POULTRY SHOW IS OPEN IN EARLY

HUGE EXHIBITION TERMS WITH INTERESTING FEATURES.

United States' Permission Has to Be Secured Before Show Is Opened—Chorus Is Deafening—Fish Come Packed in Ice, Apparently Frozen—3,314 Entries on Exhibition.

It is not often that the United States has to be contented before a poultry exhibition can open, but such was the case with the poultry show now on in the Pond block on First avenue S and Seventh street. A bunch of high-bred, blue-blooded fowls from Canada arrived in the city yesterday for exhibition and were held up by the United States custom officials. As they were shipped by express and high values were placed on each bird, the duty amounted to nearly $500. Secretary George Loth was appealed to for assistance. His combined functions as show manager and deputy sheriff of Hennepin county succeeded in unraveling the tangle before midnight last night, when the birds were released on a bond and allowed to appear in the show.

Everything in the big exhibition was open and ready for business today. It was a repetition of the famed annual fair of song and story, "all the beasts and birds were there," and the noise was something immense. Every creature in the place, with the exception of the alligators and the fish, was in the chorus, the ensemble being a close, accurate imitation of a vocal conservatory for grand opera stars. The Tower of Babel was entirely outclassed.

Fish in Chipped Ice.

The fish are attracting much attention. They have been placed in roomy tanks in the basement, where there is running water and a home for aged kind-hearted lady had a severe shock this morning when she saw a lot of snuff and perch spread out on screens, apparently dead. "Oh, dear," she exclaimed, "it is to be had for the price on the way." The attendant explained that the fish were shipped in chipped ice and were merely chilled, not dead. They were laid out on the screens after being dipped in water.

BERWIN FUND STILL SLOWLY INCREASING

SEND MONEY TO THE JOURNAL.

The various funds now stand as follows:

Previously reported.....$1,900.00
Jewish Reform Congregational Sunday school..... 12.50
William A. Willard..... 1.00
Gordon W. Sapp, Chicago..... 10.00
U. S. Installation Realty Co. 20.00
Journal total.....$1,943.50

OTHER SOURCES.

Chamber of Commerce committee.....$2,666.00
City Council committee..... 440.00
Previously reported..... 235.00
Janney, Semple, Hill & Co. 100.00
Austin Fire Department..... 10.00
W. A. Peterson..... 5.00
Total.....$3,426.00
Journal total.....1,943.50
Grand total, all sources.....$5,369.50

The children of the Jewish Reform Sunday school have sent The Journal $12.50 for the Berwin fund, this being the first contribution from such a source. The Semple, Hill & Co. send $100, and also make a $100 contribution to the fremen's relief fund. The fire department at Austin, Minn., is among today's contributors, and another contribution is $10 from Gordon W. Sapp of Chicago, who was slightly injured in the fire. W. A. Peterson of Hook and Ladder company, No. 25, which was given him by Le Roy James, Peterson and Charles Adams took Mr. James down a pomper ladder from the seventh floor and Mr. James, in his gratitude, gave Peterson $5, which the fremen prefer should go to the widow and children of his late comrade.

While the announcement of the Berwin fund states that it is for the benefit of the widow and children of Captain Berwin, it should be understood that his aged mother is also to be included. She was being cared for previously at a home for aged women, to which he paid a stipulated monthly amount. Mrs. Berwin has expressed a desire that it should be understood that the old lady is to be included as a beneficiary of the fund.

A Boller Rink Benefit.

Tickets for the Berwin benefit to be given Friday evening, Jan. 26, at the Boller skating rink, 105 Eighth street S, are on sale at Chapman's grocery, Nicollet avenue and Eighth street; Wagoner's drugstore, 720 Nicollet; Weinberger's drugstore, Nicollet and Sixth street; Vendome hotel cigar stand; Fisher's cigar store, Hennepin avenue and Fourth street; the Nicollet hotel cigar store, Voegel's drugstore, Nicollet and Second street; the Turner Bakery, 820 Nicollet; Dillon's drugstore, Nicollet and Ninth street; Wincke & Coerr's cigar store, 412 Nicollet, and the Journal office.

Gorgeous Game Birds.

The display of game birds, both foreign and domestic, is the finest ever been shown in America. The Wallace Evans company, making the exhibit, is really combining two shows in one. The gorgeous Asiatic pheasants and ducks have large, rosy avaries covered with wire netting and plentifully supplied with brush and branches, which allow plenty of room for the birds to show to the best advantage. For the native birds avaries covered with a coarse cotton or linen net are used. These birds are more nervous and shy than their Asiatic relatives and fly about with their wings might injure themselves. The decorations used in the rooms are appropriate and effective. Miles of hessian and oak foliage is used for greens and brush has been used to good effect. The game and fish exhibits are protected with rustic railings. Willow wands and oak foliage is used for lighter decorations, and the national colors in festoons and draperies are used everywhere on the white walls with pleasing results.

The show will be open every day and evening, including Sunday. The rooms are clean, light and comfortable, and the exhibits are full of interest to everybody.

UNION OPPOSES ARRICK

Declares He Is Ineligible for Wire Inspector Job.

A fight is being made against the appointment of Charles W. Arrick as outside electric wire inspector by the local members of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers. Arrick has not been appointed by City Engineer Andrew Rinck, but it is expected that he will be selected as such was given the highest standing by the examining board. The opposition is based on the charge that he has not been employed as a wire inspector for five years, as required by the ordinance creating the office.

Mr. Arrick denies this charge. He says he is willing to make an affidavit that he has worked outside for five years. His friends declare the opposition is based on the fact that he is not a member of the union.

W. A. BENNIE DEAD

Well-known Train Dispatcher Is Suddenly Stricken with Apoplexy.

The funeral of William A. Bennie, a railway train dispatcher, who died Monday, will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. from the residence of his brother-in-law, J. P. Freeman, 2525 Colfax avenue S. Mr. Bennie, who had been employed at Springfield, Ill., was visiting with Mr. Brannan. He was seized with apoplexy and died suddenly on Monday. For years he had been a train dispatcher in this city, having been in the employ of the Minneapolis & St. Louis, Soo Line and Northern Pacific railroads. He is survived by his wife and two children.

STREETCARS IN CRASH

Two First Avenue short-line cars collided at the postoffice corner about 8 a.m. today, and caused a mixup which delayed traffic somewhat and caused minor injuries to the cars. No one was hurt, but both cars were full of passengers and they were badly scared for a few moments.

As one car was crossing Third street going south, another car attempted to make the turn from First avenue to Third street. The last car caught the other car with considerable force toward the forward end and pushed it about three feet off the track. The car which did the bumping had some glass broken and some woodwork splintered, while the other showed no particular damage from the collision.

MRS. VAN SANT HURT

Wife of Former Governor Slips and Breaks Wrist.

Mrs. S. R. Van Sant, wife of Minnesota's former governor, fell on an icy sidewalk at LeClaire, Iowa, where she was visiting her husband's mother, Monday, and broke her right wrist. The injury, while not serious, is very painful, and Mrs. Van Sant has gone to a sanatorium at Bettie Creek, Mich., for treatment.

NO MORE LOOTING

Soldiers Cannot Divide Contents of Deserters' Kits Any More.

Deserters' kits are no longer the property of the first man who gets his hands on them. This is the substance of an order just issued by Lieutenant Colonel William L. Pitcher, temporarily in command at Fort Snelling.

Heretofore it has been the custom for a soldier's mates to remove and divide the contents of a deserter's kit without leave. As the property belongs to the government, Lieutenant Colonel Pitcher is determined to stop the practice.

MEANS MUCH TO THE TWIN CITIES

SAN FRANCISCO, IDAHO & MONTANA ROAD BEGUN.

New Line Will Bring San Francisco 200 Miles Nearer by Way of Butte, Will Make New Route for Fruit Shipments and Create Market for Products.

With the return of William Peyton Mason, president of the San Francisco, Idaho & Montana road, to the headquarters office in Butte, the developments that work has already begun on the line and that prospects are bright for early completion of the first 210 miles of road from Boise to Winemuccia, Nev. Mr. Mason attended the annual election at Boise and was re-elected head of the company.

Interest for Minneapolis in the new road lies in the fact that it will bring San Francisco 200 miles nearer by way of Butte, will make a new cool route for the shipment of Pacific coast fruit to the twin cities, will open a new source of fruit shipments in the irrigation district of the famous Snake river region, and will make a market for Minneapolis merchandise and products, as well as open a new general freight and passenger traffic route to the middle far west. The proposed route of the new line passes thru the region in which T. B. Walker and other Minneapolis lumbermen own large tracts of forest timber, whose value will be greatly enhanced by railroad facilities.

The stockholders of the San Francisco, Idaho & Montana line, officially known as the Golden Gate route, elected W. E. Foran of Boise treasurer, G. T. Propper of Boise, secretary and chairman of the executive committee; J. Q. Burbank, chief engineer; Messrs. Straub and Propper in Minneapolis today on business connected with the affairs of the committee.

An agreement has just been reached between the directors of the Boise Chamber of Commerce and the officers of the Golden Gate by which the company will secure the right-of-way belonging to the Citizens and a bonus of $250,000. Half of the amount is to be paid sixty days after the company has built from Boise to and across the Snake river, about fifty miles, and the remainder when the line of road has reached the rail distance to San Francisco 625 miles, either by direct line or by connection at Winnemuccia. This means a total of about $1,125,000 contributed voluntarily by Boise.

The Pacific coast lumber company has taken the contract for the first division and it already has men at work. Forty miles of ties have been laid on the grade of the Citizens road and 3,000 ties are being cut. The lumber company has a townsite at the end of the Citizens road, about fifty miles from Boise, called St. Clair, where irrigation work is planned.

One of the sources of revenue for the Golden Gate will be the distribution of the lumber from the mills of northern California and southern Oregon to the middle west, which is barren of native timber. The route may be either by way of the Southern Pacific thru Winnemuccia, or by the northern route thru Butte.

RAILROAD OFFICIALS ASKED TO CONFERENCE

All Minnesota railroads have been asked to send representatives of their engineering departments to a conference with the railroad commissioners, Friday morning. The subject of the talk will be the projected work of making a valuation of Minnesota roads.

The commission wants the co-operation of the railroad officials as far as possible, and will ask them for all information that can be granted about the original cost of roadbeds and equipment. At the conference it is hoped to reach an understanding so that all such information will be given to the commission voluntarily.

GRIEF FOR HER DEAD HUSBAND KILLS WIFE

Mrs. Anna Burke died last evening at the family residence, 182 Farrington avenue, St. Paul, and the cause of grief caused by the death of her husband, David Burke, who died last Friday.

Burke was buried Monday and sorrow so overcame his wife that she died last night. Mr. and Mrs. Burke came from Ireland and were married in St. Paul in 1858. They had one son, who is away and does not know of the death of his parents.

TAKES SALOON LICENSE

Mayor Jones Punishes Jacob Lokuski, Who Sold on Sunday.

Jacob Lokuski, who has been running a saloon at 25 Eighth avenue NE, near the east end of the Plymouth avenue bridge, was deprived of his license today by Mayor D. P. Jones. The revocation was prompted by the evidence of Officers Nelson and Aagaard, who secured liquor at the saloon last Sunday on two different visits. In the morning officers were served in rooms above the saloon and in the afternoon Lokuski was so bold that he served his wares over the bar.

The police administration will recommend to the council that no license be granted to this place in the future, as it can never be anything but a low resort by reason of its location.
