

ESCAPE WRECK TO BRIBE GIVEN IN SUFFER ON TRAIL BEEF TRUST TRIAL

Survivors of the Valencia Disaster Reach a Haven and Report Names of Victims Found.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 27.—All of the survivors who reached shore near the scene of the wreck of the Valencia have now been cared for, the last party of nine, who had been stalled at the Darling river on account of the flooded trail...

Great credit is due to the party from the Salvor, headed by Captain Ferris, who left early Wednesday and traveled an almost impassable trail for fifteen miles. After a night spent on the trail they started for home with the survivors.

Before returning Captain Ferris visited the wreck. He reported the beach littered with wreckage, and that at that time five bodies were on shore being identified.

A second party left the Salvor yesterday morning. They went as far as Pachena, carrying packs of provision and extra clothing. At 3 o'clock they were joined by a landing party sent from the United States revenue cutter Grant.

The party was sighted at 3:10 p.m. on a point of rock, having taken to the beach as the tide was up. The men were in their fatigued condition. All the survivors were completely fatigued.

Eleven bodies are reported washed ashore. One has been identified through papers found as that of Mr. Doherty of New York. The name of W. Doherty appears in the list of a fireman.

Another is identified as A. F. Grifanzen of San Jose, Cal. Lack of Discipline. F. F. Bunker of Seattle said there was an evident lack of discipline among the officers and this statement has been corroborated by other passengers.

Another survivor of the Valencia has been found in Frank Connors, who was discovered on Turret Island in an exhausted condition. Unless some survivors are found on floating wreckage—a small hope—it is not expected that more than the thirty-seven men now accounted for will survive the disaster.

The steamer Salvor reported at Bamfield creek last night that she had picked up a raft from the Valencia and a half hour later she reported that she had picked up three bodies, which have been identified as those of Wallace, a waiter; Nelson, third engineer, and an American soldier and marine of the United States ship Concord.

OLDERS MUTINY AT VLADIVOSTOK

Serious Uprising of Russian Troops at Far Eastern Port.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 27.—That there has been a renewal of the mutiny at Vladivostok was confirmed by a dispatch from that city filed Thursday and received here late last night.

The dispatch indicates that the mutiny, which began last Monday, had not been subdued and that the situation was far more serious than during the outbreak of November, as the mutineers include both sailors and artillerymen who are in possession of the "Holy Innocence" battery and are well armed with rifles, machine guns and heavy fortress guns.

General Mistechenko, who has been sent to deal with the mutineers, the dispatch adds, has no easy task, as the Cossacks given him are suited for capturing a fortress position.

It declares that the promises of immediate transportation home for the men, with which the government ended the former revolt, are now scarcely effective.

The telegram, which bears evidence of having been carefully edited, says nothing about the numbers of the mutineers nor of the attitude of the garrison as a whole.

A report that the general Solovianoff, the commander of the army corps at Vladivostok, had been wounded is confirmed. The war department officials are unable to give particulars of the seriousness of the mutiny, which is due to the reserve men, who are thoroughly indoctrinated and are clamoring for their immediate release.

Reds Slay in Hospital. Lodz, Russian Poland, Jan. 27.—Three unidentified persons today gained access to the hospital and killed with daggers a man named Labinski, who was shot in the streets Jan. 25. The murders thus completed the sentence of the local revolutionary tribunal, which condemned him for informing on the location of a bomb depot.

Shot by Hundreds. Wenden, Livonia, Thursday, Jan. 25.—The pacification of the Baltic provinces is reaching the final stage, so far as the agrarian movement is concerned. Nearly 250 revolutionists have been shot, and 5,000 rifles have been captured by the troops.

General Orloff, Meinhardt and Wendt are now operating in the Wenden district with 10,000 troops completing a circle in which the revolutionists are being gathered. The generals have the names of the leaders of the revolutionists, who are being shot or imprisoned. The majority of those already executed were Lettish teachers of students.

The revolutionists have stopped burning buildings, but they occasionally fire on the troops. Among the burned castles is that of Baron Rosen Grostrop, about twenty miles northwest of Wenden, which was destroyed with all its contents, servants, who had been in the service of the baron for twenty years, assisting in the work of destruction.

Together the revolutionists in this district burned 200 castles, valued at $4,000,000 without including the articles of value which they contained. The troops are taking the strictest measures. On one occasion they surrounded a church in which funeral services were proceeding, arrested the revolutionary orators and shot one of them.

FOUR MEN WOUNDS; BOTH FEET BURNED

Minnesota Man Dies from Injuries Resulting from Long Exposure in Woods.

Virginia, Minn., Jan. 27.—Lost for several days in the deep woods near this place, freezing his feet and burning them in a fire so severely that uraemic poisoning resulted, E. Van Meluch, 38, died yesterday.

Meluch started to walk in a bad storm to the outskirts of Virginia. He lost his way and wandered in the woods for several days until the toes of both feet were frozen. Almost exhausted he succeeded in making a fire at the base of a tree, rolled himself in a blanket and went to sleep.

In the night he rolled about in such a manner that his frozen feet came in contact with the blaze, and before he awakened both were badly burned. A party of woodsmen found him lying by his dying fire with his feet cooked. He died the next morning in awful agony.

Osler Dies from Exposure. Special to the Journal. Great Falls, Mont., Jan. 27.—John Osler, a rancher of Chester, Chouteau county, is dead at a local hospital as a result of being frozen about the hands and feet in the severe storm that prevailed over northern Montana six weeks ago.

Osler was 66 years of age. He had been to Fort Benton attending court prior to the breaking of the storm and started to drive to their home, fifty miles north. When they had gone a few miles the storm came and the snow fell thickly and drifted in great heaps. They lost their way and finally their team became exhausted.

They abandoned the team and attempted to seek shelter on foot. For hours they wandered over the snow-covered prairie, and when they finally found shelter, both were badly frozen. Accompanied by his son, E. G. Osler, he had been to Fort Benton attending court prior to the breaking of the storm and started to drive to their home, fifty miles north.

Superior, Wis., Jan. 27.—Ornduff Johnson was found frozen to death by Omaha section men about two miles north of Rockmont. Investigation showed that Johnson and two brothers had been walking along the Omaha tracks towards a mines station. The men became separated and Ornduff fell striking his head against a rail. He was rendered unconscious and while in this condition froze to death.

Each of the senators introducing the bill in a similar strain to Senator Zayas, who said that Cuba owed some evidence of appreciation to her faithful friend and former president, and that the wedding of his daughter afforded opportunity to demonstrate Cuba's love for and appreciation of her illustrious guest.

Assurances are given that the house will take similar action. Caracas, Venezuela, Thursday, Jan. 25, via Port of Spain, Jan. 27.—Twenty-five members of the diplomatic corps today met at the Venezuelan government a formal joint note stating that they cannot accept Venezuela's position that M. Taigny, the former minister under C. Viqueyra has been called to the time of his forced departure from this country.

FAMOUS AERONAUT IS DEAD. London, Jan. 27.—Spencer, aeronaut, died at Malta yesterday while on his way home from India. Spencer, on Sept. 19, 1905, made a remarkable flight over London in his own invention. It was estimated that he traveled nearly thirty miles and had complete control of his vessel. Spencer's father and brother, Ferriol, were also aeronauts of note.
