STATE'S CLOSING EVIDENCE STRONG

DR. A. B. CATES SAYS DEFENDANT WAS SANE.

Detective Helin Says Brennan Told Him of Wife's Intense Jealousy of Children, and Tommy Brennan Tells of His Father's Significant Advice to Him Regarding the Murder.

As predicted, County Attorney Al J. Smith paid but little attention to the defendant's insanity theory in the Brennan trial yesterday afternoon. Only one out of the three state's medical experts was called to the stand. Dr. A. B. Cates, a member of the state university faculty, and one of the best-known physicians in his line in the state, testified positively that Mrs. Brennan was, in his opinion, perfectly sane on the night of Nov. 3, when she is alleged to have committed the murder.

Mr. Smith was satisfied with this testimony, and after calling Detective Ed Helin he ended his case with a body blow to the defense in the testimony of little Tommy Brennan, the stepson of the defendant, who swore that his father had told him that the children were dead; that he could not bring them back to life, and that he (Tommy) "needn't know anything about it."

The Closing Evidence.

Yesterday afternoon's closing evidence: Mr. Smith, on cross-examination of Dr. Clark, said: "You have never been a specialist in the treatment of insane people?" "No, sir."

"Did you ever treat an insane patient?" "Yes, sir."

"How many?" "Probably a dozen."

"Men or women?" "Both."

"Do you believe all persons who commit murder are insane?" "Practically all of them." The witness then asked counsel if he had said murder or suicide.

"I was talking about murder," said Mr. Smith.

"Then I want to answer no," Dr. A. B. Cates, was called in rebuttal by Mr. Smith.

Cor. 9th Ave. S and 6th St.
Phone—N.W. 2255, T.C. 1374

"Doctor, have you made a specialty of obstetrics?" "Yes, sir."

"In your experience have you met with gestational insanity?" "Yes."

"Have you attended some such cases?" "Yes, sir."

"Have you listened to Stella Brennan's testimony in this trial?" "Yes, sir."

"Have you examined her today?" "Yes, sir."

"Did you examine her as to her condition?" "Yes, sir."

"The witness detailed the result of his examination."

"Is this defendant in a delicate condition?"

"I was not able to determine with perfect positiveness whether she is or not."

"From your observation of this defendant and from the statement of the testimony I have just made have you an opinion as to whether she was sane or insane at the time of committing this murder?" "I have."

Not Insane.

"Was she insane?" "She was not."

On cross-examination Mr. Cary attempted to tempt the witness on medical expressions and the different forms of insanity, but failed.

"There is such a thing as insanity of gestation?" "Yes, sir."

"Is it a fact that a woman suffering from this form of insanity can go up in the middle of the night and commit an act that they never know anything about?" "I think not."

Mr. Smith on re-direct examination asked:

"In cases of gestational insanity the insanity would continue, would it not?" "Yes, sir."

"Are not women less liable to become insane when in a delicate condition than any other time?" "That is the general rule."

Doctor, you are the professor of obstetrics at the university?" "Yes, sir."

What Brennan Said.

Detective Edward Helin was the next witness.

"Did you have a conversation between 7 and 8 on the Saturday evening following the murder with James Brennan?" "Yes, sir."

"Did he not then state to you that when he went downstairs from his rooms on the evening of Nov. 3 that his little daughter ran up to him and, throwing her arms around his neck, kissed him good-by, and did he not then state that he looked up and saw this defendant looking at him from her window?" "Yes, sir."

"Did he then and there state to you that he could never take the children in his lap without making his wife jealous?" "Yes, sir."

"On the following Tuesday did not you and he have a conversation during a walk from the firehouse to 1622 Fifth avenue N?" "Yes, sir."

"Did he not then tell you that he could never take his children on his lap on account of his wife's jealousy?" "Yes, sir."

Mr. Cary, on cross-examination, asked:

"You are a detective, aren't you?" "Yes, sir."

"How many murder cases have you been in?" "I've been mixed up in most Minneapolis cases for the last four years."

Tommy's Strong Testimony.

Tommy Brennan was called by Mr. Smith.

"Do you remember a talk with your father at the house?" "Yes, sir."

"Didn't your father say to you at that time that the children were dead, that you needn't know anything about it?" "Yes, sir."

"You are still with Mr. Helin?" asked Mr. Cary on cross-examination.

"Yes, sir," said Tommy, and the evidence of the Brennan murder case was complete.

A CALIFORNIA TRIP

Winter Months Afford Best Opportunity for Merchants and Many Others to Get Away from Business.

From the Commercial Bulletin, Minneapolis, Saturday, Dec. 2, 1905.

Hundreds of people who read this paper are planning a trip to the west coast and a stay of a few weeks at least in lower California.

Winter is a vacation season and California the vacation land.

Which way shall we go? That is the question many are asking now. Right here the "Omaha Road" comes forward with a through car service to California unsurpassed in the history of railway travel.

Three times each week a through tourist car leaves the twin cities over the "Omaha" line for southern California. One goes by Omaha, Ogden, Sacramento, San Francisco and down the coast to Los Angeles. Another goes by Omaha, Kansas City and thence over the Santa Fe through Southeastern Colorado, and across New Mexico and Arizona to Los Angeles.

A third route, which is already proving decidedly popular, is by Omaha, Ogden, Salt Lake City and down the New San Pedro and Los Angeles road recently constructed and known as the Clark road. This route takes the tourist through a country full of interesting features and much of it but little known until this railway was built. It runs just below the famous Death Valley region and its equally famous mining camps, crossing parts of Utah, Nevada and California. This is the shortest through car route between the twin cities and lower California.

This gives the tourist choice of three splendid routes, the best through car service, and all at a reasonable price. The traveler has no changes to make after leaving the twin cities. These cars, their appointments and the service in every respect, are all that the most particular and critical travelers can desire. Home comforts are there and, as a successful North Dakota merchant recently said to the writer, "You always meet nice people traveling on the Omaha's tourist sleeping cars."

Tourist cars are the preference of those numerous people who wish to travel comfortably at reasonable cost. Each car has its colored porter in charge. Cars are vestibuled, lighted with gas, carpeted, have comfortable mattresses, regular Pullman blankets and pillows, bath curtains and clean bed linen is furnished each night. These cars are heated in the same manner as first-class Pullman sleepers, except that each heater is supplied with an enclosed oven in which coffee, tea, etc., may be warmed, and adjoining is a sink with hot water faucet.

General Passenger Agent T. W. Rosdale of the Omaha road, who has given the subject of California travel much study and who has been greatly instrumental in bringing the through car service to its present high standard, is much pleased with the splendid endorsement the traveling public is giving the Omaha's fine arrangements for California travel. He believes that travel California-ward will show a big increase this season.

INVOICING brings to light many small, miscellaneous lots of desirable goods that we would rather not list in our stock sheets. Then, too, there are quantities of beautiful holiday merchandise that we would rather not carry over another ten months. Saturday the whole store will be overflowing with chances to save money and "Christmas money" can be spent to the best advantage. We call special attention to the prices on furs.
