Paving will cost a little more this year than last. The prices quoted by the cement dealers run from 30 to 40 per cent higher than last year. ### SENSATIONAL SCENE AT ST. PAUL NORTH SIDE FAMILY QUARREL ENDS IN TRAGEDY.

Edward Dickens and His Wife Engage in a Lively Set-to in Which a Revolver Is Discharged and He Falls with Probably Mortal Wound in Abdomen.

Edward Dickens, 60 years old, in at death's door in the Swedish hospital, the result of a bullet wound inflicted by his aged wife last night after the two had quarreled.

Mrs. Dickens is locked up at Central station. She admits that she quarreled with her husband and admits that she shot him, but says that the shooting was purely accidental.

The trouble took place at the Dickens home, 1713 Sixth avenue N, early last evening. In his story to the police Dickens says that there was a quarrel over some trivial matter and that they both lost their tempers.

He armed himself with a lighted lantern and she with a coal bucket and the fight began. Mrs. Dickens was losing ground rapidly, and to turn the tide of battle she took a loaded revolver from the drawer and pointed it at her enraged husband. She then fired, and the bullet entered his abdomen.

Dickens fell to the floor and his wife ran two blocks to the residence of John Griffin, an old family friend, and told him what had happened. Returning to the home she called up her son, Ed-Ed, saying that he had shot himself. She then called Coroner J. M. Kistler, the family physician.

When Coroner Kistler arrived he suspected that something was wrong and notified the police. He then had the wounded man taken to the Swedish hospital.

When the police came and notified Mrs. Dickens that her husband was in the hospital she flew into a rage and had to be overpowered before she could be taken to the patrol wagon. At first she denied that she had wounded her husband, saying that he had shot himself. Later, however, she told the police that she had fired the shot, but that it was an accident.

Dickens himself said that it was an accident, and asked the police not to detain his wife. He is low, and Dr. Kistler does not expect to pull him thru.

HUSBAND DYING AND UP AGAINST IT

JOHNSON IS FREE

AND UP AGAINST IT

Carl Albert Johnson, arrested two weeks ago on a charge of murdering Charles J. Bader, at the Falls hotel, on the evening of Dec. 23, was discharged by Judge C. L. Smith of the municipal court today on motion of County Attorney A. J. Smith.

The county attorney investigated the charge thoroughly and decided there was not enough evidence to hold the man to the grand jury.

Johnson was arrested on the Battleship Texas at Charleston, S. C., by a private detective of Minneapolis. Some circumstantial evidence had been gathered, but Johnson was easily able to refute it to the satisfaction of the authorities.

As soon as he was released from custody on the murder charge, the police took Johnson to the naval recruiting station in the federal building and sought to turn him over to Lieutenant Ivan C. Wettenberg, the officer in charge, as a deserter from the navy.

After considering the case, Lieutenant Wettenberg concluded that Johnson was not a deserter at present, but he might become so if he failed to rejoin his ship in ten days, and refused to take him a charge. The case is a puzzle for the local representatives of the navy, and they will do nothing until they receive the reply of Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte to the telegram of inquiry sent to him today.

FAVORS FEDERAL LICENSE

CONGRESSMAN MARTIN OF SOUTH DAKOTA STATES HIS REMEDY FOR TRUST EVILS.

Congress Eben W. Martin of South Dakota was the orator at the St. Paul Lincoln day banquet last evening, which was held by the Lincoln club at the Rylan. Mr. Martin's subject was "The People and the Trusts," and he took strong ground in favor of federal license and control of corporations engaged in interstate commerce. He prescribed a remedy for the evil of over-capitalization, and government inspection for the evil of monopoly.

He stated his idea of the remedy as follows: "The Sherman anti-trust law of 1890 aimed directly at the root of the trouble. But I believe the national congress must go one step further in order to acquire complete control and regulation of these vast aggregations of capital. A law should be passed requiring every corporation engaged in interstate commerce, and especially the corporations handling the necessities of life, as food and fuel, first to obtain a franchise or license from the national government, as a basis of its right to participate in interstate commerce at all. Such franchises could be obtained from the secretary of commerce after satisfactory showing that the corporation is not a combination in restraint of trade, that it is honestly capitalized and that it is not its purpose to create or maintain a monopoly in violation of law. A subsequent violation of the law should be cause for a revocation of the franchise or license, and the franchise should be a condition precedent to the corporation's right to do business. Whatever may become of the trusts, the big corporation has come to stay. It is a natural evolution in our modern industrial development. But we should hold the big corporations down to an honest capitalization, based upon a fair valuation of property actually possessed. We should give corporations no special privileges, and see that they get none from other sources. They are entitled to all the advantages that come from the proper union of capital and labor on a colossal scale for the promotion of colossal enterprises. The individual has certain advantages coming from personal attention to local business on a small scale. All we have a right to demand is corporate fairness, decency and honesty."

VICTIMS ARE FORGIVING

WOMAN ACCUSED OF FORGERY MAY ESCAPE PROSECUTION BECAUSE OF LENTENY.

Phyllis Benzel, the woman arrested last Saturday afternoon on a money order under false pretenses by passing a worthless check on the Northwestern National bank, may not be prosecuted, although she has admitted passing several spurious checks.

The woman is still locked up in the women's ward at the Central station, but she was not arraigned with the other prisoners today.

The police say that the persons who lost the money thru her operations will probably not prosecute, although she had worked her scheme on several occasions.

When the woman first went to the bank she passed herself as Mrs. A. Broom, and presented a check for $200, which was cashed. Last Saturday she again presented another check which was so similar to other known forgeries that she was arrested. Previous to this many checks had been passed at various stores, and no clues could be obtained by the bank officials.

It was first given out by the police that the prisoner was a young woman. The prisoner is more than 50 years old and has a family.

The detectives are still working on the case and some other charge may be placed against her.

CONFERENCE IS OPENED

AUGUSTANA SWEDISH LUTHERAN SYNOD BEGINS ANNUAL MEETING IN ST. PAUL—RECEPTION TONIGHT.

Hundreds of delegates to the forty-first annual meeting of the Minnesota conference of the Augustana Swedish Lutheran synod arrived in St. Paul today. The first arrivals were clergymen, who came early to attend the pastoral conference, which opened this morning at the First Swedish Lutheran church, Woodward and John streets.

The session was devoted to the discussion of the theme, "What Art Thou Doing, O Lord?" Features of a Truly Distinguishing Sermon opened by an able address by the Rev. J. O. Cavallin of Brahm, Minn. There was a spirited discussion by the assembled clergy.

The first general meeting of the conference will be held this evening. It will be partially in the nature of a reception to the delegates and pastors of the church, and will extend the welcome of the congregation. The Rev. Messrs. L. P. Bergstrom of Winthrop and P. M. Eckman of Center City will be the liturgical presiding officers. A Krantz of Duluth will preach the annual conference sermon.

One of the features will be the choral service of the jubilee choir, which will sing the twenty-fifth and twenty-seventh psalms.

"Try It for Yourself." Never take anything for granted, especially when it comes to whiskey. Always ask for Pickwick Rye; you know it's the best.

BIG CHICAGO SALARY IS NO TEMPTATION

Rev. W. J. JOHNSON, Who Declines Offer to Go as Pastor to Chicago Church.

Who offered by a Chicago church, more than twice the salary he is receiving in Minneapolis, Rev. W. J. Johnson has declined to leave the pastorate of the Fifth Presbyterian church.

About a month ago the Forty-first Street Presbyterian church of Chicago made its first overture to Mr. Johnson with a tempting offer of higher salary. Mr. Johnson wrote in return that his Minneapolis pastorate was pleasant and he desired to remain here. The Chicago church still persisted, and ultimately got Mr. Johnson to visit Chicago and look over the field.

The congregation of his Minneapolis church did not know what was going on till Sunday, Feb. 4, when Rev. A. B. Marshall addressed the congregation and told them. By a unanimous rising vote Mr. Johnson was requested to remain. Last Sunday, Mr. Johnson gave his final answer, which was that he would remain as pastor of the Minneapolis church, and that announcement was received with a burst of applause.
