

THE JOURNAL

VOLUME XXVIII—NO. 101. LUCIAN SWIFT, MANAGER. J. S. McLAUGHLIN, EDITOR.

PUBLISHED EVERY DAY. SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY MAIL. Daily and Sunday, one year, $4.00.

WASHINGTON OFFICE—W. W. Jerome, chief of Washington Bureau, 901-902 Columbia building.

NEW YORK OFFICE—Chicago Office, Tribune Building. O'MARA & ORMSBEE, REPRESENTATIVES.

LONDON—Journal on file at American Express office, 3 Waterloo place and U. S. Express office, 90 Strand.

PARIS—Journal on file at American Express, 21 Rue de la Harpe, and Ecole Bureau, 53 Rue Cambon.

SWEDEN—Journal on file at American Legation, Stockholm.

NORWAY—Journal on file at American Consulate, Christiania.

DENMARK—Journal on file at American Legation, Copenhagen.

ST. PAUL OFFICE—420 Endicott building. Telephone, N. W., Main 230; R. C., 3068.

EAST SIDE OFFICE—Central avenue and Second street. Telephone Main No. 2.

TELEPHONE—Journal has a private switchboard for both lines. Call No. 9 on either line and call for department you wish to speak to.

A Convert to Socialism. Joseph Medill Patterson, whom Mayor Dunne of Chicago appointed commissioner of public works, has resigned, and in doing so he notifies the mayor that he has resigned because he does not consider his plans of immediate municipalization immediate enough nor broad enough.

Senator Foraker's argument against the rate bill is considered unanswerable by those who do not want to answer it.

"Rasping" Congress. It has been the fate of most presidents who attempted to do things, that they have suffered a temporary loss of popularity with the members of their party in congress.

The South and its Heroes. Some of those old gentlemen whom all delight to honor, who make up the rapidly decreasing number of defenders of the union, are seriously disturbed over the attitude of the south in the matter of commemorating its great civil war events and marking the resting places of its heroes.

Another use is one which has appealed to the medical fraternity, which has for a long time waged unavailing war upon the filthy paper money which is permitted to circulate until it almost drops to pieces.

St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

all such attempts to influence legislation. Very likely this what the Tribune means when it alludes to the "rasping" of congress by the president.

The city of Chicago has adopted the ordinance raising the saloon license to $1,000 a year. Chicago will now move upon the crime works earnestly.

Making of Railroad Rates. The Hepburn or house railroad-rate bill provides for "a just, reasonable and fairly remunerative rate to be fixed as a maximum charge."

Rank Discrimination. Class legislation of the clearest kind is found in the tax laws of Minnesota, by which corporations paying taxes direct to the state may put off settlement for months or years without a penalty.

WHERE SUCCESS DWELLS.—Success the thing is coy and elusive, but Success the magazine has a permanent habitation on Washington square, New York.

AMUSEMENTS. Metropolitan—"Rip Van Winkle." There is too much human interest allied to tradition in "Rip Van Winkle" to allow the play to be put aside.

A MODEL NEWSPAPER. St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

1811—Philip H. Sheridan, soldier, born.

1836—Massacre of the Alamo.

1838—Stittman W. Robinson, inventor of boot and shoe nailing machine, born.

1857—The famous Dred Scott decision.

1858—Decree organizing the Paulist Fathers issued.

1862—Battle of Pea Ridge, Ark.

dered, and Grant knew a great man when he saw one. Every state and city in the south had its men who went out to battle. That they were fighters no union soldier who met them on the field will deny.

So far as the safety of the union is concerned, there is absolutely no harm in the increasing number of Confederate monuments and commemorative buildings arising in the south.

Senator Morgan feels quite keenly that Cromwell has not flung away his reticence, whatever may have occurred to his ambition.

Class legislation of the clearest kind is found in the tax laws of Minnesota, by which corporations paying taxes direct to the state may put off settlement for months or years without a penalty.

The passage of Mayor Dunne's ordinance for a vote on $75,000,000 Mueller certificates at the spring election is the first proposal the mayor has made to fund municipalizing the streetcar lines.

WHERE SUCCESS DWELLS.—Success the thing is coy and elusive, but Success the magazine has a permanent habitation on Washington square, New York.

AMUSEMENTS. Metropolitan—"Rip Van Winkle." There is too much human interest allied to tradition in "Rip Van Winkle" to allow the play to be put aside.

A MODEL NEWSPAPER. St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

1811—Philip H. Sheridan, soldier, born.

1836—Massacre of the Alamo.

1838—Stittman W. Robinson, inventor of boot and shoe nailing machine, born.

1857—The famous Dred Scott decision.

1858—Decree organizing the Paulist Fathers issued.

1862—Battle of Pea Ridge, Ark.

the people of Texas honestly and did good work for them, and the fact that he made a vast fortune in oil never turned them against him, for he did it without crushing his neighbors.

Mr. Rogers, having admitted that he will answer the questions put by Missouri in the supreme court of that state decides that he must, Judge Gildersleeve of New York adjourned the hearing with a light heart.

The railroads have decided to accept the 2-cent fare law in Ohio. What, giving in to the mere law? This is anarchy.

If Secretary Taft hadn't been so harsh, Mr. Wallace with his present $50,000 job might forget the past. Now, never!

Which would you rather see kicked out of the senate, Platt or Aldrich? The only logical reply seems to be, "both."

Japan is preparing to forestall trouble by nationalizing its railroads. This certainly cuts the Gordian knot.

Ice is cheaper in New Orleans, where they have to make it. Here's a pointer for a new company.

The Morgan-Cromwell affair seems to be interesting but not profitable.

WHERE SUCCESS DWELLS.—Success the thing is coy and elusive, but Success the magazine has a permanent habitation on Washington square, New York.

AMUSEMENTS. Metropolitan—"Rip Van Winkle." There is too much human interest allied to tradition in "Rip Van Winkle" to allow the play to be put aside.

A MODEL NEWSPAPER. St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

1811—Philip H. Sheridan, soldier, born.

1836—Massacre of the Alamo.

1838—Stittman W. Robinson, inventor of boot and shoe nailing machine, born.

1857—The famous Dred Scott decision.

1858—Decree organizing the Paulist Fathers issued.

1862—Battle of Pea Ridge, Ark.

tion for as many years as they have been synonymous. Lyceum—"The Christianian." Hall Caine's powerful stage sermon preached thru the medium of a great first in the Lyceum.

By W. P. Kirkwood. JOURNEYS AMONG THE MAGAZINES. JOURNEY NO. 8—New York, March 1.—Thomas W. Lawson's "copy" and the Journal's correspondent reached the office of Everybody's Magazine the other day.

Mr. Cosgrave is a man of ample, though not too ample, proportions for a man being every month. He has light hair, a clear eye, a sharp nose and a pleasing smile.

WHERE SUCCESS DWELLS.—Success the thing is coy and elusive, but Success the magazine has a permanent habitation on Washington square, New York.

AMUSEMENTS. Metropolitan—"Rip Van Winkle." There is too much human interest allied to tradition in "Rip Van Winkle" to allow the play to be put aside.

A MODEL NEWSPAPER. St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

1811—Philip H. Sheridan, soldier, born.

1836—Massacre of the Alamo.

1838—Stittman W. Robinson, inventor of boot and shoe nailing machine, born.

1857—The famous Dred Scott decision.

1858—Decree organizing the Paulist Fathers issued.

1862—Battle of Pea Ridge, Ark.

What the politicians generally understand by an early convention has been knocked out by the decision of Chairman Hamlin, who now says he will call the state convention for the first of April.

The location and the basis of representation will be the main content. Du-luth is hard after the convention, and it has considerable support for the committee.

WHERE SUCCESS DWELLS.—Success the thing is coy and elusive, but Success the magazine has a permanent habitation on Washington square, New York.

AMUSEMENTS. Metropolitan—"Rip Van Winkle." There is too much human interest allied to tradition in "Rip Van Winkle" to allow the play to be put aside.

A MODEL NEWSPAPER. St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

1811—Philip H. Sheridan, soldier, born.

1836—Massacre of the Alamo.

1838—Stittman W. Robinson, inventor of boot and shoe nailing machine, born.

1857—The famous Dred Scott decision.

1858—Decree organizing the Paulist Fathers issued.

1862—Battle of Pea Ridge, Ark.

Minneapolis Politics. Convention Date Practically Settled by Chairman Hamlin, as Date of Committee Meeting Defers Gathering Till Later Part of May—Location and Basis of Representation Left to the Committee.

What the politicians generally understand by an early convention has been knocked out by the decision of Chairman Hamlin, who now says he will call the state convention for the first of April.

The location and the basis of representation will be the main content. Du-luth is hard after the convention, and it has considerable support for the committee.

WHERE SUCCESS DWELLS.—Success the thing is coy and elusive, but Success the magazine has a permanent habitation on Washington square, New York.

AMUSEMENTS. Metropolitan—"Rip Van Winkle." There is too much human interest allied to tradition in "Rip Van Winkle" to allow the play to be put aside.

A MODEL NEWSPAPER. St. Peter Herald. In a trifle more than four months—the paper was established last October—The Minneapolis Sunday Journal's circulation has nearly reached the figures of the daily issue.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY. ONE YEAR AGO. March 6, 1905—Coe Commission company goes into the hands of a receiver.

TEN YEARS AGO. March 6, 1896—Cleveland defeats Minneapolis in getting the meeting of the supreme lodge, Knights of Pythias.

MARCH 6 IN OTHER YEARS. 1802—Thomas Paine, originator of railroad schedules, born.

1804—Halcyon Skinner, inventor of machines for making carpets, born.

1811—Philip H. Sheridan, soldier, born.

1836—Massacre of the Alamo.

1838—Stittman W. Robinson, inventor of boot and shoe nailing machine, born.

1857—The famous Dred Scott decision.

1858—Decree organizing the Paulist Fathers issued.

1862—Battle of Pea Ridge, Ark.

CAPTAIN JAMES HUNTER.

Rice county has a candidate for secretary of state, who is developing considerable support.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.

Harry G. Skinner of Two Harbors, who was N. F. Hugo's colleague in the last house, has announced himself a candidate for re-nomination.