QUIET IN IRELAND CAUSES WONDER

Absence of Pre-Election Excitement Unprecedented—Chamberlain Howled Down.

Dublin, Ireland, Jan. 5.—The only part of the United Kingdom where there is no electoral excitement is Ireland. Hitherto the experience has been otherwise.
 The foregoing is William O'Brien's comment on the strange situation presented in Ireland. It has no precedent in the history of parliamentary elections. The number of boroughs in which candidates have no opposition is without parallel. The phenomenon is variously accounted for—by the nationalists as exhibiting the unchallenged influence of the Irish League, and by the unionists as proving that the nationalists have the fullest confidence that the Irish party holds Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman in its grip.

Chamberlain Howled Down.
 London, Jan. 5.—The political campaign is now warming up. Already a number of disorderly meetings have been reported, and last night when Joseph Chamberlain attempted to address a mass meeting at Derby in support of the unionist candidates, he was howled down from the beginning and was unable to secure a hearing.
 Winston Spencer Churchill, speaking at Manchester tonight, said that the first act of the liberal government, should it be returned to power, would be to notify the colonial government that no conference could consider a preferential scheme based on the protective taxation of foodstuffs, and that as soon as possible the government would give the Transvaal a representative democratic administration.

Engines and Boats.
 An attractive exhibit of motor boats, launches, rowboats and canoes is being installed by the Globe Iron Works Company at their new showrooms, 204 Nicollet and 205 Hennepin avenues. A full line of White gasoline engines from 2 to 40-horse power; marine and also stationary types will be on hand. The engines will be connected up and operated, so that any one interested can see and know before buying.
 Catalogues of engine and boat lists will be sent upon request to out-of-town inquirers.
 Pain from indigestion, dyspepsia and too hearty eating is relieved at once by taking one of Carter's Little Liver Pills immediately after dinner. Don't forget this.

STEWART SPEAKS SUNDAY.

Oliver W. Stewart, who speaks in this city in East Side churches on Sunday morning and evening of this week, is in white and constant demand for his Chautauque platform and for popular lectures. Stewart, who speaks on his chosen subject of the liquor traffic and its remedy. In this particular he resembles the peerless Wendell Phillips, whose fiery and indomitable will was such as to give him constant employment filling engagements on the lecture platform in the palmiest days of that institution, and where he faced and invariably left them friendly and enthusiastic. While still considerably on the sunny side of 40, Mr. Stewart has traveled from coast to coast and has been a power nationally in the fight against the liquor traffic for more than ten years, having been five years chairman of the national prohibition committee.
 His style as a speaker, while more vigorous and informal than that of Mr. Phillips, reminds one of the great abolition orator in at least two particulars. It is open, frank and friendly; and it compels attention and holds interest from the first sentence.
 Mr. Stewart will be at Trinity M. E. church Sunday morning and at the First M. E. church in the evening.
