“Women are apt to see chiefly the defects of a man of talent and the merits of a fool.”—Anonymous.

Mrs. H. E. Partridge of 15 Groveland terrace entertained at luncheon this afternoon for her niece, Miss Marian Partridge. Covers were laid for twelve and the menu was of the younger society women. Pink and white were the colors chosen for the dining room. The center of the table had a low mound of pink roses and lilacs of the valley, and every nook and corner had its floral appointments of cut glass and silver. Miss Partridge's place was marked by a large bouquet of lilacs of the valley. During luncheon a program of music was given in the music room. The reception room was decorated with poinsettia blossoms.

Mrs. Thomas P. Pease of 2412 Girard avenue S. was hostess at a six-hand euchre party this afternoon and entertained fifty guests. The green room with its pretty decorations and hangings was in red with clusters of yellow tulips harmonized with the furnishings in the reception room and in the dining room, which has red as its color note, bright poinsettia blossoms were used. After the games a luncheon was served. Mrs. Pease was assisted by her daughter, Miss Gladys Pease. Tomorrow evening Mr. and Mrs. Pease will give a dinner of eighteen covers.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jordan were the honor guests at a charming musical which Mr. and Mrs. George Wright Peavey gave at their residence, 2214 Park avenue, last evening. The “Paradise Garden” was presented by a group of artists and the beautiful music was never presented in a more pleasing form. In keeping with the occasion the decorations were elaborate and every nook and corner had its floral appointments. Over 200 invitations had been issued and the guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Peavey and Mrs. and Mrs. Jordan. Mrs. Peavey wore a gown of cloth of gold made princess fashion, with garniture of pale blue ribbon bows and garlands of pink roses. Mrs. Jordan was in an imported gown of white Alencon lace. They received in the drawing room, where the guests gathered for the musical. Red and green decorations gave touches of color to the handsome appointments and the singers stood in a setting of palms, ferns and glowing flowers. Miss Helen Kitchen, who comes from Leipzig and Berlin, was the pianist and his solos added in no small measure to the pleasure of the evening. Mrs. Edna Maters, a gown of Miss Inez Davies, Edward J. Moler and Clarence Meader were the singers. It was Mr. Meader's first appearance as a tenor and his singing was a very enjoyable feature.

After the program the guests gathered in groups thru the rooms or had supper in the dining room, where the decorations were in American Beauty roses and ferns. A net work of smilax and a bow of white ribbons were used and almost hid the walls in a tangle of green. Supper was served from small tables and each table had a shaded taper. Misses F. B. Heffelfinger, E. D. Blakely, Alfred Pillsbury, W. C. Heffelfinger, L. B. Newell, C. R. Lamb, F. B. Wells and Miss Jordan alternated at the chocolate and coffee urns. Punch was served from a bowl set in a basket hung with greens and luscious grapes.

Mrs. Frank T. Heffelfinger will give a dinner this evening at her home on Park avenue preceding the Cotillon club party. Miss Rebecca Semple will be the guest of honor.

Miss Mabel Buchanan, a bride of next week, is being entertained at a round of gaieties preceding her marriage. Miss Helen Mayo will entertain the bride and her eight bridesmaids this evening at her home, and Mrs. F. A. Sumner of 1149 Aldrich avenue N. will be at home for the young women Monday evening, when the rehearsal will be held. Miss Buchanan's eight bridesmaids will be the Misses McCormick, Sauk Center; Katherine Irwin, St. Paul; Nellie Wingate, Lillian Stevens, Helen Mayo, Mary Allen, Eva Saffel and Ella Parsons. There will be no other attendants at the wedding.

Yesterday afternoon the Delta Delta Deltas entertained delightfully at the home of Miss Grace Richards, receiving the young women of the city in honor of Miss Buchanan. The decorations were in red and white and the deep red of roses and carnations mingled with the snowy white of Roman hyacinths. A picture-guessing contest was one of the amusing features of the afternoon. Each guest brought a baby picture of herself and the naming of them aroused great amusement. The teachers of the Logan school gave a handsome luncheon for Miss Buchanan last week. Decorations of red and green beautified the table at which covers were laid for fifteen. Miss Marie Lynehan was hostess at a theater party Saturday afternoon, and Monday evening Miss Eva Saffel gave a parcel shower, entertaining fourteen guests for the bride.

The Delta Theta fraternity of the Central high school will give a dancing party at the home of the club. Thirty couples will be present and the decorations are to be in the fraternity colors, blue and gold, and the decorations of red and green and light refreshments were served by Miss Lyons and Miss Woodward from a daintily arranged table. The reception committee included the wives of the members of the session.

Monday evening the session of Stewart Memorial church gave a reception in the church parlors in honor of the 108 new members who were introduced by the pastor of the church, Rev. R. Vander Las, and the reception committee. During the evening an informal program was given by Melvin Campbell, Mrs. Brouard and Mrs. Landis. The decorations were in red and green and light refreshments were served by Miss Lyons and Miss Woodward from a daintily arranged table. The reception committee included the wives of the members of the session.

Miss Emma Norseth of Cottonwood, Minn., and Hjalmar Larsen of Granite Falls, Minn., were married yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the parlors of the Nicollet hotel. Rev. A. J. Kennedy of Boston, Mass., read the service in the presence of a small group of friends. The bride wore white crepe de chine over white silk and her flowers were bride roses. There were no attendants. Following the service a wedding supper was served and covers were laid for the guests who attended the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. J. Vernon Turner, Martin L. Pratt, Dr. and Mrs. N. H. Schjeldup and Mr. Kennedy. Mr. and Mrs. Larsen will remain a few days at the Nicollet and will then go to Granite Falls, where Mr. Larsen is in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Losee of 2780 Eighteenth avenue S. gave a housewarming Monday evening at their new home for a group of family friends. Miss Mand Losee assisted in receiving the thirty guests. A musical program was enjoyed and games were played. Professor Smith contributed piano selections and Mrs. Losee gave a program of songs. Mr. Griswold, Miss Russell and McClellan won the prizes in the contests. The rooms had a pretty Christmas decoration of greens and holly, and the refreshment table was decked with red flowers and ferns.

Tomorrow afternoon the Wells college girls will give their entertainment, “The Princess,” in the Auditorium annex, and the play will be repeated in the evening. The affair is by far the most attractive of the morning's offerings, and as the girls who take part are all prominent socialists, society is very much interested in their play, which is for the benefit of the Wells college fund. The girls who are home for the holidays will return to college the first of the week, so that this will really be their last gathering.

A group of young men who have an informal club for the purpose of giving a dancing party once a month, had their January gathering in Johnson hall last evening. L. P. Chute, George Burrill and M. E. Harrison had charge of the arrangements. About sixty-five couples enjoyed the program of sixteen numbers, which was followed by a supper.

A quiet wedding took place last evening at the home of Mrs. Harrison Blake, when their cousin, Miss Allie B. Gardner, and H. Nicholas Arntson were married. Miss Kate Brennan was the officiating minister and the service was read by Rev. Stanley Roberts in the presence of a group of guests. Mr. and Mrs. Arntson will be at home after Feb. 1 at 2007 Twenty-second avenue S.

Minneapolis people will be interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Clara Dickey and Ernest Duda. The wedding took place in Appleton, Minn., Thursday evening, Dec. 28. Miss Dickey was a teacher in the Emerson school for three years. Mr. Parsons is a graduate of Hamline university. He is now principal of the high school at Brookings, S. D., where he has taken his bride.
