RESCUED AFTER A NIGHT OF TERROR

EXCITING EXPERIENCE OF DOCK PROPRIETOR ATGRAND MARAIS.

Cut Off from Escape in a Warehouse Gradually Breaking Up by Storm's Fury, Joseph Mayhew Is Found by Rescue Party-Fishermen in Sad Plight on North Shore of Lake.

Special to The Journal.

Two Harbors, Minn., Dec. 6.—From Grand Marais comes the report of great loss resulting from the recent storm and the exciting experience of Joseph Mayhew, proprietor of the docks and warehouses.

At the time the sea began pouring over the rocks that form a natural breakwater at that point, Mayhew was in one of the warehouses. The fury of the storm was so sudden that the dock began to break up before he realized his position. When he did he found that escape from his quarters was impossible. He was compelled to keep an all-night vigil in the warehouse, in imminent, danger of losing his life at any moment.

Mankato, Minn., Dec. 6.—The attorneys in the case of the Barber Asphalt Paving company vs. the city of Mankato have received word that the United States court of appeals has filed an order at St. Louis sustaining the decision of Judge Lochren in favor of the company.

Three years ago the Barber company laid eleven blocks of asphalt pavement in this city and some of the property owners secured an injunction in the state district and supr me courts restraining the city from levying the special assessment to pay for the improvement, as the contract provided. These courts declared the contract lilegal for several technical reasons. At times the seas would lift the floor of the structure toward the celling, carrying him with it. With the first break of dawn, men with a boat braved the heavy waves and rescued him. Three dwelling houses were demolished and the Lake View hotel suffered great

From reports received from other points along the north shore of Lake Superior, it is learned that the losses are not only confined to vessel owners and shippers, but they extend to scores of fishermen and municipalities. Fishermen in Sad Plight.

The storm was particularly disastrous to the poor fishermen who, at this season of the year, were engaged in their annual harvest of catching lake herring. Thousands of dollars worth of gill neis were lost or are so badly tangled as to make all further use of them this season impossible. Many gasolene launches and rowboats were swept away, while others were torn from their moorings and pounded into fragments against the rocks.

Private docks, buts and sheds, used for storing the fish preparatory to shipment, were de-ing the fish preparatory to shipment, were de stroyed.

Several fishermen had invested all they possessed in preparing their equipment for the herring season, depending upon the large earnings to buy their winter's supplies. They have lost everything and are thrown out of employment. The packing companies also lost heavily.

LADD REFUSES DELAY

Pure-Paint Law in North Dakota Goes Into Effect Jan. 1.

FARGO, N. D.—Commissioner Ladd refused accede to the requests of the paint men regarding the enforcement of the pure paint law, to be effective Jan. 1. E. W. Heath, accompanied by two attorneys, spent the day here interviewing the commissioner and getting pointers on his attitude. The fear of publicity seems to be the greatest ho.ror of the men who seek delay. They want the commissioner to agree not to enforce the law till the next session of the legislature, when an effort will be made to have it repealed, or to agree to allow the matter to stand till a test case is made. It has been a year since the enactment of the law and the commissioner thinks that has been ample time for the paint men to prepare for its observance.

Mayor Wall has again put the lid on the poker games. This is a frequent occurrence in Fargo, but this time, it is claimed, the chief of police is to be held personally responsible for the enforcement. The losses of some heads of families in recent games are said to have been the cause of the last order. The gamblers have lies in recent games are said to have been the cause of the last order. The gamblers have paid very little ottention to previous orders. The cities of Fargo and Grand Forks are to have the first test of the primary election law at the municipal elections in the spring. No other towns will be affected. There is considerable speculation over the results and doubt as to whether the measure will prove satisfactory.

NEW COURSE ESTABLISHED South Dakota University Forms a Debating Class. VERMILLION, S. D.—A course in debating has been established at the state university. Dean C. M. Young of the college of arts and sciences will be in charge of the classes, and instruction will also be given by Dean Sterling and Professor Broadus. Heretofore students have received no credits for debate, but in future they will register as for any other class in the university and receive credit accordingly. In addition to the regular work, attention will be paid to actual preparation and delivery of debates. Various faculty members will be invited to attend practice debates and offer criticism. The new arrangement will put debating on a higher basis at the institution than ever before.

the decision of Judge Lochren in favor of the company.

Three years ago the Barber company laid eleven blocks of asphalt pavement in this city and some of the property owners secured an injunction in the state district and supr ne courts restraining the city from levying the special assessment to pay for the improvement, as the contract provided. These courts declared the contract illegal for several technical reasons. The Barber company was not made a party to this action, and some time after the work was completed brought suit in the United States circuit court to recover the contract price for the work, about $40,000. Judge Lochren held that the contract was valid and the city took an appeal. Judge Lochren has now been sustained.

Litigation will probably cease here, except in Litigation will probably cease here, except in so far as to determine whether the city as a whole or the property benefited shall pay the cost of the paying.

Bound Over to Grand Jury.

B. H. Wilkinson was bound over to the United States grand jury by Court Commissioner A. O. Eberhart to answer to the charge of having obtained $25 at the Mankato postoffice on Nov. obtained $25 at the Mankato postoffice on Nov. 19 by forging the name of Frank Fahey, a normal school student, to the order, which had been sent to Fahey.

Wilkinson was released on $500 bond, furnished by his father, who is a business man at Granite Falls and formerly postmaster there.

Wilkinson, who was instrument man for the Citizens' Telephone company for nearly two years, roomed in the same honse with Fahey.

George W. Scherer of this city has received word that he and B. C. Coveli of Kirkhoven are the only case who have accepted nominations for grand master of the I. O. O. F. of Minnesota. Three others were nominated, but only the two accepted. The lodges will vote on their choice at the last meeting in January.

CITY AS INSURANCE CO.

La Crosse Will Provide a Sinking Fund to Cover Fire Losses.

LA CROSSE, WIS.—The city of La Crosse has adopted a new plan of carrying its own fire insurance on public buildings. Policies of a face value of $10,000 have expired and $15,000 worth of insurance will expire in January, but the policies will not be renewed. A sinking fund of $15,000 has been created and will be increased annually until the city is able to pay for any probable fire losses out of this fund.

Application has been made in probate court asking that Otto Loeffler, brother of the late H. A. Loeffler, be appointed administrator of the estate, which is valued at nearly $10,000, including personal property and real estate. The application was granted.

Telegrams from Portland, Ore., are to the effect that Hiram Goddard of this city, among others, is a heavy loser in the alleged land frauds just discovered in Oregon. When the matter was called to the attention of Mr. Goddard, he said he did not believe he will lose on deals he made there, altho he admitted he might hold some bad titles.

Many La Crosse men invested money in the Pacific northwest lumber business several years ago.

JUDGE MARRIES COWBOY Compelled to Remove Spurs and Buy Ring for Bride.

PIERRE, S. D.—Justice McCord in the office of a local hotel married James Wiley Mott and Lydia Durkin, both of Lyman county. The bridegroom was a genuine type of the fast-disappearing cowboy, and put up some protest against removing his spurs while the ceremony was performed. After the ceremony he purchased a ring for the bride on a threat of the justice to annul the marriage in case of failure on his part to make the purchase.

LEAD, S. D.—The annual meeting of the Ancient Order of United Workmen has been held in this city. The following officers were elected: J. A. Gallagher, master workman; Joseph Prinn, foreman; David Roberts, overseer; William Lang, recorder; J. E. Peters, financier; Ed Valentine, receiver; John Zurich, guide; G. G. Allison, inside watch; Isaac Lehto, outside watch; Fred Pennington, trustee; Drs. Holvey, Freeman and Nilsson, medical examiners.
