Club Calendar.

SATURDAY—Dorcas circle, Mrs. E. H. McAllister, 3014 Pleasant avenue, 2-30 p.m.

A Colonial Tea.

In response to the rhymed invitations of Colonel chapter, D. A. R., many women called on the ladies and dropped their coin upon the plate at the tea given at the Hampshire Arms by the chapter this afternoon. It was a colonial tea and the guests were greeted by a group of color girls in the quaint costumes of olden days with powdered hair and stately brocaded gowns. Flags and bunting were draped on the walls and over the doorways in the reception room, and the tables were invitingly arranged with old-fashioned flowers in the colors of the chapter. The hostesses were the regent, Mrs. C. Johnson, Mmes. G. T. Thompson, C. H. Hunter, Charles W. Hack, J. A. Crosby, Frederick Paine, J. E. F. Calhoun, C. E. Fisher, E. C. Chatfield, M. D. Staunton, Horace Kling and Miss Jane Long. Mrs. Hack presided at the table and Mrs. Kling served frappe. Assisting them were Mrs. Earle Nunnally, Misses Louise Higgins, Helen Gilbert, Vicki Stone, Mrs. W. H. Trask, Adeleide Crosby and Mrs. Erle Luce. Miss Katherine Harris presided at the curio table, which held numerous rolls of olden days and the heirlooms which are cherished as priceless treasures in the homes of the old Minneapolis families.

The program included vocal numbers by Miss Winifred Westlake, C. E. Fisher; violin selections by Miss Anna Louise Woodcock; piano numbers by Mrs. Emma Fisher, and a brief review of the work which Colonial chapter has done at the settlements by Miss Anna Goodsell. The money which was contributed at the tea will be used in the settlement work, where the women of the chapter do much to create and further the patriotic spirit.

An Open Meeting.

The Alternates held their annual open meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Graham, 1108 Fourth street SE. The program included a presentation of a charming and simple decoration thru the rooms. The club is studying Egypt this year and Rev. Dr. John Wright of St. Paul gave an interesting talk on ancient Egyptian embalming. Mrs. J. P. Coar, president of the club, introduced Dr. Wright. After the talk light refreshments were served. There were about fifty guests.

Executive Board Meeting. Thursday a meeting of the executive board of the Minnesota State Federation will be held at the Hotel St. Paul. The meeting will be called to order at 11:30 o'clock, and will be followed by an informal luncheon.

Alliance Francaise. The second lecture arranged by the Alliance Francaise will be given this evening at 8 o'clock in the Church of the Redeemer clubrooms, when Professor F. R. Le Roux will speak at the request of the local branch on "La Bretagne et ses Legendes." As this lecture is only for the members, no tickets have been issued.

Neighborhood Current Events.

The Neighborhood Current Event club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. J. E. Addy, 2753 Fremont avenue S. The program was on France. Mrs. John Austin gave the current events; Mrs. G. Brigger gave a description of the flag. "The People and Their Characteristics in the Early and Mediaeval Literature," was the subject of a talk by Mrs. Walter Baldwin. Miss May Wells played Schubert's "Butterfly"; Mrs. George E. Clark spoke on "Alsace Lorraine and the Franco-Prussian War," and Mrs. A. L. Beard of "The Potteries at Limoges and Sevres." The next meeting of the club will be held with Mrs. C. G. Engler, 1021 West Thirty-first street.

Afro-American Women.

The members of the M. T. C. Art club enjoyed an interesting program at their meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. H. Neal. Quotations from Shakespeare were given in response to the rollicked. Mrs. Neal presented the current topic and Mrs. Mattie Wade read a paper on "The Afro-American Woman in Business," which was followed by a general discussion led by Mrs. R. S. Brown. Delegates elected for the anniversary meeting to be held in February are, Mmes. Minnie Richardson, Anna Brown, Mattie Neal, Mary Moss and Daisy Simpson. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Mattie Wade, 315 Eighth avenue S.

A meeting of young people will be held this evening in Lowry Hill Congregational church to make plans for the young people's missionary institute. Rev. C. E. Burton and Rev. H. K. Painter will be present. Refreshments will be served after the meeting by the Lowry Hill Christian Endeavor society.

WASHINGTON VISITORS.

Special to the Journal.—Washington, Jan. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Emil Ferrant and Mr. and Mrs. John Branson of Minneapolis are in the city on a business trip and will leave this evening for Philadelphia. They expect to be home in about three weeks. Mr. Branson is spending a day or two in Washington on his way home after a business trip to New York.
