"Woman is the highest, holiest, most precious gift to man."—Todd.

Appointments of rare beauty marked the marriage of Miss Katherine Wheaton and Philip Bickerton, of St. Paul, which was solemnized this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the church of St. John the Evangelist, Miss Wheaton is the daughter of Dr. Wm. H. Wheaton, of St. Paul and Mr. Winston belongs to one of the well-known Minneapolis families, and is the son of Mrs. F. B. Winston of Park avenue.

Several hundred invitations had been issued and the church was thronged with a fashionable gathering of St. Paul and Minneapolis society people. The Minneapolis guests made the trip in two chartered interurban cars and were met at the Dale street station in St. Paul by carriages which conveyed them to the church. Spring in its fullest glory was the subject of the decorations, and fragrant spring flowers, lilies, daffodils and narcissus were used in large clusters against the background of white ribbons and the effect was charming and the delicate color scheme of yellow and white was beautified by the last rays of the setting sun, which fell thru the stained glass windows and by the light of softly burning cathedral candles.

Preceding the hour of the service and while the guests were seated by the ushers, Charles A. Pillsbury, Fred Carpenter, John Shaw and John Gillilan, Minneapolis, Charles Wheaton, Jr., and Richard Ward of St. Paul, a program of nuptial music was played on the organ. Immediately after the ushers had stretched the white ribbons, strains of the "Lohengrin" wedding march pealed forth and the bridal party entered.

Mrs. Charles S. Pillsbury, sister of Mr. Winston, was matron of honor and entered first, followed by the two bridesmaids, Misses Nina Young and Helen Cooper. Directly in front of the bride walked her sister, Miss Marion Wheaton. The bride entered with her father, and was met at the chancel steps by Mr. Winston and his best man, R. D. Stewart of St. Paul. During the service, Lewis Shaw sang the favorite sections of the bride, Rev. Theodore Sedgwick read the service.

Miss Wheaton wore a magnificent gown of heavy white satin made with a long, sweeping train. Her full veil was held in place by a large arrangement of blossoms, which had been worn by her mother on her wedding day. The bouquet was an exquisite arrangement of the rarest variety of orchids, Phlox, Anemone, Schilleriana, and their snowy white petals were accentuated by the delicate green of maidenhair ferns. Miss Marion Wheaton was in white lace over silk and carried a huge arm bouquet of white lilies. Mrs. Pillsbury's gown was of point lace and duchesse lace and she carried white lilies. The two bridesmaids were dressed alike in frocks of baby pink lace and carried pink roses and white lilies and carried a bouquet of white lilies and pink roses.

A short reception followed at the Wheaton residence on Summit avenue. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Winston were Mrs. F. B. Winston and Mrs. P. B. Winston. The decorations in the house were a continuation of the delicate color scheme used in the church. Lilies and sunny daffodils mingled their delicate colors in the chancel, in the parlors and reception rooms, and in the dining room the appointments were beautifully carried out in pink.

At 8 o'clock, Mr. and Mrs. Winston's departure for the east, a bridal supper will be served at which only the relatives and bridal attendants will be present. Mr. Winston will take his bride on a delightful wedding trip to Cuba, after which they will visit Mrs. Winston at their southern home, Courtland, Va.

Mrs. A. G. Chambers of 1811 Colfax avenue St. Paul was hostess at an afternoon card party today. Five hundred was played from nine tables, and at the close of the games a light luncheon was served from the small buffet table. The decorations were carried out with clusters of flowers and foliage and a different color scheme was used in each room. In the reception room pink was the chosen color, the parlor was bright with the sunny yellow of jonquils and the dining room and reception hall had clusters of red carnations.

The marriage of Miss Anna Ferlaak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Ferlaak, and Joseph C. Brennan took place this morning at 8 o'clock in St. Boniface church in the presence of a group of relatives. The bride wore a gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Miss Etta Schlesinger and Morris Pink were married last evening in New Richmond hall. About 150 guests gathered to witness the service. An orchestra played the wedding march as the bridal party entered. Miss Clara Schlesinger was her sister's maid of honor and wore pale gray trimmed with lace and carried American Beauty roses. The bride's gown was white liberty satin with a lace yoke. She wore a veil and her two bridesmaids, a diamond and diamonds and pearls, were the gifts of the bridegroom. The bouquet was of pink and hyacinths. The two flower girls were the little cousins of the bride, and the best man was Louis Pink, the bridegroom's brother. The service was followed by a club and the guests were dancing. Mr. Pink and his bride received a number of telegrams of congratulation from New York.

Mrs. J. E. Conant entertained at luncheon yesterday at her home, 3233 Chicago avenue. Mrs. D. E. Lawrence, who has recently returned from Duluth, where she has been spending the winter with her daughter, and Mrs. Lydia Lissenberg, who leaves Saturday for a month's visit in Iowa, were the honor guests. Covers were placed for eight and carnations and tulle made an attractive table decoration. Several of the guests were over 80 years old, and the luncheon they gave delightful reminiscences of their girlhood.

Mrs. A. F. MacDermott was hostess at a charming luncheon given at her home on Delaware street in honor of Mrs. Burke, a visiting woman yesterday. The dining room was entirely in red, and red-shaded candles adorned the table. The guests were eight of Mrs. Burke's most intimate friends. After luncheon Mrs. MacDermott and her guests formed a box party at the Orpheum theater.

DRAMATIC RECITAL.

The pupils of the dramatic department of Johnson school gave three pleasing comedies last evening in the school hall under the direction of Mrs. Charles M. Holt and Miss Maude Moore. Miss Etta Farnsworth as a young widow in "The Kleptomaniac" was a spirited creature, in amusing contrast to the tearful bride, Miss Alice O'Connell. Misses Hazel Buckham, Margaret Bailey, Marion Volk, Bessie Ness and Elizabeth Gerard were the others in the cast who did admirable work. Misses Bessie Ness and Louisa Edson gave clever character sketches in the country farce, "Sunbonnets," and the other parts were well taken by Misses Vera Dahlstrom, Ada Sutton, Ethel Fisher, Sara Swenson, Ethel Broberg, Florence Thompson, Plene Rickmore and Myra Larkin. Misses Louise Smith, Hulda Bergstad and Annie Swenson contributed the musical numbers.

EVERY CHOICE

When you think of it, it's surprising to note the great diversity of shapes and patterns we show in "Dorothy Dodds" Shoes.

If this shape is not enough arched for your foot, we have another that is. If that one doesn't give you "tread" enough, we've got one that does. Is this toe too narrow, or that heel too high? We'll give you one wider or lower. You want them still wider and lower? Alright, we have them too.

As for leathers, we have them all. Patent leathers of all kinds and in the best grades; the long wearing and beautifully finished Gum Metal; the lustrous and ever reliable Glazed Kid, in different weights and fibres. In short, if you appreciate the advantages of a wide range of styles, you'll be delighted with our showing of Dorothy Dodds. And don't forget their money-saving prices—money saving indeed for such shoes as these.
