

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

THE WOMEN'S CLUBS

Club Calendar.

MONDAY— Froebel club, Y. W. C. A. building, 4 p.m. Lecture, "Monk and Handicraft," Mrs. Robert Seymour, Mrs. W. L. Wolford, 87 Tenth street, 10:30 a.m. Tourists, public library building, 10 a.m. Authors' Study club, Mrs. G. L. Longfellow, 1427 West Thirty-sixth street, 2:30 p.m. Mothers' Circle of Prospect park, fathers' and mothers' meeting, Mrs. J. L. Gable, 15 Seymour avenue, evening. Club club, Mrs. C. E. Knapp, 2016 Girard avenue S, 2:30 p.m. Atawasis club, Mrs. T. A. Knight, 2804 Chicago avenue, 2:30 p.m. Columbian club, Mrs. S. L. Hechter, 1715 Fifth avenue S, 2:30 p.m. Executive board of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Wesley church, church parlors, 3 p.m. Kenwood Monday club, Mrs. Longbrake, 1909 Fremont avenue S, 2:30 p.m. Mothers' club of the Church of the Redeemer Sunday school, church parlors, 3 p.m. Board meeting, Women's Home Missionary society, Wesley church parlors, 3 p.m. Disco club, Mrs. W. W. Sykes, 77 Spruce place, 2:30 p.m. P. E. O., Mrs. Nellie Brenner, 2515 Third avenue S, evening. Arts and Crafts society, annual meeting, Mrs. Bert Lum, 1804 Park avenue, evening. Ladies' auxiliary of the Reformed Hebrew Temple, vestry room of the temple, 2:30 p.m.

France, will deliver his lecture, "La Bretagne chez les grands cervains du six siecles," April 16. Professor Ballot will follow the last of January by Professor F. R. LeRoux, who has been appointed one of the two lecturers in the United States between Boston and San Francisco. His subject will be "La Bretagne et ses legends," as that lecture has been almost unanimously chosen by the members of the alliance.

Rawlins Post Woman's Club. Elaborate preparations are being made by the women's club of Rawlins post for the reception, Wednesday evening, at Hotel Waverly, Mrs. Alexander Hughes, president; Mrs. A. M. Corey, secretary, and Mrs. M. L. Meeker, treasurer of the club, are to be the hostesses and will be assisted by the women of the club in entertaining the guests. During the evening a program of music and readings will be given by Mrs. T. A. Whitworth of Stillwater, pianist; Mrs. George Hughes, vocalist; Mrs. Albert Fisher-Rustell, vocalist; Mrs. C. M. Holt, reader, and James Walker, instrumentalist.

Reception for Dr. Stockham. A reception will be tendered Dr. A. B. Stockham Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth B. Ridges, 914 Seventh avenue S, to enable the doctor's many friends and admirers to meet her during her one day's stay in Minneapolis.

Officers Installed. Harmony chapter No. 8, O. E. S., will hold its installation on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, assisted by Mrs. Clara Huntington, as grand marshal, will install the following officers: worthy matron, Mrs. Edna M. Kirk; worthy patron, Ernest Pratt; associate matron, Mrs. Georgia Love; secretary, Mrs. Abbie L. Townsend; treasurer, Mrs. Melville Quayle; conductress, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis; associate conductress, Mrs. Ethel West; chaplain, Mrs. Milly Cray; Adah, Miss Gertrude Donohue;

College Club Tea. The College club tea will take place in the public library on Tuesday from 2 to 5 p.m. Mrs. Edna M. Kirk, John Balara, and Miss Grace Stilwell will act as reception committee.

Social Clubs and Lodges. The Snow Flake card club met with Mrs. Kleifgang, 1223 Fifth street, SE, last week. Prizes were won by Mmes. Mathey, Kleifgang and Kunz. The club will meet tomorrow with Mrs. Bergard, 79 Tenth avenue, SE. The Enterprise Social club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Van Meter, 3450 Ninth avenue S, when the annual election of officers will be held. The Donors club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Krafe, 513 Dupont avenue S. Bridal Veil lodge, D. of H., will give a club night Wednesday afternoon in the hall, Fourth street and Central avenue. The Wild Rose Cincin club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. C. E. Howe, 3118 Dupont avenue S. Clover Leaf Sunshine club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Gottfried Kuhlman, 323 Third street and Central avenue. Mrs. George Gardner of 2501 Dupont avenue S will entertain the Loring Park Euchre club tomorrow. The Silver Grays will give a dancing party Friday evening in Stevens hall, Stevens avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The Master Butchers' association will hold its first annual ball Thursday evening, Jan. 18, in Masonic Temple. Mrs. L. W. Everson contained the L. C. L. club at 3749 Fourth avenue S, Thursday afternoon, Mmes. Docking, Everson and Little won the Handy. After the installation of the officers presented Mrs. Allen with a handsome silver souvenir spoon. The retiring president, Mrs. Margery Mason, was presented with a gold past president badge as a souvenir. Mrs. Mason in turn presented the president of the sewing society of the corps, treasurer and secretary a beautiful silver spoon. The patriotic instructor of the corps, Nellie Bryant, received from the corps a silver gold corps pin. A brief program of musical and literary selections followed and the department president gave a short talk. Levi Butler post and corps held joint installation of officers last week. Mrs. Kate Carlin and Mrs. A. Erice acted as installing officers for the corps. The following officers were placed in office: president, Mrs. Nellie McEwen; senior vice-president, Mrs. Minnie McAlister; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Booth; secretary, Mrs. Addie Duntley; conductress, Mrs. Evangeline Acker; assistant conductress, Mrs. Kate Bretz; associate guard, Mrs. Saphronia Fryer; musician, Mrs. Stella Close; patriotic instructor, Louisa Meyer; junior correspondent, Mrs. Florence Shumway; color bearers, Mmes. Leonie Babecek, Kate Huntington, Cora Ralph and Mary Jassan; junior guard, Mrs. S. H. Towler; Miss Florence Bretz and Messrs. Clothier, Robbins and Hilton spoke. Refreshments were served.

The Butler Sewing society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. B. Babecek, 1830 Western avenue. Banner lodge, D. of H., installed the following officers Thursday: chief of honor, Mrs. Carlson; lady of honor, Lottie Gordon; C. of C., Mrs. Jennie Cronch; usher, Mrs. Edna M. Kirk; Edith Anderson; Rose Gunning; receiver, Mrs. M. Boffinger; inside watch, Miss McKusky; outside watch, Caroline Peterson; retiring chief of honor, Julia Anderson; captain of drill team, O. D. Hoffman; pianist, May Redmond. The installing officer was the grand chief of the order, Myrtle L. Sprague, assisted by Elizabeth Schroeder and Frances Buell Olson. Mrs. Dora Burgess presented the installing officer with a piece of hand-painted china.

James Bryant W. R. C. will install its new officers Friday evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Harvey, 141 W. Lake street. The officers to be installed by Mrs. Ida K. Martin are as follows: President, Mrs. Eugene Dennis; senior vice-president, Mrs. C. M. Holt; president, Mrs. Nellie Rudloff; chaplain, Mrs. K. Nichols; treasurer, Mrs. S. Whitney; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Day; press officer, Mrs. Susan M. H. Mers; Mmes. May Sprague, Celia Shumway, Mary Kelley, Huston, Mrs. Martin was presented with a souvenir spoon and Mrs. Porter, with a handsome watch with a bouquet of pink carnations and a souvenir pin. The next corps meeting will be Jan. 16.

The next meeting of the Women's association of the Church of the Redeemer will be held at the home of Mrs. Emma A. Crosby, 624 Tenth street S, Friday, Jan. 12. The paper will be given by Mrs. David F. Simpson on "Contact of the Ancient Jews with Other People." The usual program of individual exercises will be given. The paper will be devoted to the Blackman home in Japan.

Among the Clubs. The Woman's Literary club, of St. Peter, Minn., has petitioned the city council for a skating rink for the young people. The women's club of Sleepy Eye, Minn., discussed forestry at its holiday meeting and after the program had a Christmas tree. The next meeting of the Women's club of Sleepy Eye, Minn., will be held in two to three months no less than two state federations of women's clubs have been addressed by their respective governors, who, in addition to commending the work of the clubs, recommended that they strive for the ballot in the future. Surely this is a new turn of affairs.

The Knoxville chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held its first to take official action on the recommendation of President Roosevelt in his annual message to Congress in regard to the decoration of Confederate graves by the government. It unanimously adopted a resolution of approval. After retiring in its preamble how President McKinley in his Atlanta speech first made the suggestion. Club women of Dallas have combined with the Dallas Commercial club to settle the servant problem in Dallas. It will, according to present plans, be settled by the direct importation of Scandinavian women, who, according to statistics, outnumber the men twenty to one, and are willing to emigrate. Mrs. Moore Murdock, club woman and social leader, expects to make the journey to Europe, to get the first party of emigrants. She will be accompanied by others, either of the women's clubs or the commercial clubs. One of the oldest club presidents is Mrs. Mary E. McKinley, in St. John, Mich., who recently celebrated her eighty-third birthday. Her club will not allow a resignation, but relieves her of all duties except advisory ones. The first woman to be appointed on a school board of the Cherokee Nation was Mrs. W. A. Archer, who received her appointment from the recently deceased Chief Rogers. She has decided not to take her place until the interior department decides the present controversy.

The Fleur de Lis Cincin club will meet with Mrs. Charles Smith, Tuesday afternoon, at 2705 Grand avenue. The Sheridan club of the East Side will give a skating party Friday evening in the Casino rink, Washington and Eighteenth avenues N. The club-house will be open that evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The Notable Cincin club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Davies, 2920 Aldrich avenue. Mrs. Fractor of 2825 Bloomington avenue will be hostess at the next meeting. Lorraine Social club will meet with Mrs. Charles Mathews, 60 Thirteenth street S, Tuesday afternoon. Butler Sewing society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Leoline Babecek, 1830 Western avenue. The Enterprise Social club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Van Meter, 3450 Ninth avenue S, when the annual election of officers will be held. The Donors club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Krafe, 513 Dupont avenue S. Bridal Veil lodge, D. of H., will give a club night Wednesday afternoon in the hall, Fourth street and Central avenue. The Wild Rose Cincin club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. C. E. Howe, 3118 Dupont avenue S. Clover Leaf Sunshine club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Gottfried Kuhlman, 323 Third street and Central avenue. Mrs. George Gardner of 2501 Dupont avenue S will entertain the Loring Park Euchre club tomorrow. The Silver Grays will give a dancing party Friday evening in Stevens hall, Stevens avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The Master Butchers' association will hold its first annual ball Thursday evening, Jan. 18, in Masonic Temple. Mrs. L. W. Everson contained the L. C. L. club at 3749 Fourth avenue S, Thursday afternoon, Mmes. Docking, Everson and Little won the favours. The club will be entertained by Mrs. C. Day, 3855 Blaisdell avenue, Thursday. The Bachelor club will give a dance Wednesday evening at the Third Ward Republican hall, Aldrich and Plymouth avenues N. General F. Seibel will be master of ceremonies. Mrs. Fabin of 715 Fremont avenue N will entertain the Roosevelt Cincin club Wednesday. Mrs. William Lobdell, the retiring chief of honor, gave a delightful reception for her official staff of Banner lodge, No. 22, Degree of Honor, Wednesday afternoon, at her home, 2804 Thirty-second avenue S. It was a pink reception, as the color of the order is pink, and the rooms were hung with pink draperies and bunting. The greatest cincin was played and the prizes were won by Mmes. Grouch, Hoffman and Blake. Following the games refreshments were served from 7 to 11 p.m. Present were Mmes. Baynie, Carlson, Gordon, Crummy, Broffenmeyer, Blake, Croce, Marlett, Peterson, Bissinger, Ebed, Hoffman, and Mrs. Maud L. Williams of Tacoma, Wash.

Club Notes. An all-day's meeting of the Baptist Mission Union will be held in Trinity Baptist church, Ninth street and DuPont avenue, Tuesday. A basket lunch will be served at 4 p.m. Royal Workers of Fern camp, R. N. No. 1, will meet Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Carlsson, 318 Eleventh street S. The annual meeting of the Arts and Crafts society will be held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Bert Lum, 1808 Park avenue. Officers for the coming year will be elected and the reports of the society will be read. A social hour will follow the meeting. The Froebel club will have a treat tomorrow at 4 p.m., when Harrington W. Beard will give an illustrated lecture, "Marlett, in America," in the Y. M. C. A. assembly hall. People who are interested but who are not members of the club will be admitted on payment of a small fee. Mrs. Robert Seymour will give a talk, "Monk and Handicraft," tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., at the home of Mrs. W. L. Wolford, 87 Tenth street S, and a program of music and readings will be given. Mrs. S. H. Towler, Miss Florence Bretz and Messrs. Clothier, Robbins and Hilton spoke. Refreshments were served.

The Butler Sewing society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. B. Babecek, 1830 Western avenue. Banner lodge, D. of H., installed the following officers Thursday: chief of honor, Mrs. Carlson; lady of honor, Lottie Gordon; C. of C., Mrs. Jennie Cronch; usher, Mrs. Edna M. Kirk; Edith Anderson; Rose Gunning; receiver, Mrs. M. Boffinger; inside watch, Miss McKusky; outside watch, Caroline Peterson; retiring chief of honor, Julia Anderson; captain of drill team, O. D. Hoffman; pianist, May Redmond. The installing officer was the grand chief of the order, Myrtle L. Sprague, assisted by Elizabeth Schroeder and Frances Buell Olson. Mrs. Dora Burgess presented the installing officer with a piece of hand-painted china.

James Bryant W. R. C. will install its new officers Friday evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Harvey, 141 W. Lake street. The officers to be installed by Mrs. Ida K. Martin are as follows: President, Mrs. Eugene Dennis; senior vice-president, Mrs. C. M. Holt; president, Mrs. Nellie Rudloff; chaplain, Mrs. K. Nichols; treasurer, Mrs. S. Whitney; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Day; press officer, Mrs. Susan M. H. Mers; Mmes. May Sprague, Celia Shumway, Mary Kelley, Huston, Mrs. Martin was presented with a souvenir spoon and Mrs. Porter, with a handsome watch with a bouquet of pink carnations and a souvenir pin. The next corps meeting will be Jan. 16.

The next meeting of the Women's association of the Church of the Redeemer will be held at the home of Mrs. Emma A. Crosby, 624 Tenth street S, Friday, Jan. 12. The paper will be given by Mrs. David F. Simpson on "Contact of the Ancient Jews with Other People." The usual program of individual exercises will be given. The paper will be devoted to the Blackman home in Japan.

Among the Clubs. The Woman's Literary club, of St. Peter, Minn., has petitioned the city council for a skating rink for the young people. The women's club of Sleepy Eye, Minn., discussed forestry at its holiday meeting and after the program had a Christmas tree. The next meeting of the Women's club of Sleepy Eye, Minn., will be held in two to three months no less than two state federations of women's clubs have been addressed by their respective governors, who, in addition to commending the work of the clubs, recommended that they strive for the ballot in the future. Surely this is a new turn of affairs.

The Knoxville chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held its first to take official action on the recommendation of President Roosevelt in his annual message to Congress in regard to the decoration of Confederate graves by the government. It unanimously adopted a resolution of approval. After retiring in its preamble how President McKinley in his Atlanta speech first made the suggestion. Club women of Dallas have combined with the Dallas Commercial club to settle the servant problem in Dallas. It will, according to present plans, be settled by the direct importation of Scandinavian women, who, according to statistics, outnumber the men twenty to one, and are willing to emigrate. Mrs. Moore Murdock, club woman and social leader, expects to make the journey to Europe, to get the first party of emigrants. She will be accompanied by others, either of the women's clubs or the commercial clubs. One of the oldest club presidents is Mrs. Mary E. McKinley, in St. John, Mich., who recently celebrated her eighty-third birthday. Her club will not allow a resignation, but relieves her of all duties except advisory ones. The first woman to be appointed on a school board of the Cherokee Nation was Mrs. W. A. Archer, who received her appointment from the recently deceased Chief Rogers. She has decided not to take her place until the interior department decides the present controversy.

The Fleur de Lis Cincin club will meet with Mrs. Charles Smith, Tuesday afternoon, at 2705 Grand avenue. The Sheridan club of the East Side will give a skating party Friday evening in the Casino rink, Washington and Eighteenth avenues N. The club-house will be open that evening from 8 to 10 o'clock. The Notable Cincin club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Davies, 2920 Aldrich avenue. Mrs. Fractor of 2825 Bloomington avenue will be hostess at the next meeting. Lorraine Social club will meet with Mrs. Charles Mathews, 60 Thirteenth street S, Tuesday afternoon. Butler Sewing society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Leoline Babecek, 1830 Western avenue. The Enterprise Social club will meet Thursday with Mrs. Van Meter, 3450 Ninth avenue S, when the annual election of officers will be held. The Donors club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. Krafe, 513 Dupont avenue S. Bridal Veil lodge, D. of H., will give a club night Wednesday afternoon in the hall, Fourth street and Central avenue. The Wild Rose Cincin club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. C. E. Howe, 3118 Dupont avenue S. Clover Leaf Sunshine club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Gottfried Kuhlman, 323 Third street and Central avenue. Mrs. George Gardner of 2501 Dupont avenue S will entertain the Loring Park Euchre club tomorrow. The Silver Grays will give a dancing party Friday evening in Stevens hall, Stevens avenue and Twenty-sixth street. The Master Butchers' association will hold its first annual ball Thursday evening, Jan. 18, in Masonic Temple. Mrs. L. W. Everson contained the L. C. L. club at 3749 Fourth avenue S, Thursday afternoon, Mmes. Docking, Everson and Little won the

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Evans, Summit avenue, announce the engagement of their niece, Miss Blanche Josephine Luffkin, to Joseph William Cook of New York. The wedding will take place in the spring. Mr. and Mrs. Elwood W. Shirk of Los Angeles, Cal., formerly of St. Paul, announce the engagement of their daughter Mabel to Leonard W. Rolleston of St. Paul. The wedding will take place Jan. 2 at the bride's home in Los Angeles. Rolleston and his bride will reside in St. Paul.

Announcements have been received in St. Paul of the marriage of Hubert H. Hammer to Miss Eva M. Surface, at Manilla, P. I. The wedding took place Nov. 28. Mr. Hammer was a volunteer in the late war, going with the Minnesota boys to the Philippines. After the close of the war he obtained a clerical position with the government, and at present is holding a position in the consular department in Manila. He is the son of Rev. George Hammer of St. Paul Park. Mrs. Josephine Bowling of Summit avenue will give a dancing party Tuesday evening.

Mrs. B. H. Evans of Summit avenue will give a dancing party Friday for Misses Frouty, Black and Cooke. The Misses Schlick, Summit avenue, have issued invitations for a small bridge party Tuesday, Jan. 16. The second assembly was given Thursday evening in Kamaley's hall. The committee, Miss John Field, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gordon and Ethel L. Shep, Wednesday evening for Los Angeles, Cal. to spend the remainder of the winter for the cottillon, which was led by Harrison G. Foster. A dinner was given at the Minnesota club before the assembly by the members of the committee.

A dinner dance, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Driscoll, was given Wednesday evening at the Country club by Misses Lucile Davis, Marian Wheaton, Lorena Abbott, Barrows, Mary O'Brien, Magoffin, Rachel O'Brien, Alice Maxfield, McIntyre, Helen Cooper, Esther McDavitt, Elinor Outler, Cooke, Adelaide Warren, Christine Burns and Forest. There were thirty-six guests. A cottillon was danced the latter part of the evening. Mrs. Charles Haas and Mrs. Michael T. Ryan, George street, have issued invitations for a reception to be given Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 17. Miss Ruberta Gotzian of Portland avenue gave an informal tea on Tuesday for her niece, Miss Theodora Schurmeier.

A delightful New Year's breakfast was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Hersey, on Summit avenue. Poinsettias and scarlet bells stood out in beautiful relief against a background of southern smilax and palms. Mrs. Hersey was assisted in receiving by a large group of women. Mrs. J. P. Frye of Ashland avenue gave a New Year's day to introduce her daughter, Miss Adine Frye, to her circle of friends and acquaintances. Mmes. Nathaniel P. Langford, Samuel E. Van Sant, John D. Lawler and John W. Willis assisted in the dining room, where the decoration of the table was in bow knots of roses and southern smilax. Miss Judson and Miss Ebeckman served the punch. A number of other friends and a group of debutantes also assisted the hostess. Miss Frye was in a frock of white flowered silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hawkins of Spokane, Wash., who have been the guests of General and Mrs. M. D. Flower, Ashland avenue, have returned home. Mrs. F. V. McArthur of Chicago and Mrs. C. P. Schewey of Indiana are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Quick, Oakland avenue. John Allen, Summit avenue, left Wednesday evening for Los Angeles, Cal. to spend the remainder of the winter with his mother and sister. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jones left Thursday evening for Seattle, Wash., to reside. Judge and Mrs. Robert C. Hine of the Aberdeen will leave this evening for California. Mrs. Frank L. Dodson of the Marlborough left Friday for California. Miss Fiedler of New York, who has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell, Dayton avenue, left Friday evening for her home. Mrs. Bukard Hurd of the Angus has returned from Mount Clemens, Mich. Mrs. W. H. Sashburn, Virginia avenue, has gone to St. Louis. Miss Rachel Abbott, Dayton avenue, left Friday evening for Bryn Mawr, Pa. Mrs. Emerson W. Post of Summit avenue will leave the middle of the month for the south. Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Evans of Dayton avenue will leave this week for South America. Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Rice of Summit avenue have gone to Chicago to make their home. Allan Goodhue of Chicago is the guest of Mrs. Louis H. Maxfield of Goodrich avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wattle, who visited Dr. and Mrs. Haldor Sveve, left Thursday evening for their home in Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Howard James have arrived home from Chicago and are at the Aberdeen. Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft Hill of Poughkeepsie were in St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mrs. Hill's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weyerhauser of Summit avenue. Mrs. Randolph Weyerhauser with her young daughter will leave the middle of January for Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kolman will leave Wednesday for California. Mrs. W. B. Dean and Miss Dean left last week for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Conrad were over from St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bean, W. Olive street. Miss Myrtle Reed returned to Minneapolis Monday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Lowell school. The annual Epiphany party of Ascension church parish was held Wednesday for California. Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Fifth street S. Mrs. George S. Millard and sons are at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. George Chase of Minneapolis and his friend Frank Sandstrom of Chicago were in Stillwater New Year's as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Chase. Miss Lyra McManus of Duluth has been the guest of Miss Laura Sawyer. Miss Gertrude McLaurin has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell.

STILLWATER. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Conrad were over from St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bean, W. Olive street. Miss Myrtle Reed returned to Minneapolis Monday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Lowell school. The annual Epiphany party of Ascension church parish was held Wednesday for California. Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Fifth street S. Mrs. George S. Millard and sons are at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. George Chase of Minneapolis and his friend Frank Sandstrom of Chicago were in Stillwater New Year's as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Chase. Miss Lyra McManus of Duluth has been the guest of Miss Laura Sawyer. Miss Gertrude McLaurin has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell.

STILLWATER. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Conrad were over from St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bean, W. Olive street. Miss Myrtle Reed returned to Minneapolis Monday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Lowell school. The annual Epiphany party of Ascension church parish was held Wednesday for California. Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Fifth street S. Mrs. George S. Millard and sons are at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. George Chase of Minneapolis and his friend Frank Sandstrom of Chicago were in Stillwater New Year's as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Chase. Miss Lyra McManus of Duluth has been the guest of Miss Laura Sawyer. Miss Gertrude McLaurin has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell.

STILLWATER. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Conrad were over from St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bean, W. Olive street. Miss Myrtle Reed returned to Minneapolis Monday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Lowell school. The annual Epiphany party of Ascension church parish was held Wednesday for California. Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Fifth street S. Mrs. George S. Millard and sons are at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. George Chase of Minneapolis and his friend Frank Sandstrom of Chicago were in Stillwater New Year's as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Chase. Miss Lyra McManus of Duluth has been the guest of Miss Laura Sawyer. Miss Gertrude McLaurin has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell.

STILLWATER. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Conrad were over from St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bean, W. Olive street. Miss Myrtle Reed returned to Minneapolis Monday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Lowell school. The annual Epiphany party of Ascension church parish was held Wednesday for California. Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Fifth street S. Mrs. George S. Millard and sons are at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. George Chase of Minneapolis and his friend Frank Sandstrom of Chicago were in Stillwater New Year's as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Chase. Miss Lyra McManus of Duluth has been the guest of Miss Laura Sawyer. Miss Gertrude McLaurin has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell.

STILLWATER. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Conrad were over from St. Paul to spend New Year's with Mr. and Mrs. Will Bean, W. Olive street. Miss Myrtle Reed returned to Minneapolis Monday evening to resume her duties as teacher in the Lowell school. The annual Epiphany party of Ascension church parish was held Wednesday for California. Mrs. Robert Slaughter, Fifth street S. Mrs. George S. Millard and sons are at San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. George Chase of Minneapolis and his friend Frank Sandstrom of Chicago were in Stillwater New Year's as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Chase. Miss Lyra McManus of Duluth has been the guest of Miss Laura Sawyer. Miss Gertrude McLaurin has been visiting Mrs. Stanford Newell.

Local Biennial Plans. The local biennial board of the general federation of women's clubs will meet Friday in the Commercial club, St. Paul, and it was decided definitely to hold the meetings next May in the army, which has a seating capacity of 6,000. The board will meet the first Friday of every month and at the next meeting the rest of the committees, those on badges, carriages, celebration credentials, hospitality, platform, communication, program, publication, resolutions, tickets, transportation, ushers and pages will be appointed. Mmes. C. E. Furness and Archibald McLaren have been appointed chairman and vice chairman of the committee on receptions. Mrs. Herbert Davis, chairman of the committee on decorations, and Miss Long, chairman of the press committee. An advisory committee was elected, consisting of Miss Margaret J. Evans, Northfield; Mrs. E. M. La Penotiere and Mrs. L. P. William of Minneapolis; Mrs. F. S. Allen, Dodge Center; Mrs. J. L. Washington, Duluth; Mrs. W. B. Mitchell, St. Cloud; Mrs. G. O. Wilde, Fergus Falls; Mrs. H. L. Tomlinson, St. Peter; Mrs. Russell R. Dorr presided at the meeting.

Afro-American Federation. The Federation of Afro-American clubs of Minnesota will meet in the Pilgrim Baptist church, St. Paul, Thursday, Feb. 8. It will be an all-day meeting and will celebrate the first anniversary of the organization. It is the purpose of the federation to build a home for old people, either in Minneapolis or St. Paul, and this proposition will be one of the programs of the women's work, will be discussed. Fifteen clubs have joined the federation.

Rea Circle Ladies of G. A. R. At Mrs. J. J. Fritter's Home. John P. Rea Circle No. 69, L. of G. A. R., installed officers at the last meeting in the following order: President, Helen Fritter, senior vice president, Helen Hilton; junior vice president, Mrs. Winchester; treasurer, Hannah Turnell; secretary, Hattie M. Mohler; conductress, Addie Pirkins;

tion during the first year of its existence and out of these six are from Minneapolis. The constitution and by-laws of the federation will be distributed among the club members at the anniversary meeting. Mrs. Ione E. Gibbs of Minneapolis is the president, Mrs. L. D. Hickman is the state organizer, and the two are uniting in their efforts to further the interests of the federation. Mrs. Mattie Wade is the associate editor and at the meeting an effort will be made to vote for a monthly federation publication. Just at present the women of the Afro-American clubs contribute many interesting articles to the "National Notes," a paper edited by Mrs. Booker T. Washington and published by the national federation.

Federation of Corps. The Federation of Corps was entertained Thursday afternoon by Morgan corps. Mrs. Wright, chairman of the relief committee, reported that $122.62 had been spent during the year in relief work. A program of music and recitations was given by Miss Bertha Kneel and, Mmes. Morris, Ellis and Myrtle Schussler. The federation will be entertained by Appomattox corps the first Thursday in February in the hall, 1427 Franklin avenue S.

L'Alliance Francaise. Professor Edward P. Baillet, head of the French department of the Northwestern university, will lecture Friday evening in the Church of the Redeemer lecture rooms, on "Le Drama de Mitterand" before the local branch of L'Alliance Francaise. Professor Anatole Le Braz, the official lecturer from gram of music and readings will be given by Mrs. T. A. Whitworth of Stillwater, pianist; Mrs. George Hughes, vocalist; Mrs. Albert Fisher-Rustell, vocalist; Mrs. C. M. Holt, reader, and James Walker, instrumentalist.

MRS. RUSSELL R. DORR, President of the Local Biennial Board.

Reception for Dr. Stockham. A reception will be tendered Dr. A. B. Stockham Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ruth B. Ridges, 914 Seventh avenue S, to enable the doctor's many friends and admirers to meet her during her one day's stay in Minneapolis.

Officers Installed. Harmony chapter No. 8, O. E. S., will hold its installation on Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Thomas, assisted by Mrs. Clara Huntington, as grand marshal, will install the following officers: worthy matron, Mrs. Edna M. Kirk; worthy patron, Ernest Pratt; associate matron, Mrs. Georgia Love; secretary, Mrs. Abbie L. Townsend; treasurer, Mrs. Melville Quayle; conductress, Mrs. Elizabeth Davis; associate conductress, Mrs. Ethel West; chaplain, Mrs. Milly Cray; Adah, Miss Gertrude Donohue; tion during the first year of its existence and out of these six are from Minneapolis. The constitution and by-laws of the federation will be distributed among the club members at the anniversary meeting. Mrs. Ione E. Gibbs of Minneapolis is the president, Mrs. L. D. Hickman is the state organizer, and the two are uniting in their efforts to further the interests of the federation. Mrs. Mattie Wade is the associate editor and at the meeting an effort will be made to vote for a monthly federation publication. Just at present the women of the Afro-American clubs contribute many interesting articles to the "National Notes," a paper edited by Mrs. Booker T. Washington and published by the national federation.

John P. Rea Circle No. 69, L. of G. A. R., installed officers at the last meeting in the following order: President, Helen Fritter, senior vice president, Helen Hilton; junior vice president, Mrs. Winchester; treasurer, Hannah Turnell; secretary, Hattie M. Mohler; conductress, Addie Pirkins;

Federation of Corps. The Federation of Corps was entertained Thursday afternoon by Morgan corps. Mrs. Wright, chairman of the relief committee, reported that $122.62 had been spent during the year in relief work. A program of music and recitations was given by Miss Bertha Kneel and, Mmes. Morris, Ellis and Myrtle Schussler. The federation will be entertained by Appomattox corps the first Thursday in February in the hall, 1427 Franklin avenue S.

L'Alliance Francaise. Professor Edward P. Baillet, head of the French department of the Northwestern university, will lecture Friday evening in the Church of the Redeemer lecture rooms, on "Le Drama de Mitterand" before the local branch of L'Alliance Francaise. Professor Anatole Le Braz, the official lecturer from guard, Mrs. Holmes; assistant conductress, Serpita Botum; Mrs. E. H. Lobdell by unanimous choice acted as the installing officer and she was assisted by the deputy president, Catherine A. Hoyt. After the installation, Mrs. Fritter presented Mrs. Lobdell with a handsome cutglass souvenir of the occasion in behalf of the assembled women.

Ruth, Miss Ade Donohue; Esther, Mrs. Anna Bean; Martha, Mrs. Margaret Friend; Electa, Mrs. Marion S. McNaught; marshal, Mrs. Flora E. Moore; organist, Mrs. Agnes Davis; warder, Mrs. Lydia Morse; sentinel, William McKinney. Division No. 2, ladies' auxiliary, and Division No. 3, A. O. H., will hold a joint installation of officers in their hall, 229 Central avenue, this afternoon at 2:30. Division No. 3 will meet at 1:30. An extensive program of vocal and instrumental music has been arranged and addresses will be given by prominent representatives of the order. Palestine chapter No. 112, Order of the Eastern Star, will have public installation of officers tomorrow evening in the commodory room, Masonic temple. The ceremonies will be performed by Elizabeth Thomas, worthy matron, assisted by Mary E. Walker as grand marshal, and Wilford C. Wilson as grand chaplain. George N. Morgan post and corps installed their officers Friday evening in the hall, Third street and Nicollet avenue. Mrs. Bertha A. Allen, past president of the corps, installed the officers in the following order: President, Margaret Shaw; vice-president, Susanna Bryant; junior vice-president, Carrie Nelson; secretary, Bertha Allen; treasurer, Anna Carter; chaplain, Adena Kneeland; conductor, Hattie Cheney; assistant conductor, Don Lewis; guard, Augusta Germand; assistant guard, Mary Clin; patriotic instructor, Bell Wheeler; press correspondent, Nellie Bryant; musician, Mirtle Schussler; color bearers, Rhoda Carpenter, Ella Fillmore, Fannie Hatch and Nellie

favours. The club will be entertained by Mrs. C. Day, 3855 Blaisdell avenue, Thursday. The Bachelor club will give a dance Wednesday evening at the Third Ward Republican hall, Aldrich and Plymouth avenues N. General F. Seibel will be master of ceremonies. Mrs. Fabin of 715 Fremont avenue N will entertain the Roosevelt Cincin club Wednesday. Mrs. William Lobdell, the retiring chief of honor, gave a delightful reception for her official staff of Banner lodge, No. 22, Degree of Honor, Wednesday afternoon, at her home, 2804 Thirty-second avenue S. It was a pink reception, as the color of the order is pink, and the rooms were hung with pink draperies and bunting. The greatest cincin was played and the prizes were won by Mmes. Grouch, Hoffman and Blake. Following the games refreshments were served from 7 to 11 p.m. Present were Mmes. Baynie, Carlson, Gordon, Crummy, Broffenmeyer, Blake, Croce, Marlett, Peterson, Bissinger, Ebed, Hoffman, and Mrs. Maud L. Williams of Tacoma, Wash.

Club Notes. An all-day's meeting of the Baptist Mission Union will be held in Trinity Baptist church, Ninth street and DuPont avenue, Tuesday. A basket lunch will be served at 4 p.m. Royal Workers of Fern camp, R. N. No. 1, will meet Wednesday afternoon at Mrs. Carlsson, 318 Eleventh street S. The annual meeting of the Arts and Crafts society will be held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Bert Lum, 1808 Park avenue. Officers for the coming year will be elected and the reports of the society will be read. A social hour will follow the meeting. The Froebel club will have a treat tomorrow at 4 p.m., when Harrington W. Beard will give an illustrated lecture, "Marlett, in America," in the Y. M. C. A. assembly hall. People who are interested but who are not members of the club will be admitted on payment of a small fee. Mrs. Robert Seymour will give a talk, "Monk and Handicraft," tomorrow at 10:30 a.m., at the home of Mrs. W. L. Wolford, 87 Tenth street S, and a program of music and readings will be given. Mrs. S. H. Towler, Miss Florence Bretz and Messrs. Clothier, Robbins and Hilton spoke. Refreshments were served.

The Butler Sewing society will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. B. Babecek, 1830 Western avenue. Banner lodge, D. of H., installed the following officers Thursday: chief of honor, Mrs. Carlson; lady of honor, Lottie Gordon; C. of C., Mrs. Jennie Cronch; usher, Mrs. Edna M. Kirk; Edith Anderson; Rose Gunning; receiver, Mrs. M. Boffinger; inside watch, Miss McKusky; outside watch, Caroline Peterson; retiring chief of honor, Julia Anderson; captain of drill team, O. D. Hoffman; pianist, May Redmond. The installing officer was the grand chief of the order, Myrtle L. Sprague, assisted by Elizabeth Schroeder and Frances Buell Olson. Mrs. Dora Burgess presented the installing officer with a piece of hand-painted china.

James Bryant W. R. C. will install its new officers Friday evening at the home of Mrs. M. E. Harvey, 141 W. Lake street. The officers to be installed by Mrs. Ida K. Martin are as follows: President, Mrs. Eugene Dennis; senior vice-president, Mrs. C. M. Holt; president, Mrs. Nellie Rudloff; chaplain, Mrs. K. Nichols; treasurer, Mrs. S. Whitney; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Day; press officer, Mrs. Susan M. H. Mers; Mmes. May Sprague, Celia Shumway, Mary Kelley, Huston, Mrs. Martin was presented with a souvenir spoon and Mrs. Porter, with a handsome watch with a bouquet of pink carnations and a souvenir pin. The next corps meeting will be Jan. 16.

The next meeting of the Women's association of the Church of the Redeemer will be held at the home of Mrs. Emma A. Crosby, 624 Tenth street S, Friday, Jan. 12. The paper will be given by Mrs. David F. Simpson on "Contact of the Ancient Jews with Other People." The usual program of individual exercises will be given. The paper will be devoted to the Blackman home in Japan.

Among the Clubs. The Woman's Literary club, of St. Peter, Minn., has petitioned the city council for a skating rink for the young people. The women's club of Sleepy Eye, Minn., discussed forestry at its holiday meeting and after the program had a Christmas tree. The next meeting of the Women's club of Sleepy Eye, Minn., will be held in two to three months no less than two state federations of women's clubs have been addressed by their respective governors, who, in addition to commending the work of the clubs, recommended that they strive for the ballot in the future. Surely this is a new turn of affairs.

The Knoxville chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, held its first to take official action on the recommendation of President Roosevelt in his annual message to Congress in regard to the decoration of Confederate graves by the government. It unanimously adopted a resolution of approval. After retiring in its preamble how President McKinley in his Atlanta speech first made the suggestion. Club women of Dallas have combined with the Dallas Commercial club to settle the servant problem in Dallas. It will, according to present plans, be settled by the direct importation of Scandinavian women, who, according to statistics, outnumber the men