Beautiful Spring Styles

Assembled in a wide variety of charming effects, the new spring modes present a style study of character that will tempt the most fastidious.

Lingerie Waists

Of the new waists that will be worn this season none will be more in demand than the beautiful new designs seen in the very sheer French lawn and handkerchief linen models daintily trimmed with Val insertion and French handmade embroidery.

$3.50 $4.50 $6.00 $7.50 $10.00

New Lace Waists

For Theater Wear—Luncheons—Card Parties and every Dressy Wear—

Dainty new designs in Baby Irish, Platt Val, Embroidered Net and Venetian lace, with fanciful designed Medallion yokes, trimmed with insertions of French Val, Embroidered Net of Oriental and Venetian Lace—Silk lined through—

$5.75 $9.75 $10.75 $12.50

New Spring Suits

The new materials, the novel touches of fashion, the charming braids and new French sleeves are the chief charm of the new spring suits.

$25.00 $32.50

An exceedingly handsome model is the new jaunty Pony Coat of effect of broken plaid with broadcloth Vest and Collar, trimmed with the new silk braid, and circular skirt braid trimmed.

Three distinctive styles in Pony Coat—hip length, box coat and the natty Eton effect—in all the new fine fabrics, with fancy Vests and Collars—in the new circular and plaited skirt effects—smartly tailored with straps of same material.

New Spring Skirts

A wide choice of the smart spring styles are now here that bear that individual character in design and finish so much admired in a faultlessly fitted skirt—Extra good values are in the new Panama Cloth in Black and Navy and New English Mixtures.

"The heart of a woman never grows old; when it has ceased to love it has ceased to live."—Rochepedre.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bladon of Harmon court announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian S., to Wayne Ferris Browning of Hammond, Ind. The wedding will take place early in June.

Mrs. Georgia R. Blackmar of the Waldorf announces the engagement of her daughter, Helen Margaret, to Sidney Carman Meyer. The wedding will take place early in June.

A wedding of unusual interest to the university people will take place Monday morning in the Church of the Holy Cross, when Miss Mayme Constance Ballou, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Roskoveck and Edward L. Rogers will be married. A reception will be given in the evening at the Roskoveck home, 1051 Sixteenth avenue SE. Mr. Rogers played and coached the university football team from 1900 to 1905, and was an important member of that great eleven. He came from Carlisle where he had already won laurels and after he left college he went back to Carlisle to coach the Indian team. Last year he coached the St. Thomas team. He will take his bride to Walker, Minn., where he will practice law and be associated with his father, who is a logging contractor.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hughston announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Olive Elizabeth, to Warner Spencer Schultz. The wedding will take place March 7.

The members of the Minnikahda club will celebrate Washington's birthday informally tomorrow and the entertainment and house committee have arranged in planning a number of amusing features. A table d'hote luncheon and dinner will be served and there will be the usual music and dancing. As it will be the last dinner dance before the club of Wednesday, there is sure to be a large gathering of the young people.

Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Richardson will entertain the Delta Upsilon fraternity alumni and their wives at their home, 1814 Dupont avenue S., Friday evening. In the afternoon Mrs. Oscar Richardson and Mrs. Henry C. Aldrich will give a large reception at the Richardson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Pillsbury gave a dinner last evening at their home on Stevens avenue in honor of Miss Katherine Van Rensselaer Wheaton and Philip B. Winston. The appointments were carried out in pink and white and from a circle of lilies of the valley rose a centerpiece of pink roses and white lilies. At the place of Miss Wheaton was a cluster of lilies of the valley and pink roses. Covers were laid for sixteen and the guests were the bridal party and Miss Donnelly of Pittsburg, who is Mrs. Pillsbury's guest.

Miss Marion McCulloch and Dr. John Maguire were honor guests at a box party at the Metropolitan yesterday evening. E. C. Phinney was the host and the other guests were the bride attendants of Miss McCulloch and Dr. Maguire, whose marriage will take place at 8 o'clock this evening at the family residence on Bryant avenue S.

Mrs. Wesley Neill gave a bridge luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home, 2011 Second avenue S. The decorations were in white and green and spring flowers were used in the parlors and on the luncheon table. The centerpiece was encircled by pretty sandholders with green and white tapers under shades of the same color. Covers were laid for twelve and after luncheon bridge whist was played.

Mrs. Harold H. Eads entertained last evening at her home on West Fifteenth street. There were ten guests and eucure was played. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fleming were the guests of honor.

Miss Grace Hayward is the guest of Mrs. John L. Hague, 1422 Nicollet avenue, for a few weeks, and yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. M. Jacobson entertained thirty of her friends at her home at the Jacobson home, near Minnehaha. The decorations were patriotic and the red, white and blue was displayed thru the rooms. Red and white tapers were on the table and sideboard. Games were played and prizes awarded the lucky players, while silk flags were given as souvenirs for the rest. A short program followed and then luncheon was served.

There was a toast to Miss Hayward, who made a happy response.

The Beta Kappa Phi sorority gave a valentine party Friday evening, entertaining forty guests, at the home of Miss Lamport. The decorations were festive of hearts. Hearts were played and prizes were won by Miss Brown, Miss Stearns, Mr. Gunderson and Mr. Stover. After the games dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Anna Guthrie and Dwight E. Kilder were married Monday at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. J. C. Newcomb, 3035 Cedar avenue.
