To Buy Petticoats at These Prices Is to Save Dollars.

Another of those stirring events for which this house is becoming locally famous is scheduled for tomorrow. It's possible you may have purchased such splendid garments as these at the prices we quote, but hardly probable. The materials are all in black and include Satens, Moreens, Imported Glorias and Imported Moreens, and the extremely popular Imported "Heatherbloom" Taffeta. The addition of a new petticoat to one's wardrobe is always acceptable and wise, especially if it be one of common sense variety, of good quality, durability and style, for everyday wear, such as are these.

Read the descriptions, consider the prices, remember our recognized ability for giving the biggest of values, and then favor us and yourself by calling and examining these garments. The most carping critic would give this apparel the stamp of her approval, as will you. The price story—
