OVER ONE-THIRD EARNING MONEY

CENSUS SUMMARY OF OCCUPATIONS FOR PEOPLE OF STATE.

Not Including Boys on the Farm, There Are 692,816 People at Work—Over One-Third of This Number Are Common Laborers, and Farmers Come Next in Numerical Order.

There are 692,816 persons, or 35 per cent. of the state's entire population engaged in some gainful occupation. The state census bureau today made public its occupation table for the entire state, classifying the population in a general way, according to the character of work.

Practically all included in the table are adults. Boys and girls who help at home or on the farm are not included.

Comparisons with any previous census are impossible, as the schedules are different, and the government census makes several hundred different subdivisions. In the table given out today, farm laborers are included under the head of "common laborers," and the farmers include only those who own or rent farms and work them.

The totals for each occupation heading are as follows: Farmers 196,735; Skilled laborers 247,534; Unskilled laborers 259,547; Manufacturers and woodmen 5,684; Manufacturers 3,098; Miners 23,231; Railway employes 15,863; Ship dealers and bartenders 6,322; Clerks and salesmen 65,721; Professional men 12,905; Teachers 14,987; Capitalists and retired 7,382; Unclassified 16,590.

Total 692,816.

A COLORED MANAGER WOULD OPEN THE JUMBO

William Robb, a colored gentleman of various talents, has applied for a license to run a theater at 208 Washington avenue S, the home successively of the Jumbo, Columbia and Empire theaters of notorious repute.

Robb has been identified with the show business for many years and as an impresario of colored talent is widely known. For years he has taken a troupe of singers and dancers on a tour of the state and county fairs.

KNOBLAUCHS BUY ON NICOLLET AVENUE

Unusual interest attaches to a Nicolle avenue property sale, just closed by Nickels & Smith, of Anton, Minn. Frank Knoblauch, the property is the plat of ground, 4x80 feet, included in the "L" shaped site of Plymouth church, and the importance of the deal lies in its bearing on the Plymouth property at the eighth street corner.

Nickels & Smith, representing N. J. Everett Silsby of Lynn, Mass., have transferred the lot to the Knoblauchs at a price not divulged, but it is well known that Mr. Silsby has been holding the property at $1,000 a front foot, which would, therefore, be the maximum purchase price.

The Silsby lot has been considered the key to the Plymouth property, and it has been understood that the church at one time considered its purchase to make its own property more saleable. Plymouth has held its corner at $1,500 a front foot, and in the light of the sale of the shorter lot to the Knoblauchs it is believed that the price was not set higher than justified by developments.

PICTURES ON VIEW

Fine Arts Society Session Opens Art Loan Exhibit. The private view of the art loan exhibition of the Minneapolis Society of Fine Arts attracted a large number of art lovers to the art gallery of the public library building last evening.

The exhibit is a most interesting one and attracted much favorable comment. The Society of Fine Arts elected eight directors to take the place of those whose terms have expired. T. B. Walker, William C. Whitney, Mrs. Josiah Thompson, Mrs. Emma E. Beard, Mrs. Andreas Ueland, Arthur M. Keith, William Y. Chute and Edwin E. Hewitt were elected to serve until 1908.

The officers will be elected at the quarterly meeting in December. John Meissen, 1131 East Seventh street, was seriously injured in a runaway accident in St. Paul last evening. Meissen was driving down Jackson street and approaching Eighth when his horse became frightened and ran away. The buggy was overturned and Meissen was thrown to the pavement. The police ambulance took him to the city hospital, where it was found that he had two ribs broken and a lacerated scalp.

SHOW SURPRISING GROWTH OF CITY

FIGURES OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS COMMITTEE ARE GRATIFYING.

Annual Report Shows Significant Strides Along All Lines in Past Five Years—City Increasing as Manufacturing Center and Distributing Point—Ten Directors Elected to Serve Club.

That Minneapolis is growing rapidly is demonstrated by the report of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club, presented by the secretary, Walter C. Nye, at the annual meeting of the club last evening. In the past five years wonderful strides have been made along all lines. It is shown that Minneapolis is no longer entirely dependent on lumber and flour interests for its growth and future prosperity.

The city is increasing as a manufacturing center and distributing point. Manufacturing capital has increased over 30 per cent and the value of factory output nearly 50 per cent. The decrease of the lumber cut will, it is believed, be far exceeded by the immense amount of Pacific coast lumber distributed from this point. That the flour decline was temporary is shown by the fact that the flour mills are running ahead of all records at the present time and there is reason to expect that the results of the next five years will far exceed anything in the previous history of the city.

Report Full and Complete.

Mr. Nye's report is complete. Under sub-sections the prominent elements making for the success and the present-day greatness of Minneapolis are considered. These include diversified manufacturing, the publicity the city is receiving thru the periodicals of the country, railroad extensions in Minneapolis territory, local improvements and street railway improvements.

In addition, the committee extended the field of its activity to include municipal affairs, compiling complete records of incoming and outgoing freight, assisting in the location of a branch state employment bureau here, and contributing in no small degree to the success of the last census, which brought Minneapolis close to the 300,000 class.

In Flourishing Condition.

Other reports submitted at the meeting were not less interesting. President F. R. Sallisbury gave a brief outline of the work of the club for the year and suggested renewed activity. Socially and financially the club is flourishing.

The resident membership list has reached 1,036, the non-resident 147, and there are 59 names on the resident waiting list. The total assets, including furniture and other club property, are $49,615.

A pair of the meeting was devoted to the memory of members who had died in the year and resulted in the establishment of a custom that will be followed in the future. A. G. Ostrom, secretary of the club, read a brief and fitting tribute was paid his memory by some member of the club.

James Gray spoke for C. E. Heinichs, E. J. Peterson, J. A. Ostrom, Dr. L. A. Nippert for Dr. Willis Button, W. F. Fraser for William C. Sharran, E. C. Best for Samuel H. Hall, J. W. Van Dyke for E. A. Ostrom, Conway MacMillan for Wakefield C. Marshall, Judge W. A. Kerr for Martin Whitecomb, and W. G. Nye for Ezra V. Valentine. Secretary E. J. Estlake spoke for S. M. Ostrom, former editor of the police, who lost his life in a fire on Nicollet avenue a few weeks ago.

Ten Directors Elected.

Ten new directors to serve two years were elected. Thirteen candidates were placed in the field and considerable interest was displayed in the election. Tomorrow the new board of directors will meet to elect a president and other officers for the year.

The ten new directors in the order of their selection are: John Leslie, W. F. McLaughlin, Karl DeLaittre, Charles W. Gardner, E. E. Holman, Asa Faine, Peter Greiner, L. G. Gedney, H. A. Tuttle and J. C. Haynes.

President Won Over BY ELVIDGE'S FATHER

By W. W. Jerome.

Washington, Nov. 14.—Frank Elvidge's father, living in Ben Ave. Pa., has had much to do with convincing President Roosevelt that the young man be reinstated in his position as driver of one of the departmental automobile trucks. Mr. Elvidge's father to the president after his son's dismissal on a charge of obstructing the president's carriage, asking for the "square deal" of which the president has talked so much.

The young man wrote his father, following his dismissal, setting forth the facts in the case from his point of view. This letter the father forwarded to the president, with one of his own, and it is his opinion, as expressed in a dispatch to a Washington paper, that this correspondence is what will set matters right again.

Members of the Minnesota delegation, who have been in the city lately, have expressed the belief that the president acted hastily and was preparing to lay the case before him.

CORONER WILL HOLD INQUEST.

Coroner A. W. Miller of Ramsey county will hold an inquest concerning the child of William Butler, who died at White Bear Lake last Saturday. The child was two months old and had been ill for some time. After the babe's death a woman reported to the coroner that there had been a family quarrel and that threats of wholesale poisoning had been made. The testimony will be heard late this week.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE WORKERS GATHER

TWENTY-FOURTH ANNUAL STATE CONVENTION OPENS.

Speakers See Encouraging Signs on Every Hand—Senator S. A. Stockwell Delivers Principal Address of Afternoon on "The Initiative and Referendum".

The First Unitarian church was gay with gold chrysanthemums and palms today when a small but earnest body of delegates gathered at the opening of the twenty-fourth annual convention of the Minnesota Woman's Suffrage association. The impression of emphasis on the auditorium was so vivid that the president urged the delegates to gather in the tardy ones, though some of theivisors have not yet arrived.

Dr. Ethel B. Hurd welcomed the delegates and Miss Marion S. Sloane of Rochester responded. The annual address was given by the president, Mrs. Maud C. Stockwell.

"The movement is not bounded by geographical lines," she declared, but is worldwide. Today every indication points to a changing attitude on the woman's question. A great body of liberals in national convention passed resolutions favoring political equality; over 300 favorable resolutions have been passed during the past year by assemblies other than woman suffrage; thirteen governors of states have written strong words in favor of equal rights for women; the list of the federated states of Australia this year granted full political rights to women—here are unmistakable signs of progressive thought and action.

Dr. Cora Smith Eaton presented the program in behalf of the program committee. Senator S. A. Stockwell gave the principal address of the afternoon on "The Initiative and Referendum." Mrs. Greetings from fraternal organizations and reports of standing committees were features of the afternoon session. Tonight Mayor D. Jones will give an address of welcome, and other speakers will be Rev. W. A. Riley, Professor A. W. Rankin, A. H. Bright, Professor W. M. West, S. A. Bond, James Gray and Rev. Charles S. Davis.

FRANK HAMILTON WEDS MISS PAULINE KRUGER

Miss Pauline Kruger of Minneapolis and Frank H. Hamilton, now of San Francisco, were married yesterday in San Francisco. Rev. W. M. Hours officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will make their home in San Francisco, where Mr. Hamilton is connected with the staff of the Examiner. Miss Kruger was one of the well-known artists of Minneapolis, and since she went west last spring she has repeated her success in California. She recently painted several large pieces of glass for a hotel in Los Angeles. Mr. Hamilton was formerly a Minneapolis newspaper man. The romance culminating in the marriage had its inception in Minneapolis and has survived various vicissitudes.

BULLET IS REMOVED FROM MRS. BRENNAN

Mrs. James Brennan, accused of murdering her three stepchildren, underwent an operation at the city hospital today, and the bullet, believed to have penetrated any vital organ, was removed. Her wound is not at all dangerous and she may now be taken to the county jail without danger. One rib on her left side was fractured, but the bullet did not penetrate any vital organ and was found in the back just beneath the skin.

SWOONED WHEN TAKEN FROM BABE

MRS. CARLSON WANTED TO TAKE CHILD TO WORKHOUSE.

The Woman Had Promised the Humane Society to Leave Liquor Alone, but Broke Her Promise—Separation from Her Child Precipitates a Heartrending Scene in Court.

No babe will be allowed to live in the criminal atmosphere of the city workhouse.

This is the decision made by the municipal judges and Superintendent John O'Donnell of the workhouse today. The mother in the case, Mrs. Johanna Carlson, is in a precarious nervous condition at that institution, because her plea to take her little daughter Loretta with her, while serving a sentence for drunkenness was denied.

Mrs. Carlson's babe is but 18 months old. For some time the little girl has not had the proper care, because her mother persisted in drinking to excess. Several times she has been taken into police court by Humane society officials, but a week ago she promised that she would leave liquor alone forever, if she could only keep the little girl. Mrs. Carlson was allowed to go, but promises, the well intended, were overpowered by craving for drink, and she was in court again today.

After hearing the testimony, Judge Waite sentenced her to the workhouse for ten days. At this the woman broke down and sobbed pitifully, begging to be allowed to take the child with her, if she must serve her sentence. All the officials refused to consider the proposal to allow a babe to be confined with criminals and she was taken to Police Matron Sarah Schaeffer's apartments, where the child was.

Here the mother wept continually until the call came for her to go. When Mrs. Schaeffer took little Loretta from her, Mrs. Carlson swooned. Mrs. Schaeffer worked over her and later she was able to start on the trip with the other prisoners. At the workhouse she was found to be in an exhausted condition and she will have to be carefully watched.

Loretta has been placed temporarily in care of her father, but the courts will probably be asked to make other arrangements for her keeping.
