in the corners.

The guests were received by Misses Edward H. Crocker, Carl Schlenker, William H. Sudduth, John F. Downey, Ward H. Benton, Henry F. Nachtrieb, Edward W. Backus, Misses Putnam, Emma Diminck, Helen Hendrix, Eleanor Sheldon, and assisting were Misses Sara Preston, Katherine Tawney, Cora Tawney, Lora Gooding, Lyla Root, Hazel Lovell and Ruth Hall. Among the guests from out of town were: Misses Martha Gooding, Eugenia Brennan, Brown, Eretta Kimball, Louise Dersch, Marie Durkee, Maile Wilson, Mary Reed, Loreta Curry, Josephine Allen, Inez Euter, Grace McDonnell, Nell Galusha, Louise Wetzel, Genevieve Pendleton, Carlotta Brand, Sara Horton, Alice Larson, Josephine Joseph, Shute, Laura McCar, Grace Lasher, Josephine Russell, Jeanette, William H. Sudduth, Colette, Louise Wetzel, Pauline Garzmann; Misses W. E. Fuller, N. J. Alton, H. P. Dawson, W. E. Fuller, T. L. Dawson, W. E. Fuller.

Among the Minneapolis Gamma Phi Betas, who were present were: Misses Ethel Hall, Eugene Milne, Alice W. Hedrick, Florence Snook, Georgia Campbell, Mildred Hunter, Mary Ives, Marie Moreland, Harriet Young, Edna Elmer, Belle Buehler, Sara Marshall, Sara Preston, Grace Kingsley, Ellen R. Brooks, Helen Lovell, Helen Lee, Grace Hunter, Clara Tawney, Leona Keyder, Lilla Alton, Marie Jones, Marie Jones, Marie Griffith, M. Andrews.

J. Russell, Professor Schlenker, Dean Downey, Professor Nachtrieb and Dr. Smith.

The Pan-Hellenic association gave a reception this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Chester Simmons, on Fifth street, in honor of the delegates to the Gamma Phi Beta. The association includes all of the Greek letter sororities at college and the members received in informal groups, a string orchestra, flowers and foliage made an attractive setting and in the dining room pink carnations, the Gamma Phi Beta flowers were used. The hours were from 3:30 till 6 o'clock, and over 100 college women were present.

The wedding of Miss Katherine Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kennedy, and Alexander James Keith of Eau Claire, Wis., took place last evening at the home of the bride's parents, 2504 Fourth avenue S. The decorations of the rooms were charmingly simple. White chrysanthemums were arranged in clusters here and there and in the dining room bride roses centered the table. Only the members of the two families witnessed the service, which was read by Rev. J. E. Bushnell. Just before the ceremony Mrs. E. J. Moles, sister of the bride, played "Lohengrin" and the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was given by the professional. The bride wore a white crepe de chine, with a yoke of point lace, an heirloom in the family. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Miss Cornelia Kennedy, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid in white silk mull and carried red roses. Thomas B. Keith was the best man. A wedding supper followed the service. The out-of-town guests present at the wedding were Mrs. Agnes Keith, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Warner, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Keith of Eau Claire. Mr. and Mrs. Keith will make an extensive tour of the south and will receive the bride and third Wednesdays in January after their return to Eau Claire, where Mr. Keith is engaged in the lumber business.

Mrs. A. O. Cornwall entertained fifty women at cards this afternoon at her home on Emerson avenue S. Pink chrysanthemums and foliage were the decorative setting in the dining room and the living room and hall were in red with carnations mingled with the green. Euchre was played at four tables, and after the games a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Cornwall was assisted by Misses C. E. Mumford, George Heising, Adam Pickering and Charles Frear. Mrs. H. E. Sanger and Miss Hankins served frappe, and Miss Myrtle Steenson aided in scoring. The prizes were pretty pieces of cutglass.

Mrs. Dayton G. Williams gave a second card party this afternoon at her home on Knox avenue S. Misses P. K. Jarvis, Henry Knight and Walter Backger were the assisting women. About fifty guests were entertained and six-hand euchre was played.

The Odin club will give a social Wednesday evening in the club rooms. Cards, billiards and dancing will be the features of the evening. The formal Thanksgiving party of the club will be given Wednesday evening, Nov. 29, and it will be made the crowning event of the season.

The Misses Gertrude and Sarah Ribeth will entertain at a kitchen show for Miss Ebba Kitching, tomorrow evening, at their home on Morgan avenue.

soms, ferns and foliage, and pink roses also adorned the supper table. The place cards bore tiny pictures of the bride, and at her place was an album containing photographs of the guests.

The senior class of Graham Hall will have a luncheon at Donaldson's tea rooms tomorrow and it will be followed by a theater party at the Orpheum.

The wedding of Miss Myrtle E. Mowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Mowry, of 1057 Thirteenth avenue SE, to J. R. Golden of Des Moines, Iowa, will take place at the home of the bride's parents next Thursday, at high noon.

A group of twenty young men gave a dancing party Tuesday evening in Mrs. Nobles' hall on Fourteenth avenue SE. An informal program of dances was followed by a supper. Ralph Boardman was chairman of the committee in charge of the arrangements. The hosts plan to give a similar affair once a month thru the winter.

The marriage of Miss Helen Carlson and Samuel J. White was quietly solemnized last evening at the home of L. D. Seward, 3303 Park avenue. Rev. G. L. Morrill officiated in the presence of the immediate friends. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Johnson. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served.

The ballroom of Masonic Temple presented a brilliant appearance yesterday afternoon on the occasion of the fourth annual ball given by the Minneapolis postoffice clerks. Yellow and white bunting formed a festal drapery for the walls, and palms screened the orchestra. A unique effect was obtained by the use of a calcium light, which threw kaleidoscopic colors upon the dancers. Among the 400 guests were a number who came from St. Paul in a chartered car. The committee on arrangements included M. J. Harkin, Irving Booth and George W. Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sweeney entertained a group of friends at cards Thursday evening at their home on Fifth street NE.

Mrs. Eugene Larquent of 3321 Clinton avenue entertained informally yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. C. M. Kennedy, who will leave next week for Aurora, Ill. The guests were fifteen women of the immediate neighborhood. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with cards and music, Master Francis Paul contributing several selections on the piano in behalf of the guests. Mrs. Larquent presented Mrs. Kennedy with a handpainted china plate.

HOW TO JUDGE A LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

Send for the pamphlet published by the Minneapolis Agency of the STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF WORCESTER, MASS., and learn how to investigate the subject intelligently—pamphlet sent free on receipt of a stamped, addressed six and one-half inch envelope.

It shows that a correctly organized and properly managed life insurance company will be marked by the following four essential features—and it shows why this is so.

FIRST—The legal reserve old line basis—no element of assessment, or the "preliminary term" or any other device for avoiding liability and increasing expenses.

SECOND—Absolute mutuality with proper limitations on the use of proxies, the assets owned by the policy holders, not by stockholders.

THIRD—Annual distribution of surplus or dividends, and the amount thereof a definite liability until paid. Treating deferred dividends as "surplus" subject to expense demands is the cause of nearly all the few prominent defects in American life insurance management.

FOURTH—Management strictly confined to the company's officers acting in their responsible official capacity. A "side" company sharing in the management and investments of a life insurance company offers too great opportunities for irresponsibility, to say the least.

The STATE MUTUAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY OF WORCESTER, MASS., is 61 years old and has always adhered to these principles. Full information will be given by any of the Company's agents. Intelligence is a duty. C. W. VAN TUYL, General Agent, 15-21 Loan & Trust Building. Augustus Warren, Geo. A. Alnsworth, F. W. Woodward, R. S. Thomson, Selon Royal, F. C. Stevens, T. A. Carroll, A. T.
