"Great women belong to history and to self-sacrifice."—Leigh Hunt.

Miss Nell Stanford, whose engagement to Frank Osborne Fernald of Livingston, Mont., was recently announced, was the guest of honor at a luncheon which Miss Nettie Kelle gave this afternoon at her home on Humboldt avenue S. The guests were a group of young women who were at Stanley Hall together. Red and white carnations furnished an attractive table decoration and instead of name cards favors which were suggestive of each guest's hobby marked the places.

Miss Ella Lillie, a bride of next week, will be the honor guest at two pretty affairs this week. Friday evening Miss Edna Leighton will give a dinner for her and for her fiancé, Arthur Campbell Leighton, at her home on Emerson avenue N, and on Saturday afternoon Mrs. Kath T. Green of 2329 Emerson avenue N, will give a thimble bee for the bride.

Thirty guests were present at the marriage of Miss Helen Kitzky and George K. Milkes of St. Paul, which took place at 6 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Kitzky, 909 West Franklin avenue. Rabbi Deinarad performed the service and Miss Deinarad played the wedding music. The rooms were decorated in green, pink and white. Roses and carnations were used in a setting of palms and ferns in the parlor, where the vows were exchanged, and in the living rooms were clusters of roses and ferns. The bride wore white Persian lawn made over white silk with trimmings of point lace. Her veil was fastened with a diamond butterfly, a gift of the bridegroom, and the bridal bouquet was of white roses. Miss Hazel D. Davidson, a niece of the bride, was the maid of honor, and was in pale pink radium silk over white tulle, and carried a cluster of pink roses. William Kitzky, a brother of the bride, was the best man and Mr. Kitzky gave his daughter in marriage. Following the ceremony a bride and groom were served at the Nicollet Hotel. The table decorations were in pink and white, both bride roses and carnations for a centerpiece. Covers were laid for forty.

Mr. and Mrs. Milkes left on a wedding tour. They will be at home at 909 West Franklin avenue after Feb. 1. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were B. Kitzky of St. Louis, O. Kitzky of Wadena, Minn., and Mrs. Fred Kitzky of Staples, Minn., Alexander Kitzky of New York, Mrs. Robert Kitzky of Blue Earth and Lewis Milkes of Chicago.

Miss Mabel Augustine left last evening for New York and she will sail Wednesday for Austria, where she will continue her studies under the direction of Sevek, Kubelik's teacher. Saturday afternoon a group of her friends gave a luncheon in Miss Augustine's honor at Donaldson's tea rooms.

A group of young men will give a sleigh ride this evening in honor of the J. L. D. Girls. The young people will drive to Merriam Park, where supper will be served, and there will be dancing.

Mrs. Linda Prussing Azemar of Graham Hall entertained the young women of the school union of Friday evening in the parlors of the students' dormitory building, when the Misses Julia and Helen Zanger will be hostesses.

Miss Harriet Ackland and James Ogilvie were married on New Year's day at Osseo. Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvie have returned from their honeymoon and are at home at 2510 Eleventh street S.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
Joseph Frank has gone east.
Mrs. Arthur Miller and son, Arleigh, of 1700 Hennepin avenue, will leave this evening for Chicago, and other guests were invited to spend the remainder of the winter months.

The Westminster Social circle will have an all day meeting at the church, 2105 Hennepin, on Saturday. A box lunch will be served at noon.

Minneapolis people at New York hotels are as follows: Waldorf, J. P. Quirk; Seville, D. C. Fardien; Broadway, H. P. Fetter; Bristol, W. C. Holland; C. McMillin; Buckingham, W. C. Whiting; DuPont-Holland, J. Millin; Bessie, K. F. Schuler; Grand Central, F. J. Goshel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Wright entertained the Merry Club club at dinner Friday evening. Cards were played and refreshments were served by Mrs. Wright and Mr. and Mrs. Lovell. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Carlston, 318 Eleventh street S.

Miss May Langan was the guest of honor at a surprise party given at her home, 2339 Cedar street, on Friday evening. Games were played and refreshments were served. Present were Misses Beulah and Edna Langan, Margaret McDavid, Cecil Smith, Lorene Egge, Anna Banet, Margaret Langan, Messrs. Henry Eggers, Harry Woods, Roy Savage, Walter Nolan, Frank Mead and Edward Burns.

Miss Pearl Gordon entertained a group of young people at her home on Thursday evening, at a New Year's dinner party. Lunch, a new game and musical entertainment, the amusements. Piano selections were given by Misses Frances Engstrom and Evelyn Dahl. Musical selections by Mrs. Gordon, Misses Engstrom, Susie Eggers, Elsie Lindahl, Evadne Wilson, Edna and Lillian Smith, and Stevens, Pearl Gordon, Messrs. Nelson, Lindaal, Mills, McAndrews, Dorsett, Mallory, Carpenter and Boyes.

Hats for the south can be found at Phillips.

MARRIED WRONG TWIN, SO HE ASKS DIVORCE
Special to The Journal.
Pittsburg, Jan. 8.—Hyde J. Summers, formerly of Pittsburg, now of Ocleth, N. C., has commenced proceedings to annul his marriage to his wife, Irene. He alleges he led the wrong girl to the altar.

Summers says he offered himself in marriage to Ruth Dekman and was accepted. Ruth, the complainant says, has a twin sister, and the two were identical in appearance. Summers cites an instance when Irene accompanied him to a theater in Buffalo as a joke, he believing she was Ruth. Several days after the wedding, Summers averts, he requested his wife to play the piano and sing for him. She played indifferently, he alleges, and could not sing. This aroused his suspicions, as he knew that Ruth possessed a clear soprano voice. On this statement he seeks to prove his wife is Irene and not Ruth. The defendant denies any error has been made and declares she can sing with ability. The whole case will pivot on this point. The hearing household remedy, Satin skin cream, should always be handy. 20c.

MATCH WOMAN ONCE DANCED WITH PRINCE

Journal Special Service.
Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 8.—Rowena Peyton, 76, whose cry of "matches" has been heard in Atlanta every day for years and who now dines on pneumonia, has documents to prove that she was once the dancing partner of the present King Edward VII of England. Miss Peyton was the daughter of Furse Peyton and dwelt in a stately mansion near Marianna, Fla. She was one of the belles at a great ball given in honor of the prince of Wales in New York at the time of his visit to this country. He asked whom she was. Miss Peyton, daughter of United States Senator Peyton of Florida, he was told. "I wish to dance with her," he said, and he did.

NEWS FROM THE SOLDIERS' HOME

Soldiers' Home, Minnehaha, Jan. 8.—Next to reading, for an occupation here, comes the exercise of walking. The feeble have accustomed routes and resting places. To the high bridge, which was recently said to be "150 feet long" in its principal span, we walk, and there watch the Minnehaha beneath, which just now plays peek-a-boo with rushing foam to hide again every few rods under a bridge of ice and often at a sharp angle dives beneath a gracefully curved and corniced snowbank. A short walk lands one on the platform of the pavilion, which is covered by the protective roof of the eaves. From rustic seats on the outside is a fine view of the Mississippi and its numerous isles, on one of which is a homestead with its buildings and stock of cattle, pigs and chickens—they did keep geese and ducks, but the boy said, "They run'd away."

As "909" we are walkers and every fair day pedestrians go out—bring their two to five miles' walk, preferring it to the car ride for a visit to Fort Snelling or Lake street, which is the boundary line of a base from the Home. Then we play "keepers."

Of all the games solitaire has its most worshipful devotees. There are many games. The "13" ranks highest. One says that the game has been played here eight or ten years, says he never won more than two or three times—but he lives on inspiration and expectation. "By the 7" is also a common game of solitaire, and carries a cluster of pink roses. William Kitzky, a brother of the bride, was the best man and Mr. Kitzky gave his daughter in marriage. Following the ceremony a bride and groom were served at the Nicollet Hotel. The table decorations were in pink and white, both bride roses and carnations for a centerpiece. Covers were laid for forty.

Mr. and Mrs. Milkes left on a wedding tour. They will be at home at 909 West Franklin avenue after Feb. 1. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were B. Kitzky of St. Louis, O. Kitzky of Wadena, Minn., and Mrs. Fred Kitzky of Staples, Minn., Alexander Kitzky of New York, Mrs. Robert Kitzky of Blue Earth and Lewis Milkes of Chicago.

Dr. W. Will succeeds Dr. Reynolds, former assistant to Dr. Davis, in the hospital. Dr. Reynolds has held the place about thirty months and has gone to Chicago for a vacation. Dr. Will is from Mapleton, Minn., and the medical department of the Minnesota university.

The hospital report gives seventy-five present and some report says twenty were absent with pneumonia. "Cabs" suffered from colds and results. No deaths this week.

The following were admitted to the home: J. M. Bursley company G. Fourth Minnesota Infantry; Frederick Selforth, company E, First Ohio light artillery.

The following were discharged: Horace Randall, John Hagorn and Sandy Shaw. Five returned from "leaves." Five were granted "leaves." There are present, 321; absent, 78; total in home, 400.

The home was entertained last Saturday evening by a musical delegation and friends under the guidance of Camp No. 7, Sons of Volunteers, Minneapolis. Dr. Wallace G. Skidmore gave a "darker" sermon and the members of the home, with other character delineations. Mrs. Harriet L. Hull gave nice readings and was encored. T. T. Warrum sang several catchy selections. Mrs. Maud Pratt Crane whistled and played the piano. First she accomplished the squirrel up a tree, whistling its chatter, while she made the piano bark for the chasing dog. The audience listened with attentive attention and voted for a return trip. The party had coffee and lunch after the entertainment.

The foot of new snow Wednesday delayed work on the new building only a few hours. It will aid the work as rock from the quarry can be handled to much better advantage on runners.

In mentioning our reading material last week we unintentionally neglected to mention two most important items. First, the home library with loaded shelves in several rooms, renders the reader his choice. Second, and we forgot the magazines. They are mostly gifts from friends of the home in the twin cities and if the donors could see how they become worn, they would feel repaid.

An old soldier, well known on the car line, was put off the car in the deep snow between streets, because he failed to "dig up."

Thursday was pension voucher day and it was a busy day at the home. Four hundred went flying to Minneapolis.—Dr. S. B. Coe.

Warning! Don't Go to California. It would be a great mistake to arrange for a trip to California at this time of the year. First, look for a Kansas city over the minneapolis and saint louis railroad, making close connection in Kansas city union depot with the fast and luxurious California limited trains. No other road offers such thorough service—lowest rates. Consult John Gee rickel, four twenty four nicollet ave.
